

Lowell Police After Lewd Vice Dens

LIQUOR CASES BEFORE U. S. COMMISSIONER

Canadian Bluenose Wins First Race

NINE LONE SURVIVORS OF ONCE GREAT FIGHTING UNIT MEET IN 60TH ANNUAL REUNION HERE

Veterans of 33rd Massachusetts Infantry, Who Lost Heavily at Lookout Mountain 60 Years Ago, Met This Noon at Memorial Auditorium—Mayor Donovan an Invited Guest and an After-Dinner Speaker

There met in reunion in Lowell today the remnants of a once great fighting unit—the 33rd Massachusetts Infantry, which fought through the Civil war to win everlasting glory and fame.

Its hundreds of soldiers have shrunk to a mere handful. Only nine comrades were at the Memorial Auditorium this noon when the mess call sounded, but these nine trooped the spirit of the regiment when it went out in the bloom of young manhood to answer the country's call to arms 60-odd years ago. Age has left its mark upon the physical side of their lives, but it has not marred the spirit within.

From north, east, south and west came those comrades who were able to travel.

"This may be the last reunion for a lot of us," said one old veteran from way up in New Hampshire, "and I just couldn't help coming down to meet the boys once more."

That same feeling was evinced by them all. They will stick by their comrades, their regiment and their glorious traditions until taps calls them home.

The comrades who met in the veterans' wing in the G.A.R. quarters at the Auditorium this noon were: John J. Ryder of Barnstable Bay, Dudley L. Page of Lowell, H. A. Dixon of Fitchburg, William Hargrave of West Roxbury, William J. J. Shurley, Ira C. Hampus of East Boston, J. E. Barrows of Wilmington, Benjamin Wheat of Lowell and Joseph Brummitt of Wolfboro, N. H.

Today's gathering was the 60th reunion of the 33rd Infantry Association, being held on the 60th anniversary of the battle of Lookout Mountain, where on the night of Oct. 28, 1863, the 33rd Regiment then a part of the 20th Corps, suffered heavy losses while attempting to fight their way through to relieve Rosecrans, pinned up in Chattanooga. Out

Continued on Page 8

FRENCH RESERVATIONS MAY MAKE HOLDING OF REPARATIONS CONFERENCE IMPOSSIBLE

Poincare Says France Has Reached Limit of Concessions—London Papers Declare Inquiry Conditioned by Such Restrictions Could Serve No Useful Purpose

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The reservations which Premier Poincare attaches to French assent to the proposed reparations inquiry are regarded by the London newspapers as making the holding of the conference very problematical.

"It begins to be a question whether an inquiry by France is defensible both in principle and in practice," said one of the London papers.

While assuring France that the allies are anxious to obtain from Germany a fulfillment of her obligations and that they sympathize with the demand of France for security, the newspaper says the allies "are fully convinced that by her present policy France is defeating both the purpose and the result of the conference."

Continued on Page Three

Marie's Old Fashioned HALLOWEEN PARTY

For everybody who wants a good time. Special features, full course Turkey Dinner with all the fixings. Dancing and all the good time you wish for $2.00, Wednesday night until Thursday morning 2 o'clock.

Marie's Restaurant

130 CENTRAL ST.
Make reservations now. Seating capacity limited to 225. Special tables reserved for parties. Broderick's orchestra. Concert every evening in the future.

Our Policy

RESPONSIBLE BANKING
CAPABLE MANAGEMENT
COURTESY
INCREASING
HELPFULNESS

You know this bank is under the supervision of the United States Government. Interest in Savings Department begins next Thursday.

Old Lowell National Bank

Oldest Bank in Lowell

American Challenger Columbia Beaten in First of International Championship Series

AUDITORIUM PRICES TOO HIGH FOR BIG ATTRACTIONS AD CLUB MEMBERS BELIEVE

Want to Know Why It Should Cost More to Hear an Artist Here in a Hall Twice as Big as Symphony—Favor Fifty-Cent Seats on Floor

Why prices for Auditorium concerts should be so high was the question raised at the weekly noon-day luncheon of the Lowell Ad club held at liberty hall today. It was held that artists who appear here at $3 a ticket plus 30 cents war tax, in a hall with a seating capacity of about 1000, appear in Symphony hall in Boston, which seats not more than 1200, for top prices of $3.00.

The Auditorium trustees are to be interviewed by Ad club members active in an endeavor to learn their sentiments. It was brought up at today's meeting that if, as told in The Sun a few weeks ago, Cleveland with an auditorium seating 12,000 persons, can put on John McCormack and other celebrities at 50 cents a seat, we should be able to hear these artists here at prices more within reach than the present scale.

It was also held that as the Auditorium is a city building and not meant for private exploitation at least two rows in the parquet circle and two rows in the first balcony should be on sale, no matter what the attraction, at fifty cents the ticket.

To Take Matter Up
President Edward J. Conroy, who presided at the opening of the meeting, agreed that the points were well taken and the subject will be taken up with the Auditorium trustees and with the city council.

The main point of argument was that if Gail-Cirel, Pavlova, Jeriza and other artists can sing in Symphony at certain prices, that here, with 1600 or more seats than in Symphony hall, the prices should be proportionately lower. Also it was held if an artist can sing in a 2000 capacity hall in Boston for $2.00, why not here for $1.00, with 1600 more seats or better are available.

City Charity Department
Frank Rieard acted as chairman of the day and introduced as the principal speaker of charities, Joseph H. Gormley. Mr. Gormley had as his subject, "Things We Seldom See," and gave an interesting talk on the activities and functions of his department.

The mother aid department, the outdoor department, which includes dispensaries and ambulances, and the Chalmers street hospital were all touched upon by Mr. Gormley in a concise, comprehensive, interesting talk.

There are 270 persons at this time spending the twilight of their lives in the Chalmers street hospital. Mr. Gormley told the Ad folk. As the winter comes on this number will probably reach 500. "We have our snowbirds who come with us in the winter and depart as soon as the robins appear," said Mr. Gormley.

He gave an intimate glimpse into the seamy side of Lowell life in his brief talk and was well received. His talk was held to a short period of time but the subject was handled masterfully and Mr. Gormley showed a deep and full understanding of his work.

CHILD STRUCK BY AUTO
Victor Ruml, aged 4½ years, of 58 Auburn street, this city, was struck and knocked down by a New Hampshire registered car this noon near his home. The woman driving the car took him to his home and then drove away without leaving her name. Officers Conroy and O'Sullivan are investigating the case.

JOSEPH H. GORMLEY

lect, "Things We Seldom See," and gave an interesting talk on the activities and functions of his department.

The mother aid department, the outdoor department, which includes dispensaries and ambulances, and the Chalmers street hospital were all touched upon by Mr. Gormley in a concise, comprehensive, interesting talk.

There are 270 persons at this time spending the twilight of their lives in the Chalmers street hospital. Mr. Gormley told the Ad folk. As the winter comes on this number will probably reach 500. "We have our snowbirds who come with us in the winter and depart as soon as the robins appear," said Mr. Gormley.

He gave an intimate glimpse into the seamy side of Lowell life in his brief talk and was well received. His talk was held to a short period of time but the subject was handled masterfully and Mr. Gormley showed a deep and full understanding of his work.

CHILD STRUCK BY AUTO
Victor Ruml, aged 4½ years, of 58 Auburn street, this city, was struck and knocked down by a New Hampshire registered car this noon near his home. The woman driving the car took him to his home and then drove away without leaving her name. Officers Conroy and O'Sullivan are investigating the case.

BLUENOSE WINS OFF HALIFAX

Canadian Defender Captures First Race by Margin of One Minute and 20 Seconds
Led Until Up to Third Mark Which Schooners Passed Abreast

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 29.—The Canadian defender Bluenose won the first race of the international fisherman's series over a 30-mile course today by a margin of one minute and 20 seconds over the American challenger Columbia. Bluenose led until almost up to the third mark, which the schooners passed abreast and on the fourth leg, regained a lead which she was able to increase considerably before the finish. Bluenose 4:42.42; Columbia 4:45.02.

LOWELL MAN FOUND DEAD IN ARKANSAS

Supt. Atkinson this morning received a telegram dated at Cleveland and signed by George A. Marr, secretary of the Cleveland Carriers' association, to the effect that "Albert Shea, said to have lived with his father, James Shea, 110 Howard street, Lowell, Mass., was found dead Saturday at Ozark, Arkansas. The coroner there has asked instructions as to the disposal of the body. Can you locate James Shea and give him necessary orders?"

As soon as the superintendent received the telegram he got in touch with all the James Sheas in the local directory, but none of them claimed a son by the name of Albert. There is no Shea listed in the directory as residing in Howard street. The police will appreciate any information volunteered.

STRENGTH SECURITY SERVICE

INTEREST BEGINS ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS THURSDAY

Middlesex National Bank

Under Supervision of United States Government
Merrimack cor Palmer

POLICE START CAMPAIGN TO CLEAN UP VICE DENS HERE

Authorities at a Loss to Understand Why Lodging House Licenses Are Granted to Persons Who Have Not Even Taken Out First Citizenship Papers—Case in District Court Today

The second offender to be taken in by the police within a week for maintaining a house of ill-fame, appeared in district court this morning in the person of Manooq Payellian, who was arrested yesterday at a house in Lee street by Sgt. Whinn and Officers Cooney and Moore of the vice squad. Lydia Deischard, a 20-year-old girl, was arrested on the same premises and booked for disorderly conduct. Both cases were continued until Saturday.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER HEARS LIQUOR CASES IN SUPERIOR COURT

United States Commissioner Richard Brabrook Walsh of this city held his first public sitting as commissioner in the Gorham street court room, this morning when five alleged violators of the prohibition law were arraigned before him. The session was held in the criminal court, United States District Court, Judge Marshal Frank E. Hart of this city was in charge.

There were three defendants from Lawrence and two from Haverhill, all of whom were arrested last Friday by Federal Prohibition Agents Sullivan and Hall of this city.

Valter Jacques of Haverhill, pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal sale of liquor and he was held in $500 for his appearance before the United States district court to answer any indictment that the federal grand jury might return against him.

Continued on Page Fourteen

Prohibits Sitting of Saxony Assembly

LONDON, Oct. 29.—General Von Mueller, commander of the Reichswehr has prohibited the assembly of Saxony from sitting tomorrow, says a Central News despatch from Berlin this afternoon. This act on prevents the members from taking any measures under the protection of the parliamentary immunity act.

23 Killed and 31 Wounded in Clash

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—Advices today from Frieberg, Saxony, where demonstrators and federal troops clashed Saturday, reported 23 persons killed and 31 wounded. The first report gave 13 killed and a score wounded.

SENDS AMBULANCE FOR COUNCILOR CHRETEN

Through the courtesy of Mayor John J. Donovan, the new Packard ambulance went to Manchester, N. H., this noon, to bring home Councilor Joseph A. N. Chretien, who has been confined at a hospital there for the past several weeks as a result of an automobile accident.

James J. Gallagher, city council president, Mrs. Messenger Owen Monahan and Mrs. Chretien, mother of the councilor, also made the trip. Councilor Chretien has progressed rapidly during the past few weeks and now is able to walk short distances without assistance. It will be some time, however, before he returns to his work and other interests.

MATHEWS!
There will be a special meeting tonight at 8 o'clock to take action on the death of our late brother, Jeremiah Mathews.
P. F. REILLY, Pres.

Window Shades
We solicit the opportunity to estimate on houses, hotels, apartments, etc., etc.
Manufacturers of Shades Wholesale Prices
CHALIFOUX'S CURTAIN SHOP
Third Floor Phone 5000

Lowell Choral Society
First Rehearsal for the "MESSIAH"
Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 8 P. M.
MIDDLESEX HALL, Palmer St.

MEN'S TIES

Beautiful colorings in the popular "silk and wools," changeable and striped patterns.

50c, $1.00, $1.50 and Upwards

Men's Shop—Street Floor

The Bon Marche

DRY GOODS CO.

SCARFS

A complete selection of beautiful imported wools and cashmeres, silk and wools, all silk and all wool scarfs.

FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

Street Floor

A Perfect Foundation for Modern Gowns— NEW CIRCLET NO. 2017

The slim, straight lines that every woman of today wishes to achieve in her gowns are made possible by this new Circlet No. 2017.

A new thought in brassiere designing is embodied in this original Circlet, for it is so constructed as to bridge the gap at the waist and mould the large figure to decidedly slender lines.

Attached midway between front and back section are hose supporters which bring out the most desirable contours and at the same time prevent the Circlet from riding above the corset-top.

No. 2017 is an exceptional value, fashioned in handsome pink coutil, and will retain its good looks and effective control after many tubbings. Price is ..... $2.00

A SPECIAL VALUE IN WOMEN'S UNDERWEAR

Medium Cotton, 3-Piece Suits, band top, knee and ankle length. Sizes 33-44 ..... $1.25

FOR LARGER WOMEN—Sizes 46-50 .... $1.39

Street Floor

Women's and Misses' Dresses

BRILLIANT NEW STYLES EXPRESSIVE OF ALL THAT IS BEST OF THE SEASON'S MODES—

—Four Great Price Groupings—

$29.50    $39.50    $49.50    $69.50

Tremendous preparations have been made to offer the largest assortment and widest variety of dresses possible. And never before have we presented a group of dresses which represent better values than these. Whatever your need for a new frock you can meet it here—at a very moderate price.

The Bon Marche is noted for its vast assortments of charming frocks, and for the originality and distinction of the dresses themselves. Every frock is up-to-the-minute in style, because our buyer spends his time searching for the newest and smartest garments obtainable. Remember, early shoppers will have first choice!

Every Type of Dress Is Here — Frocks for Street, Sports, Afternoon, Evening

Materials include Satins, Canton Crepes, Satin Crepes, Georgettes, Chiffons, Velvets, Charmees, Twills and Jerseys. All the season's newest colors—as well as black, brown and navy.

Sizes for women, 34 to 44

Sizes for misses, 14 to 20

MEN'S UNDERWEAR

Cotton and Wool Union Suits

$1.75

Medium and Heavy Weight Cotton Suits

$2.00

Three quarters wool, medium and heavy weight suits.

Medium $3.75

Heavy $4.00

All Wool $5.00

Medium and Heavy $6.00

SHIRTS AND DRAWERS

Cotton $1.00 | Half Wool $2.00, $2.50 | All Wool $3.00

Street Floor

BED ROOM SETS

BLUE, ORANGE, ECRU, WHITE JEWEL CLOTH AND UNBLEACHED COTTON

Blue and Orange Sets. Stamped to Embroider

Spread ..... $6.98    Pin Cushion ..... 49c

Sham ..... $2.25    Pillow ..... 98c

Scarf ..... 98c    Curtains, pair ..... $5.58

ECRU

Spread ..... $8.25    Spread ..... $5.00

Sham ..... $2.00    Sham ..... $1.75

Scarf ..... 85c    Scarf ..... 68c

Pillow ..... 98c    Pillow ..... 88c

Curtains, pair ..... $5.00    Cushion ..... 25c

Unbleached Sets, 3 pc. .... $2.89

Art Needlecraft, Third Floor

JAPANESE BLUE PRINT TABLE COVERS

In the following attractive patterns—
"RAMBOO"
"FLOR-DE-LIS"
"APPLE BLOSSOM"
"LILY"

Size 45-in. .... $1.25

Size 60-in. .... $1.75

Size 54-in. .... $1.49

Size 70-in. .... $2.25

Napkins to match, 12x12, dozen ..... 79c

Linen Shop—Street Floor

"WATERSIDE" CORDUROY

BLUEBIRD
CHERRY
SILVER
MIGNON
NAVY

For Dressing Sack-ques and Bath-robes.

98c Yard

On Sale in the Dress Goods Section—Street Floor

THE HOUSEWARES DEPT. OFFERS—

ROASTERS

ALL KINDS

ALL SIZES

LINK ROASTERS

Universal Aluminum Blue mottled, double style, self-basting, with inside tray.

No. 1 size ..... $2.75

No. 2 size ..... $2.98

No. 3 size ..... $3.49

No. 4 size ..... $3.75

No. 5 size ..... $4.98

MODEL ROASTERS

A new oval roaster, attractive brown enamel outside—pure white inside; will take 10-pound turkey. Price $3.45

POLAR ROASTERS

Extra large size, white enamel inside and out, triple coated. Price $4.98

HEARTH BRUSHES

For your fireplace, fancy bamboo handles, Rice straw brush, very attractive, each ..... 59c

WEST BEND ROASTERS

Aluminum, of good weight, in several shapes and sizes.

Round shape, side handles, 10-in. size, $1.59

Large Round size, ventilator slide

With rack ..... $2.75

Without rack, $2.35

Oval shape, dome cover, 16 in. size ..... $4.40

Oblong shape, medium size, self-basting, inside rack ..... $5.50

OIL HEATERS

Perfection Heaters, small size ..... $6.00

Perfection Heaters, regular size ..... $6.98

Miller Heaters, brass tank ..... $7.50

The HOOVER

It BEATS... as it Sweeps as it Cleans

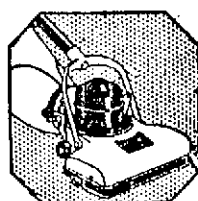

SPECIAL

CLUB

TERMS

$2.00 Down

Whole year to pay balance.

The Hoover cleans thoroughly and easily, without injuring the nap of the finest rugs made. The brush that sweeps the surface dirt, also beats the grit and grime from the fabric of the rug.

FREE HOME DEMONSTRATION Sale Authorized Dealers

The EASY Vacuum Electric WASHER

Save your strength.
Save your health.
Save your time.
Save your youth.
Save your money.
Save your clothes.
Save this advertisement.

Show it to your husband and tell him an "Easy" costs

Only $10 Down

Year to pay balance. Free trial in your home. Our telephone number is 6700.

"NONIK" WATER GLASSES

$1.25 Per Dozen and Upwards

These glasses are specially made so they will not break so easily. We also carry Nonik Soda Fountain Glasses, various sizes and prices.

Enamined Gold Goblets
Enamined Gold Sherbets
Glassware of All Kinds
Glassware—Third Floor

PATRICK J. KIERCE

DIED SUDDENLY

Patrick J. Kierce was found dead in his bed at 18 George street, this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Deceased had been in poor health for some time but his death was entirely unexpected. He had been a resident of Lowell for many years and for a long time was a laborer in the employ of the city. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Hughes Kierce, three daughters, Mrs. John Morrison and Mrs. John Kuhn of Manchester, N. H., and Anna Kierce, two sons, Patrick and Arthur, and sister, Mrs. Katherine Leary. The body was taken to the funeral home of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

DEATHS

MURDOCK—Mrs. Mary Murdock, widow of David Murdock, died last evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John J. Dillon, 184 Grand street. She went most of her days in Burlington and Winooski, Vt., coming here a few years ago to take up her home with her daughter, and while in this city had been an attendant of St. Peter's church. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. John J. Dillon and Mrs. Josephine Dillon; one son, Daniel, the latter of Plymouth, Mass.; 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

MAFFIS—David Marquis died Saturday evening in St. Joseph's hospital, 42 years. He was a former resident of Lowell but returned to Marlow about eight years ago. He leaves his wife, Julia (Boduchon) Marquis, one son, Mrs. Ella Malloux of Braintree, one brother, Archibald Marquis of this city, also his stepfather, Octave Boduchon, step-sister, the Misses Annette, Marie and Bernadette Boduchon, and one step-brother, Denis Boduchon. All of this city. The body was brought to this city and taken to the home of her brother, Archibald Marquis, 22 Gardner avenue, by Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

MULLANE—Jeremiah Mullane, a resident of this city for a number of years, died Sunday morning at his home, 40 Linden street, after an illness of less than a week. Mr. Mullane was a valued employee of the city and buildings department of this city for the past 25 years and was much esteemed by his fellow workers. He was a member of the St. Joseph's church, a member of the St. Joseph's Temperance society and an active worker in all its undertakings. He also was a member of Court Melville, E. of A., and of the St. Joseph's organization. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Mullane, and one daughter, Timothy Mullane, survive him.

DONOHUE—Herbert Donohue died Saturday at the home of his father, 22 Twelfth street, after an illness extending several weeks. He was a resident of this city and in recent years had made his home in Detroit, Mich. He is survived by his father, John T. Donohue of Lowell; his wife, Mrs. Mary Donohue; his mother, Mrs. Mary Donohue; his brothers, William of Los Angeles, Dr. John T. Harry J. George H. and Alexander of Lowell, and Frank of New York; and three sons, Josephine, Josephine and Mrs. Gertrude Dwyer of Jersey City, N. J., and Miss Alice Donohue of Lowell.

DALY—Mary (Hallowood) Daly, a life-long resident of this city and a member of St. Peter's parish for over 50 years, died yesterday morning at St. John's hospital. She leaves one son, John, who is a resident of this city, and several nieces and nephews. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

CAHILL—Marie Gaudette, infant daughter of Joseph and Bertha (Gagnon) Gaudette, died yesterday morning at the home of her parents, Spring street, North Chelmsford, aged 1 day.

NEAL—Marie Irene Neall died at the isolation hospital at the age of 2 years and 8 months. The body was removed to the rooms of Napoleon Higgins Bros.

NIXON—Died Oct. 25, at Belle Grove, Dracut, Herman L. Nixon, aged 43 years, 1 month and 13 days, at his home, Lawrence boulevard. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ida Nixon, two sons, Lee G. and Charles H. Nixon; his father, Samuel Nixon; two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Bartheaux and Mrs. Gordon Armstrong; and one brother, William Nixon. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertaker George W. Healey, 236 Westford street.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and spiritual tributes in the recent bereavement of our loving wife and daughter, Mrs. MRS. JOHN BRITTON and family.
MR. and MRS. E. A. DUBBY and family.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and spiritual tributes in the recent bereavement of our daughter and sister, and for the beautiful floral tributes and expressions of sympathy in our bereavement.
MR. and MRS. E. A. DUBBY and family.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, desire to express our sincere thanks to our many friends, neighbors and relatives for the acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and spiritual and floral tributes at the time of the death of our dear husband and father. We also appreciate their kindly efforts and will ever hold them in loving and grateful remembrance.
MICHAEL FAMILY.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to thank all who were so kind as to help lift the burden of sorrow by their kind acts and floral tributes at the recent death of our beloved husband and father, Patrick J. Kierce.
MRS. ANNIE REGAN and family.

CONDITION IMPROVED
The condition of Mrs. Clara Merse of Chelmsford Centre, who was injured in an automobile accident at Golden Cove road Friday night, is reported today at the Lowell Memorial hospital to be a little improved.

The Lowell Memorial Auditorium has a seating capacity of 1000. Imagine the Auditorium filled to capacity twenty times and you will get some idea of the number of people who read The Sun daily, and 50 per cent of the 80,000 readers of The Sun take no other Lowell newspaper.

James F. O'Donnell & Sons
Undertakers
324 Market St. Tel. 439-W

FUNERALS

HAINES—Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie A. Haines were held at her late home, 50 Moore street, yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Caleb E. Fisher, D. D., pastor of the First Universalist church. Appropriate selections were sung by Mrs. Fred L. Roberts. There were many beautiful floral offerings, reflecting not only the esteem in which Mrs. Haines was held by a wide circle of friends, but also the knowledge they had of her lifelong love of flowers. Her work on the grounds surrounding her home was one of the most extensive and most varied among private floral collections in the state and contained beautiful and unusual specimens of plant and floral life. For years she had been a student and cultivator of flowers and the fruits of her labor and study she generously shared with her friends and acquaintances. A woman of unusual loyalty to her friends, of a kindly disposition and admirable character, she will be deeply missed in those circles in which she was known. At the services yesterday the house was filled to overflowing with relatives and friends. The bearers were John H. Redman, H. Stoughton, William T. Picken, Albert E. Moore, Herbert E. Linnell and John T. Stewart. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery. Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ROBBY—The funeral of Mary Jennie Robby, daughter of Fred A. and Virginia (Achin) Robby, took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her parents, 356 Colonial avenue. A liberal service was held in St. Joseph's church by Rev. Leon Lamothé, O.M.I. The bearers were Masters George Laurin, Victor Poirault, Rene Rousseau and Nicholas Poirault. The children of Mary Robby were represented by the Misses Cecile Ayotte, Eva Matte, Edna Matte, Cecile Lacombe, Irene Ayotte, Jeanne Lacombe, Lucienne Lacombe and Magdeline Sawyer. There were many beautiful floral tributes from many friends and neighbors. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

TRULL—The funeral of Mrs. Clara C. Trull took place from her home at North Twelfth street, Saturday, where services were conducted by Rev. George P. Camp, pastor of the North Twelfth street Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Percy R. Thomas, pastor of the First Universalist church of Lowell. There were many beautiful floral tributes. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

CHASE—Private funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his home, 15 Highland avenue. The services were conducted by Rev. Richard H. Chase, pastor of the Highland Congregational church. The bearers were the Grand Army of the Republic, represented by Mrs. Mabel A. Kennedy, president, Mrs. Sarah Penabaz, Mrs. Lucille Davis, Mrs. Myrtle Milk, Mrs. Frances Carpenter and Mrs. Charles Young. Ladies of the G. A. R. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were Mrs. E. A. and James H. Chase, Raymond Ferguson and George Le Rich. Burial was in the family lot in Westford cemetery, where the committal service was read by Rev. Mr. Peters. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

DOVREY—The funeral of Charles E. Dovrey, Jr., took place yesterday afternoon from Saunders funeral home, 17 Appleton street. Services were conducted at the family lot in the Elson cemetery by Rev. Alice Haire, pastor of the Lawrence street Methodist church. There were many floral tributes. The arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

MAFFIS—The funeral of David Marquis who died in Marlow, N. H., last Saturday, took place this morning from the home of his brother, Archibald Marquis, 22 Gardner ave. Solemn high mass was celebrated in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Leon Lamothé, O.M.I., assisted by Rev. Charles Deniot, O.M.I., as deacon. Rev. Deniot, O.M.I., as sub-deacon. The choir, under the direction of Arthur H. Giroux, sang Perpetual Mass. The soloists of the mass were Mrs. Antonette Marquis, St. Cecilia Lacombe, Zenon Morrisette and Arthur H. Giroux. At the offertory Mrs. Antonette Marquis sang "Pie Jesu" and the choir sang "O Meritum Passionis." As the body was taken from the church a choir sang "De Profundis." Miss Antonette Marquis was the organist. The bearers were Gerard Malloux, Archibald Marquis, Joseph Dauthe, Adolphe Marquis, Victor Beauchene and Arthur H. Giroux. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery, where Rev. Charles Deniot, O.M.I., read the committal prayers. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

DALY—The funeral of the late John J. Daly took place this morning at 9 o'clock from his late home, 153 Chapel street, and was largely attended. The funeral cortege proceeded to St. Peter's church where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. John J. Daly. The choir sang the Gregorian mass, the solos being sustained by Miss Mary Ryne and Mr. James E. Donnelly. Miss Gertrude Gaudette presided at the organ. There were many large and beautiful tributes and numerous spiritual offerings. A large number of friends and many of the older members of the parish were present at the mass. The bearers were Councilor Fred Sadler, Thomas Garvey, Daniel Scullion, James Quirey, William H. McDonough and Charles Murray. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery where the final prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Manion. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

MICHAUD—The funeral of Joseph H. Michaud took place this morning from his home, 72 South street, Solemn high mass was celebrated in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Leon Lamothé, O.M.I., as deacon and Guillaume Gaudette, O.M.I., as sub-deacon. The choir, under the direction of Rev. Charles Deniot, sang Perpetual Mass. The soloists of the mass were Mrs. Edouard Gaudette, Mrs. Edmond Charron, Louis Masson, Leo Blodan and Joseph Laroche. At the offertory Joseph Laroche sang Capelloni's "Hostias and Proceps" and at the elevation Mrs. Edouard Gaudette sang Rossini's "O

FUNERAL NOTICES
SWIFT—Died in this city, Oct. 27, at his home, 12 Ross avenue, John Swift. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock from his home, 12 Ross avenue. Funeral high mass at St. Columba's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

DALY—Died at St. John's hospital, Oct. 28, Mrs. Mary (Hallowood) Daly. Funeral services morning at 8 o'clock from the funeral chambers of Undertakers Higgins Bros., Lawrence street, Solemn high mass at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

DOVREY—Died Oct. 27 at his home, 22 Twelfth street, Herbert J. Dovrey. Funeral Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from his home, Solemn high funeral mass at St. Michael's church at 10 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

MURDOCK—Died Oct. 25 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John J. Dillon, 184 Grand street, Mrs. Mary (Duffy) Murdock, widow of David Murdock. Funeral Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem high mass at St. Peter's church at 9:45 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

NIXON—Died Oct. 25, at Belle Grove, Dracut, Herman L. Nixon, at his home, Lawrence boulevard. Funeral services will be held at the church, 236 Westford street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends are invited without further notice. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

MULLANE—Died in this city Oct. 28, Jeremiah Mullane, at his home, 40 Linden street. Funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from 14 Highland street. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. The arrangements are in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

KIERCE—Died in this city Oct. 29th, Patrick J. Kierce, at 55 George street. Funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from 14 Highland street. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 10:30 o'clock. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. In charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER
Tapers have been passed within the past few days transferring title of the property numbered 22-46 Waugh street, from A. Loshinsky of Chelmsford street, to Thomas McGach of 67 Marshall street. The property involved in the transfer consists of four two-story houses and 24,820 square feet of land. The purchase price was in the vicinity of $20,000.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Three Boy Burglars Caught in Act

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Three boy burglars—seven, eight and nine years old—greeted Mrs. Theresa Calmer when she returned to her upper West Side home early today. The youngsters entered through a window after a three-story climb up a fire escape. Mrs. Calmer came upon them under a bed, where they had fled at her entrance. She summoned the police, who said they found $200 worth of Mrs. Calmer's property on their persons. The three were turned over to their parents.

Nine Lone Survivors

(Continued)

of 280 men in the line that night the 33rd lost 92 in killed and wounded, including their leader, Colonel Underwood.

The 11th and 12th Corps, afterwards consolidated into the 20th Corps, had been detached from the Army of the Potomac and sent across country to relieve Rosecrans, whose army was starving to death in Chattanooga. A Wauchette staff confederate resistance was met, but the union troops pushed on until communication was established with Rosecrans.

Members of the families and some friends of the nine veterans who gathered in reunion at noon met with them and Mayor John J. Donovan was a guest of the association and one of the after-dinner speakers.

After the dinner, served by the Pace Catering company, the association elected its officers for the ensuing year, choosing Conrad H. A. Dixon of Fitchburg, president; Comrade William Jubb of Shirley, vice president; and Comrade Dudley L. Page of Lowell, secretary. The past year saw five comrades taken away, Drastus Bartlett, W. T. S. Bartlett, James Baxter, Thaddeus C. Baker and Rev. James Little of Bethel, Me.

FUNERAL NOTICES

SWIFT—Died in this city, Oct. 27, at his home, 12 Ross avenue, John Swift. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock from his home, 12 Ross avenue. Funeral high mass at St. Columba's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

DALY—Died at St. John's hospital, Oct. 28, Mrs. Mary (Hallowood) Daly. Funeral services morning at 8 o'clock from the funeral chambers of Undertakers Higgins Bros., Lawrence street, Solemn high mass at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

DOVREY—Died Oct. 27 at his home, 22 Twelfth street, Herbert J. Dovrey. Funeral Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from his home, Solemn high funeral mass at St. Michael's church at 10 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

MURDOCK—Died Oct. 25 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John J. Dillon, 184 Grand street, Mrs. Mary (Duffy) Murdock, widow of David Murdock. Funeral Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem high mass at St. Peter's church at 9:45 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

NIXON—Died Oct. 25, at Belle Grove, Dracut, Herman L. Nixon, at his home, Lawrence boulevard. Funeral services will be held at the church, 236 Westford street, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends are invited without further notice. The funeral arrangements are in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

MULLANE—Died in this city Oct. 28, Jeremiah Mullane, at his home, 40 Linden street. Funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from 14 Highland street. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. The arrangements are in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

KIERCE—Died in this city Oct. 29th, Patrick J. Kierce, at 55 George street. Funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from 14 Highland street. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 10:30 o'clock. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. In charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER
Tapers have been passed within the past few days transferring title of the property numbered 22-46 Waugh street, from A. Loshinsky of Chelmsford street, to Thomas McGach of 67 Marshall street. The property involved in the transfer consists of four two-story houses and 24,820 square feet of land. The purchase price was in the vicinity of $20,000.

Cabinet of Saxony is Dismissed

LONDON, Oct. 29.—A note from the government of the Reich dismissing the cabinet of Saxony from office, was handed to the cabinet today, and the members of the ministry submitted to the dismissal, says a Central News despatch from Berlin.

Reservations May Prevent Conference

Continued
subjects; she is rendering the collection of reparations daily more hopeless and is planning a passionate desire for revenge in the German mind."

The Times questions whether America will share in the inquiry under the conditions prescribed by Premier Poincaré.

The Daily News and the Westminster Gazette cannot see that the situation has been altered by Premier Poincaré's statement Sunday at Sampigny and urge that if his decision is final Great Britain should ask the United States to come into a conference of which France is not a member.

The Morning Post asks how France can be expected to understand the policy which professes respect for the treaty at Versailles but at the same time seeks in the inquiry under the conditions prescribed by Premier Poincaré.

No Further Concessions

PARIS, Oct. 29.—France will not agree to any reduction of the German reparations debt by a committee of experts, nor will she consent to any plan under which the reparation commission would surrender the presence of lives conferred on it by the Versailles treaty.

Emphasizing these points in a speech at Sampigny and in the communication sent to London in reply to the French proposal for a commission to determine Germany's capacity to pay, Premier Poincaré yesterday gave notice that although France welcomed American representation on such a committee, she must insist that it not only in conformity with the peace treaty, thus virtually making the commission an adjunct to the reparation commission's staff of experts, but also in the functions of the commission, concluding that inasmuch as that body could extend the periods and modify the methods of reparations payments, it could make no reduction, the proposed committee of experts must have no such authority.

At another point in his speech the premier declared, "We cannot accept that the commission be dispossessed of its functions or be replaced by an organism in which our share of influence, already inferior to our interests, would be still further reduced. We have reached the limit of our concessions. We shall not go further."

France only asks that her allies as well as herself observe the treaty, M. Poincaré asserted.

"The schedule of May 3, 1921," he said, "is definite and it cannot be modified without our consent. The treaty has been signed with unanimity and it cannot be altered without unanimity on the part of the creditors, and France is too much tried to adhere to a reduction."

EXPERT BROADCASTERS VISIT LOCAL FANS

Two visits have been made during the past week to the offices of the Lowell radio club, which carried a great interest in those who are devotees of this particular line of entertainment.

The first visitor to come to Lowell was Mr. Oscar Hickey, manager of the 2nd radio district, with headquarters in Bethlehem, Pa. Mr. Hickey, who is touring the country by auto, stops in all the large cities to visit the radio fans. In his car is a small portable set with which he may carry on conversation inside a limited radius with the stations he passes along his route.

He is a representative of the American Radio Relay League, and his next stop will be Hartford, Conn., at which place the headquarters of this organization is located, and the beginning of his journey, which he is keeping faithfully, will be published in QST, the official organ of amateur radio operators. He visited U.S. operated by Everett Taylor, while in the city. Both of these stations have worked Mr. Hickey in his own station at 48NCL.

The other visitor was Mr. Stevens of Manchester, N. H., who from his station, 1M, has worked 44 out of the 48 states in the union, and only a few days ago succeeded in working Lower California.

A few days ago, Everett Taylor, president of the local radio club, succeeded in working Indianapolis, Indiana.

Special Values For Tuesday

Throughout this week, a FALL STYLE CARNIVAL SALE will be conducted. Watch the daily papers together with our Merrimack street windows for the specials to be offered each day.

SPORT COATS

We consider ourselves very fortunate in having secured these excellent values. The lot includes plain Polo cloth models as well as Plaid and Striped effects, with patch pockets and chin collars, sizes 16 to 42, of good fall length.

$9.75

Values up to $15.00

SECOND FLOOR

One Hundred Knife Pleated SKIRTS

Serviceable and economical values in navy, brown, grey and tan Granite cloth; values up to $3.95.

$2.47

SECOND FLOOR

DOMESTICS

STREET FLOOR

Silk Duvetyn—Extra fine quality, perfect good full pieces, 20 of the latest colors, including black, navy, brown and grey. Special at Yard	$1.92
42x36 Pillow Cases, all perfect, made from good quality cotton; regularly 32c each	23c
Extra Heavy Double Thread Turkish Towels, 22x44, pure bleach, unexcelled for the bath; regularly 59c each	34c

Velvet Hats

Now comes the BIGGEST MILLINERY OFFERING OF THE SEASON

$3.95

Fashionable and becoming styles from the most exclusive designers; regularly $6.95.

SECOND FLOOR

Chalifoux's CORNER

FALL STYLE CARNIVAL SALE

SPECIAL VALUES EVERY DAY THIS WEEK

SUNDAY NIGHT CONCERT WAS BIG SUCCESS

A fine quality program marked the first of the series of popular Sunday concerts, presented at the Memorial Auditorium last night by John Quigley. A meritorious bill was enthusiastically received by a delighted audience. Andrew Mack, the Irish singing comedian now entering his sixtieth week at the Republic theatre in New York city in "Abbie's Irish Rose," was given a cordial reception.

The was a different Andrew Mack than appeared years ago, yet folks who had never before heard him had no trouble in discovering the reason that his popularity clings to him, even after years of absence. Mr. Mack gave a few funny stories that brought roars of laughter from his audience and then put over some real Irish songs. "I want to marry Mary Mrs. Callahan, she reminds me so much of you," "Finnegan's Party," and "Little Gray Mother" all were put across in the inimitable style that is only Mack's.

Lawrence P. O'Connor accompanied Mr. Mack but when Mack got heart and soul into the work he relieved his accompanist and took over the piano himself. Spontaneous and enthusiastic applause greeted the old performer at the end of every number. Mr. Mack took occasion to announce that his friend, John Steel, "the second McCormack," will follow him here and promised a remarkable program for next Sunday.

Bob Hart, Lowell's popular sporting man, who was one of the umpires in the recent world series in New York, put over a few baseball yarns that went big. Bob found facing an audience in the big Auditorium a different proposition than calling out the batteries to the crowded stands of a ball park but his adaptability lost no time in asserting itself. The laughter that greeted his first funny one put Bob at his ease and from then on it was easy sailing. A few of Bob's old fellow polo players turned up at the last minute to join his many friends in cheering him on.

Bob's stories were all good and his facile, telling of the gold star that flies daily in the Chicago White Sox ball park for Leo Constantineau made a fine climax that hit home. Baseball friends readily remembered "Connie," the southpaw twirler for the C.M.A.C. here that Bob put into the big league last before the war.

The thirty-piece concert band headed by Lieutenant John H. Lee, was the surprise of the evening. Those who attended expecting to hear mediocre talent soon were surprised and disillusioned. The band made an immediate hit with everyone, having tone, cadence and leadership undeniably of high quality. The program was a varied one that required correct interpretation and the musicians did well. Charles L. Ryder gave a piccolo solo that was enjoyed again and again. A popular medley, made up principally of snatches of the latest hits in

"The Rise of Rosie O'Reilly," went over big. Several Sousa marches were played well. A xylophone solo by Norman Moon was a pleasing feature. The band went over big and the announcement that it would be here again next Sunday in a change of program was greeted with delight.

Miss Josephine Elberry, mezzo soprano, kept the quality of the show up to its high level. "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses," "Kiss Me Again," and "Little Town in the Old County Down" were sung most pleasingly. Miss Elberry is a woman of imposing appearance, gracious personality, and remarkably fine voice. The audience, as was the rule throughout the evening, was appreciative of her work and generous in its applause.

Miss Beatrice Phinney gave two harp selections with rare skill. She was a demure lady who knew her instrument well and played it perfectly. She also was pleasantly received.

The program ended with the "Star Spangled Banner," given by the band. The audience was well satisfied with what was truly a remarkable and well-balanced bill. In Lowell we have been accustomed to paying higher prices for entertainments of this standard and the popular prices are a new and pleasing departure.

SEE THE POINT!

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser?

OPENING OF THE PARKER LECTURE COURSE

Another season of Moses Greeley Parker course lectures and entertainments was inaugurated yesterday when the Sunday afternoon series opened at the Memorial Auditorium with Edgar Guest, best known among the modern poets, as the entertainer. A fine audience marked the opening.

The poems of Edgar Guest are widely read and enjoyed and carry a strong appeal because they are written of familiar human experiences. Yesterday he told how he happened to write many of them, relating the touching or human experience that turned his mind to a peculiar theme.

In no wise was Mr. Guest's talk a lecture. There was nothing of the cut and dried about it and from this or that anecdote he slid easily into a few lines of a familiar poem to show its origin. A number of his better known verses he gave in full, one or two being recited by request. Many of his poems have been written or inspired by his wife and boy. Buddy and all are intensely human and rich in everyday experiences as found in the American home.

A poem written about Buddy, for instance, was made out of the language he heard his boy use in describing to other boys a lecture he had just received from his father which described an ideal "good boy."

After reciting what that ideal good boy used to do, Buddy finished his remarks with, "And that good boy married my ma, and today he is my dad."

No poem recited carried a greater appeal than the one showing the fine distinction between house and home and which says in its closing stanza: "It takes a heap of livin' in a house To make it home."

Others almost equally well liked were recited either in part or in whole and the audience thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Guest and the conversational manner in which he chose to present his entertainment, not lecture, for he abhors the word.

OVER $7000 FOR

THE Y. W. C. A. FUND

With over $7000 already subscribed, the Y.W.C.A. campaign fund workers, flushed with the success which met their efforts throughout last week, will continue the drive until Tuesday night.

Miss Helen Barnes presided at an enthusiastic dinner in Kitson hall Saturday night at which reports of team captains were received. Mrs. George P. Sturtevant was the speaker of the evening. The team captained by Mrs. Chas. Upton was high of those reporting for the day, a total of $261 for the day being reported.

SALES PROBLEMS

TO BE DISCUSSED

John J. Morgan of Boston is to be in-

GRANT IS MAYOR OF RED TRIANGLE VILLAGE

Archibald D. Grant is mayor-elect of Red Triangle village, the "municipality" made up of residents of the Y.M.C.A. dormitories. He won by a scant three votes in the elections held Friday and Saturday. Perry A. Douglas, who was uncontested, was re-elected clerk.

Councilmen elected were Wayne Patterson, ward 1; Robert M. Trask, ward 2; Clarence Gammache, ward 3; Charles Mason, ward 4.

structor in the ten-lesson course in Sales Problems to be conducted in the conference room of the Lowell Electric Light company, commencing next Friday evening.

This course is intended particularly for salesmen or men planning to enter the salesmanship field. It will be found valuable also to advertising solicitors and store executives. W. J. Remy, phone 1543-W, is attending to enrollments which will open with the first lesson.

IN ATHLETICS AT WELLESLEY COLLEGE

Miss Doris Wilson of this city is among the New England girls who are prominent in athletics at Wellesley college, as she is a member of the tennis team and also the volleyball team. Miss Wilson is a member of the class of '26.

Another Lowell girl, Miss Barbara Bates, of the class of '25, is a member of the archery team. These two girls are among those who are now in training for the annual field day at Wellesley.

PREACHED FAREWELL SERMON

Yesterday afternoon, Rev. Arthur G. Lyon preached his farewell sermon at the Collinsville mission, taking as his subject, "Who are Christ's Jews?" In the Bible school later, the children of the primary department marched up in single file to shake Rev. Mr. Lyon's hand and one of them presented him an envelope of pennies. He gave one penny to each member of the senior class and with a little talk on thrift told them he would give a penny to the one who put this penny to the best use. Miss Hutchinson, Mr. Devaney and Ernest Wiggin will be the judges of the contest.

The Lowell Memorial Auditorium has a seating capacity of 4000. Imagine the Auditorium filled to capacity twenty times and you will get some idea of the number of people who read The Sun daily, and 30 per cent of the 80,000 readers of The Sun take no other Lowell newspaper.

Harry Wills is the last of the black heavyweights. Or rather he will be when Dempsey smacks him.

Art Fletcher is going to lead the Phillies again. Just how far and in what direction is not stated.

Cherry & Webb Co.

Be Prompt for Your Share of the Most Wonderful
Bargains Ever!

HELP THE BOY SCOUTS—YOU'LL HELP YOUR CITY FOR THE FUTURE

Cherry & Webb Co.

Set the Alarm Clock—
Be Down Early!

C. & W. DAY

See And Double You Save!

SOLID, HONEST VALUES

Dependable LOW PRICES

ONE DAY ONLY—TUESDAY—TOMORROW—

A Store-Wide Bargain Festival ----- Surpassing All Former Selling Events!

DRESSES and COATS

TUESDAY
ONLY
AT

$24

and JACQUETTES

Regularly Selling Up to
$35. Tuesday at $24.

Velours, Bolivias, Smart Plaids and Astrachans.
Plain and Fur Trimmed.
Also Fur Trimmed Brytonia Capes.

This one day selling should, and undoubtedly will create an unusual sensation among Lowell's smart people. You had better plan to come early, for these are most extraordinary bargains, at this one-price-one-day sale.

Sale of

New Overblouses

New Crepe de Chines, Cotton Cantons and Novelty Materials in the wanted shades. Rust, Fallow, Brown and Navy. Special

$3.95

Dainty White Waists

Fine Dimities, Voiles and Batistes, in the newest designs. Regular $2.98 values $1.00 for C. & W. Day at

All Our Regular $29.75
Dresses Included in this
Huge Special Tuesday
Grouping at—

Poirot Twill Dresses
Wool Jersey Dresses
Canton Crepe Dresses
Chiffon Velvet Dresses
Satin Canton Dresses
Velour Knit Dresses

A charming collection of the better grade dresses, especially Underpinned for C. & W. Day. Tuesday—Smart bodice effects, fitted skirt models, wrap around and coat styles, in navy, black, brown as well as the high-colored silk models. Dresses for semi-formal and general utility wear—don't miss seeing them.

Brand New

Sports Skirts

Carrel's hair color wrap-arounds, in light and dark shades; also pleated wool crepes in grey and navy shades. Super-values at

—Basement Shop—

Silk Jersey Bloomers

The wanted shades, black, navy, brown and grey. A special selling C. & W. Day at

Jersey, Radianette and Tricolette Petticoats

Fine Silk Petticoats, in high colors or the more subdued shades. Wonder values $2.98 at

Big News! for C. & W. Day—
Just In! Another Shipment of

Dandy New Sport

Coats

To put right on now.
Splendid Overplaids and Mixtures. Spectacular values for C. & W. Day....

$10

Manufacturer Sends Us 300 More of Those Wonder Dresses at $10

A. G. Pollard Co.

The Store for Thrifty People

Infants' and Children's Section

The children must be kept warm and healthy.

One way is to keep them well fed.

Another is to clothe them properly.

You do the first—we'll do the other.

TEDDY BEAR SUITS—4-piece brushed wool suits, including sweater, leggings, mittens and cap. Colors are buff, grey, blue, cardinal, heather and white, sizes 1½ years to 4 ..... $5.50 to $7.50

LITTLE BOYS' SUITS—Many cute styles in all wool mixtures and jersey, sizes to fit boys 2 to 7 years old $3.50 to $6.50

LITTLE GIRLS' DRESSES of wool crepe and velvet, some have bloomers, some haven't, pretty styles, colors are heather, jade, buff, tan and green, sizes 2 to 7 years, $5 to $12.50

BEACON BLANKETS—When the children are all snuggled up in one of these blankets, no cold is going to touch them. In a large assortment of patterns, including lining and Indian patterns. Either cotton or wool, whichever you choose, 98c to $7.50

BABY BUNTINGS—What baby could be without one of these? They are the cosiest things, when they are out for an airing. Made of heavy eiderdown with hood attached, in pink and blue with satin ribbon trimming. .... $2.98 to $7.50

KNITTED LEGGINS—You all know how practical they are to the children, in white only, with or without feet, 98c to $1.98

Third Floor

ART LINENS
For Embroidery Purposes

Embroidery—at once one thinks of the pretty articles turned out by fabric, needle and thread. Do you do any of this kind of work? If so, here's a few prices on linen fabric that are lower than elsewhere.

WHITE LINENS

18 inches wide	$1.05 Yard
20 inches wide	98c, $1.09 Yard
22 inches wide	98c, $1.10 Yard
36 inches wide	98c to $2.59 Yard
45 inches wide	$1.79, $1.89 Yard
54 inches wide	$1.49, $2.50 Yard
72 inches wide	$2.25 Yard
90 inches wide	$4.19 Yard

ECRU AND BROWN LINEN

18 inches wide	45c to 69c Yard
20 inches wide	50c to 79c Yard
22 inches wide	65c Yard
31 inches wide	69c Yard
36 inches wide	89c to $1.19 Yard
45 inches wide	$1.09 Yard
54 inches wide	$1.75 Yard

Palmer Street Store

CARTER'S KNIT UNDERWEAR!
PLEASE

More Than a Million Women Have Chosen This Underwear

If a million well-dressed women agreed that they had at last found some sensible, comfortable, and fashionable winter underwear, wouldn't you be inclined to think it might be worth looking into? In fact, wouldn't you actually want to see it, and know why a million women had chosen it?

It is Carter's Knit Underwear—as modern as your latest frock, yet warm, snug and very comfortable. Every feature of the latest styles is provided for. Our expert designer studies the advance fashions in outer garments and for each one she has created just the right foundation in undergarments.

Every Carter garment is expertly cut. Each new style is tried on a living model. Whatever position the model naturally takes, the garment is adjusted to fit with ease and smoothness, exactly as a dress is tried on and fitted. The result is a garment that is known for its superior fit.

Women's Medium Weight Cotton Union Suits, Dutch neck, elbow sleeve, knee and ankle ..... $1.50 and $1.75

Women's Silk and Wool Union Suits, Dutch neck, elbow sleeve, ankle, $3.75 and $4.25

Women's Medium Weight Cotton Union Suits, low neck, sleeveless, knee and ankle, $1.50 and $1.75

Women's Silk and Wool Union Suits, low neck, sleeveless, knee and ankle, $3.00 and $3.50

Street Floor

INFANTS' AND CHILDREN'S

INFANTS' VESTS, in cotton, cotton and wool, also silk and wool, ..... 50c to $1.29

INFANTS' BANDS, in cotton, cotton and wool, also silk and wool, ..... 45c to 89c

GIRLS' UNION SUITS, in cotton, also silk and wool ..... $1.19 to $2.50

ADULTS' BANDS, all wool, ..... 90c

Third Floor

BOYS' AND GIRLS'

BOYS' SUITS, cotton and wool, high neck, long sleeve, ankle length, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

CHILDREN'S SILK AND WOOL SUITS, high neck, long sleeve, ankle length, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

CHILDREN'S SILK AND WOOL VESTS AND PANTS, Dutch neck, elbow sleeve, ankle length pants ..... $1.25 to $1.50

Street Floor

MEN'S UNDERWEAR

MEDIUM WEIGHT BALBRIGGAN UNION SUITS—Fine combed yarn, tailored Carter way, insuring perfect fit; long sleeves, short sleeves, regular or stout lengths, at ..... $2.50

WOOL AND COTTON UNION SUITS—A medium weight garment with the right combination of yarn for wear and warmth, at ..... $3.50

HEAVY WOOL AND COTTON RIBBED UNION SUITS—Heavy but not cumbersome, at ..... $3.50

MEDIUM AND HEAVY—Made of fine wool stock combined with best cotton yarn. A leader for warmth and service, all styles, at ..... $5.00

Street Floor

CORPORATION HOUSE EMERGING
FROM OBSCURITY, AWAKENS
MEMORIES OF YESTERYEAR

Builders Uncover Old Structure Long Hidden Behind Middlesex Street Business Fronts—Yardmaster at Hamilton Mill Recalls Old Place Was Once His Home Here

Hundreds of Middlesex pedestrians and car commuters hurrying to and fro about their daily duties on that cosmopolitan old-time thoroughfare that runs from Tower's corner to good-ness knows where, have been gazing curiously every day for the past week or more at a funny little house—or part of a house—that stands meekly just inside the new one-story store construction fronts now being rushed to completion part way down Middlesex street on the right side, just below Tower's corner.

When the old buildings were torn down to make way for the new building chain of small stores erected under the supervision of Contractor Frederick E. Meloy, a small-sized ell of one of the old-time Hamilton mill corporation houses was twisted around, moved "over a bit," and left just a few feet away from the new front of the modern construction, where it is being used by the workmen to temporarily house their fall overcoats, dinner-boxes, extra-plugs of Kentucky Wonder rubbers, tools, and what not.

Several Move Unseen

The fact that this old corporation building stands in that locality, is not strange, for there are several more small houses of the 1835 construction hiding quietly "in back" of some of the Middlesex street store fronts and mill buildings. But the sudden appearance of this queer little building with its size-worn clapboards, its four quaint windows of 12 glass Victorian age popularity, its worn Middlesex chestnut doorstop and battered interior oaken joists, beams, window-sills and sprawling Tauntonian cupboards, attracting attention because the general public traversing Middlesex street, hasn't seen an old corporation house standing in full view before as this one does temporarily.

And they like to look the curio over solemnly—these folks who probably don't know that there are several more nearby, but not many of these same little ancient dwellings, tucked away in back of the main line of thriving business marts, with entrances either from old Webster or Elliott streets, or from a sort of English square or two with the old-time fashionable "floating pavements" just off mossy Jackson street.

Old Fashioned Chimney

What catches the eye of the curious spectator the first thing is the old-fashioned cottage chimney, towering some 15 or 20 feet over the little ancient corporation homestead, where fat payrolls of the Hamilton mills used to live, love and pass out after long years of labor and long hours a day until "Bon" Butler took the leadership and got after the Hamilton. The employment situation in those olden days favored many of the workers, from securing desired necessities of life, yet failed to dampen their ardor in living up to standard, holding their jobs and thriving in the Spindale City to the best of their inbred, sturdy ability.

The old corporation house now on public view was erected along with many others in the Middlesex street section scores of years ago. The Hamilton mill dates back to the year 1835, nearly a century, and though the house that is peering out and almost smiling at the faces of hurrying pedestrians today on the historic Middlesex street thoroughfare is not 100 years old, it is "getting along" toward the century mark.

Agent A. D. Milliken smiled today when asked about the age of the tiny corporation cottage.

"I can't tell you off-hand, but you can find out quickly if you see our boss yardman, Mr. John Gregg," he said, showing the way.

Mr. Gregg, always on the job for years and years, always in splendid health, was found in his usual "office box" just inside the mill gates, with windows open for a mild day and watching the big yard area like the proverbial hawk.

Boss Gregg is a Hamilton standby. A good many years ago—never mind the actual year—there was "a little trouble" at the Hamilton corporation. Good watchmen were scarce as a pickerel's teeth. John, a mechanic of the master brand, was looking for any strong work with a mission. He dropped in on one of the original Hamilton agents, now deceased. And he got the boss yardman's job in a twinkling, after the agent saw the color of John's sturdy face, ripped his muscular shoulders, arms and legs, and realized that this man Gregg was a man unafraid of two trouble-making weavers or a hundred, if they'd only come one at a time.

There wasn't any trouble at the Hamilton—at least anywhere around the working quarters of the mill rectangle (new name for "yards") after John Gregg walked in at 4 a. m. that morning lone and in the mellow past and stood in the middle of the yard and looked things over with his coat off and sharp eyes that meant business.

Was a Cozy Home

But getting back to that little corporation house all spreading itself today down on Middlesex street. That was once John Gregg's parking place—learned today. And was a cozy home way back under 20 or 25 years ago, so John says.

Nice little place—just right comfy for the family, and handy to John's job—for all he had to do of a winter's morning was to grab a hot breakfast cooked in New England style by an excellent wife who had not got up early and then just simply mander across the street and there he was regular transformation trick—family man one minute, yard boss the next and full of action.

And so the little tarnished but strongly built, nicely timbered—anyway, homestead, kind of at least the ell part of the original Gregg home stands today right out in the October rain and sunshine. And just across the way, looking out through the Hamilton mill gates, sits watchful, wise John Gregg, boss yardmaster, ripe 64 years and in good, sturdy health, who glances frequently through the big open No. 1 entrance gates and silently inspects what is left of the old-fashioned, cozy dwelling place of his early housekeeping days.

And presumably Boss Gregg, prince of verminity and kindness, in rare recollections and dream pictures that you and I shall never see

Getting Too Fat?

Try This—Reduce

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets and follow directions. But city hall visitors get their official weight free.

This Little World

CHICAGO

BY GEORGE BRITT

N.E.A. Service Writer

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—"It isn't by any means the worst picture here," say critics at the exhibition of the Chicago no-jury society of artists of a "fourth-dimensional" portrait by Bruce Grant.

Which makes the story all the better, Grant, a newspaper writer, was visiting a friend's studio when talk drifted to the coming exhibition. There was chaffing and scoffing. Grant seized a handful of brushes and cornered all the paint in the studio. For half an hour there was vigorous switching and splashing. The product is a gorgeous sunset of face and background, a rose sprouting at the ear of the subject and a green raggie in his hand. "Fourth-dimensional" is a new school as well as a new artist.

It may be merely "not the worst" as to technique. It is certainly at the top in that quality called "artistic." Not the least of the jokes in its making was the fixing of a solemn list price of $300 for it.

And it may be bought! Who knows? Anyone with a picture and 14 could exhibit in the no-jury show. There was no jury or selection to exclude offerings which did not conform to styles or standards. Amateurs represented include a printer, a woman physician and several business men.

"The surprising feature is that so few pictures are really bad," says Charles Kessel, secretary of the no-jury artists.

A cubistic picture of a nude girl upset the temper of a teacher who had brought her pupils to the exhibition. The artist was a man.

"I never did like men," she announced without a redeeming trace of smile, "and after seeing this, I hate all of them."

Another visitor wanted to see the "factual pictures, these terrible ones, you know."

But Chicago isn't Montmartre, for all its colony of artists and the originality of their pictures. To help finance their venture, the no-jury artists have a costume ball. Nice party, with costumes not only picturesque but ample.

It was no more wild and abandoned than a Sunday school picnic. There was a great attendance at a subscription rate of $5.00.

But the artists gave away so many tickets they managed only to break even on expenses.

The busiest spot in the city hall is the scales in the entrance corridor. From morning until night there is a line of citizens waiting to see how much they weigh.

There are one-cent slot-machine scales in almost every drug store and "L" platforms. But city hall visitors get their official weight free.

SEE THE POINT

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser?

A Boy Scout must "do a good turn" every day.
You can "do a good turn" today by contributing to their cause.

A. G. Pollard Co.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

The Great Underpriced Basement

—Special Prices On—

COMFORTER COVERING AND
COTTON BATTING

Comforter Covering

Bungalow and Westmoreland comforter covering in remnants, good patterns and colors, 36 inches wide, Only 19c Yard

Silkolene in remnants, good quality, large assortment of patterns and colors, 36 inches wide, Only 19c Yard

Mull for puff covering, neat patterns and colorings, 40 inches wide. Regular 39c value, Only 25c Yard

Cretonne, medium weight, light and dark colorings, in pretty patterns, 36 inches wide. Regular 39c value, Only 29c Yard

Mercerized Saten, new patterns and pretty color combinations for comforter and puff covering, Regular 59c value ..... Only 39c Yard

Only 29c Yard

Cotton Batting

Bleached Cotton Batting, 12-ounce package, Only 15c Each

Bleached Cotton Batting, 14-ounce package, Only 25c Each

16-ounce package of better quality cotton batting, Only 39c Each

Crown Jewel Cotton Batting, made of long staple cotton, 16-ounce roll ..... Only 49c Each

STANDARD COTTON BATTING

2-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... 79c Each

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... $1.00 Each

MAYFLOWER COTTON BATTING

2-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... 89c Each

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... $1.29 Each

4-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... $1.69 Each

COSY STITCH COTTON BATTING

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... $1.39 Each

4-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... $1.69 Each

CORKER STITCH COTTON BATTING

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... $1.59 Each

4-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches ..... $1.98 Each

DRY GOODS SECTION

THE FASHION GIRL AT THE OPERA HOUSE

One enthused dramatic critic who witnessed a presentation of Tommy Martelle's new comedy with songs, "The Fashion Girl" at the Opera House this week, alluded to Martelle as having the "look of Gilda Gray, the shoulders of Kitty Gordon, the hands of Pavlova and the arms of Jessie Reed." That's some composite figure, if any one should ask you. And that Tommy has that perfect figure and proceeds to hold on to it, you might be made aware of if you followed him on the street for a few minutes after he leaves the theatre and is on his way to his hotel.

DEKEITH'S VAUDEVILLE

This Week, at 2 and 8. Tel 28

The Hit of the Season!

LLOYD IBACH'S ORCHESTRA

In "STEPS and TUNES"

MARGIE COATE

Queen of Syncopeation

SIMPSON & DEAN

Present "CHOP STEWY"

MAXFIELD & GOLSON

The Modern Romeo and Juliet

ESMOND & GRANT

Just Two Kids

Marguerite & Alvarez

Aerial Entertainers

PATHE NEWS, TOPICS, FABLES

"DOLLAR DEVILS"

With Eva Novak and Cullen Landis

GET YOUR TICKETS EARLY

millinery window without looking in and Tommy just cannot pass a weighing machine without hopping on, dropping in a cent and giving himself a weigh. Slightly out of order, reveals that Tommy has been taking on a pound or two and then action starts.

Tommy searches the town for other weighing machines and in one town when they all seemed to agree, he in desperation, found his way to the official sealer of weights and measures and learned the real truth which was not as bad as the machines showed, but the increase was there. Straight away Tommy spent all the time he was not on the stage in exercise and returned next day to the sealer to prove that he had lost that excess poundage. Matinees are being given every day.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

From saloonkeeper's daughter to the British aristocracy. This is a big stride gracefully accomplished by Lois Wilson, featured player in the Paramount picture, "Ruggles of Red Gap," now playing.

LEO F. REISMAN and His Orchestra

now at the Hotel Brunswick are the talk of Boston. Hear their Columbia Records—

"My Electric Girl"

"In a Tent"

"Tell Me a Story"

"Ivanna"

75c

Columbia
New Process RECORDS
Columbia Phonograph Company

"Guide Post to the Home of Good Entertainment"

ROYAL

Monday and Tuesday

WILLIAM RUSSELL

—IN—

"MAN'S SIZE"

"CRASHING COURAGE"

—With—

JACK LIVINGSTONE

COMEDY — OTHERS

Small Prices — Xuf sed

ing at the Merrimack Square theatre. Miss Wilson has the role of Kato Kenner, daughter of the proprietor of the Klondike bar, one of the show places of the little town of Red Gap. An English earl, in Red Gap for the purpose of rescuing his kinsman, the Hon. George Bessingwell, from the clutches of a designing woman, himself falls victim to her charms. The situations leading up to their first meeting and the ensuing scenes are bits of the finest comedy ever screened. See this picture and be tickled. Edward Horton, Ernest Torrence, Fritz Ridgeway, Charles Ogle and Louise Dresser are featured in the principal roles along with Miss Wilson.

THE RIALTO THEATRE

A real high class cinema program that consists of two big first run pictures opens a three-day run at the Rialto today. The attractions which will undoubtedly be a magnet for local theatregoers are "The Custard Cup," a new William Fox Special, starring Mary Carr, of "Over the Hill" fame, and "A Million in Jewels," a new story of the U. S. secret service with J. P. McGowan and Helen Holmes co-starring.

In "The Custard Cup," Mary Carr has the role of Mrs. Penfield, better known to her neighbors as "Penzie." Those who have read the book will welcome this opportunity to renew acquaintance with her and come within the warming influence of her optimistic philosophy of life and her kindness of spirit. In spite of her generous attitude toward others, "Penzie" does not escape the plotting of certain of her neighbors who are members of a gang of counterfeiters.

Not since Kate Douglas Wiggin wrote "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" has there been such a lovable character in fiction as the "Penzie" of "The Custard Cup," and played by Mary Carr, who portrays the part just as the author intended it. It is bound to create for Mrs. Carr many new admirers. See her as the ruler of "Custard Court." You will love her, too. Miriam Battista, the child actress, who had such a prominent role in "Humoresque," has one of the leading roles in "The Custard Cup."

"One Million in Jewels" is an exciting story dealing with a band of smugglers who are trying to bring into this country the Russian crown jewels. Burke of the secret service, played by J. P. McGowan, is given the task of capturing the criminals, but he does not reckon that he has to deal with an extremely clever woman, Helen Morgan, played by Helen Holmes, who is the "brains" and the master mind of the smugglers.

A good comedy is also on the program. The features announced for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday are, Richard Talmadge in "The Speed King" and "Trifling With Honor," a baseball story with a big Universal-Jewel cast.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

This week's knock out feature at the B. F. Keith theatre will be Lloyd Ibach's entertainers, an organization of musicians which is rated as positively the best jazz group on the vaudeville stage. Allen Quirk, the dancing saxophonist, is with the band. Margie Coate, queen of syncopeation, is another sure-fire performer for the big bill, and Simpson & Dean will present the comedy, "Chop Steewy." Mary Maxwell and Harry Golson, in comedy and music, under the label, "The Modern Romeo and Juliet," and Eva Esmond and Pat Grant in "Just Two Kids," are the sort of performers who will please. The vaudeville portion will close with Marguerite & Alvarez, two darling aerialists. The week's picture feature will be "Dollar Devils," with Joseph Dowling, Cullen Landis and Eva Novak in big roles.

THE STRAND

"Children of the Dust," the big Frank Borzage production, starring Johnny Walker and other film stars, tells a gripping story on the vital question of whether or not parents and more particularly fond mothers, should make matches for their sons and daughters.

MONDAY and TUESDAY

CHAS. JONES

—IN—

"SNOWDRIFT"

Vigorous story of the wild fields of the Yukon. A Fox picture in six reels.

ALL-STAR CAST IN

"THE BROADWAY MADONNA"

LARRY SEMON in

"NO WEDDING BELLS"

AND OTHERS

MONDAY and TUESDAY

"MY WILD IRISH ROSE"

Vitaphone's famous drama of Irish Hearts. Seven acts.

"WHAT'S YOUR REPUTATION WORTH?"

Six Acts

Comedy : : : Others

"You Can Do It Better With Gas" Fry's Oven Glass Free With Gas Range

For one week, beginning Monday, October 29th, we will give absolutely free a set of the new Transparent Oven Glass, comprising a dish for almost every oven use, with every

Gas Range Costing $40.00 or More

These new transparent glass dishes are not only efficient for every oven use, but in addition add much to the appearance of a proper table setting—as they blend beautifully with the linen and silver.

Fry's Oven Glass is absolutely guaranteed against breakage in the oven. It makes cooking a pleasure for mother, and is a real asset in any home. There are only 100 sets of this Free Fry's Oven Glass—so purchase your Gas Range early and join the lucky throng.

Lowell Gas Light Company

Appliance Store

73 Merrimack St.

"You Can Do It Better With Gas"

You will find the answer in this picture story. It's a startling revelation of the present events. Don't miss it. The second feature on the Strand program for the first part of the week presents Douglas MacLean, star of many a good comedy drama, in his latest, called "The Roy 15." This offering has many good laughs and some good phases of present day life. The comedy and Weekly, as well as the musical numbers are enjoyable.

SEE THE POINT! The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser?

Matthews Memorial Church
"Community Bazaar"
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of THIS WEEK
Gorham and Ellsworth Streets

THE COLONIAL THEATRE
Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 31, at 8.15

Mr. Albert Steinert announces a Concert by the

Sistine Chapel Choir

From the Vatican, Rome.

Monsignor Antonio Rella, Conductor

Presented Under the Patronage of His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston.

54 MAGNIFICENT SINGERS

16 Tenors, 10 Basses, 4 Male Sopranos, 4 Male Altos, 20 Boy Sopranos.

Program of Beautiful Music heard heretofore only in the Sistine Chapel, including unedited Compositions of Msgr. Rella's illustrious Associate, Don Lorenzo Perosi.

PRICES $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50 (Plus War Tax)

Tickets are now on sale at STEINERT'S, 130 Merrimack Street, Lowell.

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM

First of the Steinert Concerts

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 7, at 8.15

Mme. Anna PAVLOWA

THE INCOMPARABLE

And Her RUSSIAN BALLET

And SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Personal Direction Albert Steinert

Tickets for the Series..... $3, $4.50 and $6, plus tax

Prices for Pavlova.... $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, plus tax

Now on Sale at STEINERT'S, 130 Merrimack Street

KASINO

Roller Skating Every

Afternoon and Evening

NEXT WEDNESDAY—Halloween Character Party

PLENTY OF FUN — ADMISSION 10 CENTS

OPERA HOUSE ALL THIS WEEK

ALL THIS WEEK

Special

MATINEE

EVERY DAY

Tommie Martelle

AND STOCK PLAYERS

—In—

"The Fashion Girl"

3-Act Musical Comedy

PRICES FOR ALL

25c to 75c

Plenty Left.

FAMOUS FEMALE IMPERSONATOR

MERRIMACK SQ.

Continuous from 1 to 10.15—Five Hundred Good Evening Seats at Twenty Cents.

TODAY — TUESDAY — WEDNESDAY

Cruze Has Done It Again!

"RUGGLES OF RED GAP"

Following "The Covered Wagon" and "Hollywood," James Cruze now offers "Ruggles of Red Gap," featuring LOIS WILSON, who will be recalled for her wonderful acting in "The Last Man"—ERNEST TORRENCE of "The Covered Wagon" fame and LOUISE DRESSER.

Also

"THE FAIR CHEAT," Featuring Beautiful DOROTHY MACKAILL

Comedy, "Be Yourself"—Fun From the Press. and News

Thursday, Friday and Saturday We Bring to Lowell, Direct from Tremont Temple, Where It Has Been Showing at Top Prices, MRS. WALLACE REID in "HUMAN WRECKAGE"

EMERSON'S RIALTO

TODAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY

FIRST TIME IN LOWELL

THRILLS! COMEDY! DRAMA! MYSTERY! SURPRISE!

and then

MORE THRILLS

William Fox presents

The CUSTARD CUP with MARY CARR

and a Notable Cast including

MIRIAM BATTISTA, PEGGY SHAW

AND JERRY DEVINE

Story by Florence Bingham Livingston Directed by HERBERT BRENON

—AND—

"A MILLION IN JEWELS"

—With—

J. P. MCGOWEN as "Burke" of the U. S. Secret Service

HELEN HOLMES as "Helen Morgan," the "Brains" of the Smugglers

STRAND - NOW

A Frank Borzage Production

Children of Dust

KEY OF A THOUSAND LAUGHS

Bellboy 13

DOUGLAS MacLEAN

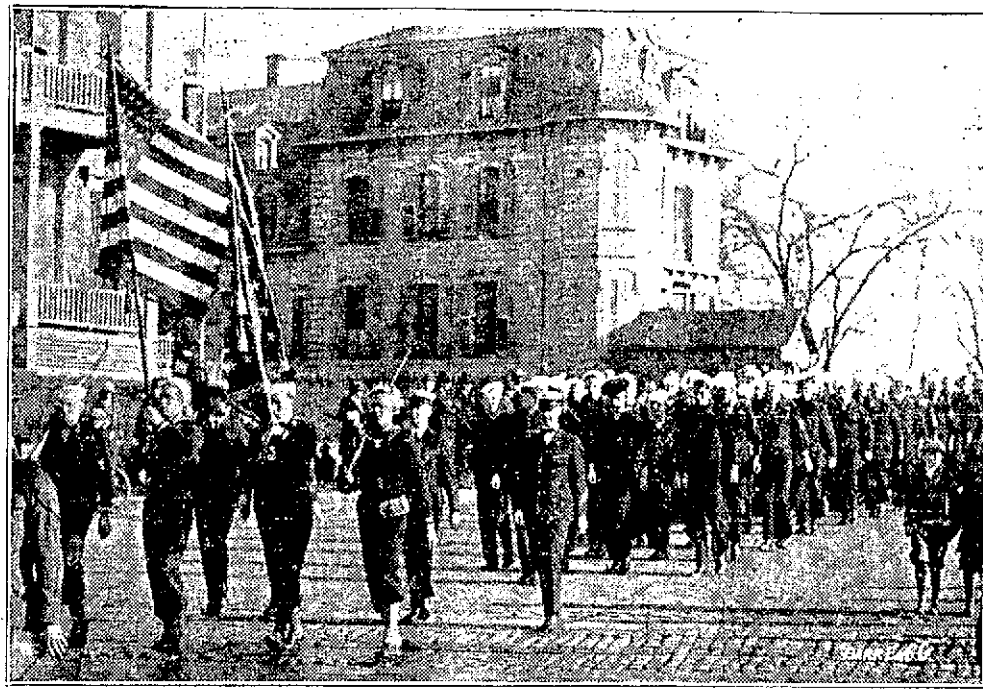

also EAST LYNNE 1st of series of TENSE MOMENTS

Anna Pavlowa to Appear Here

Thousands Throng Banks of River to Witness Cutter Race Feature of Lowell's Navy Day Events

Sailors of Civil War Days

THE START OF SATURDAY'S NAVAL DAY PARADE THROUGH CENTER OF THE CITY

Anna Pavlowa, recognized as the foremost living danseuse and adored by the most graceful of living women, has returned to American shores after a most brilliant world tour, and a fortnight's engagement at Covent Garden, London. The Russian danseuse and her Ballet Russe opened her American tour at the Manhattan Opera House, New York, on October 8th, after an absence of two seasons, presenting many new and complete ballets and divertissements and introducing several new supporting artists. In her metropolitan engagement Pavlowa stated several unique and beautiful offerings, created and worked out by the star herself during her extensive Old World travels which took her and her choreographic family to Japan, India, Egypt. These far-off lands with their strange customs and peoples were generously drawn upon by the keen, artistic observation and comprehension of the Russian danseuse, and now American audiences are enjoying some novel and strikingly effective concepts adapted to Pavlowa's own sublime and charming interpretative genius. Many of these special productions, costly scenic effects for all of which have been supplied for the present tour, apply the sternest measure to Pavlowa's artistic abilities. Mme. Pavlowa's programs this season, therefore, are widely divergent in character, it being announced that upon her transcontinental tour, which brings her incomparable organization to this city on November 5th, the dancer has retained in her repertoire the favorite and most popular offerings of past American visits. Pavlowa's appearance in Lowell is under the direction of Albert Steinert, and seals for her performance may now be engaged at Steinert's music store.

VICTORY FOR TEXTILE

St. Michael's College Eleven

Swamped by Local Eleven

—Score 39 to 0

The St. Michael's college team of Vermont was no match for the Lowell Textile eleven Saturday, the visitors being wallowed to the tune of 39 to 0. Six times the Textile team crossed their opponents' line, four of the touchdowns coming in the second half. The only flash shown by the visitors came at the opening of the second half when they began an aerial attack. For a time the air-line play baffled the Textile defensive men, and the visitors made some good gains. But the Lowell players finally man-overhead and managed to stop this sort of attack. Textile did not resort to open play to any great extent as in the first period. It was discovered that the visitors' line could be pierced, and old-fashioned football was the rule. The forwards opened up big holes, and on the defense the Textile line held well. St. Michael's could not do much with the Textile line, and only in the third period, when seven out of 11 forward passes were completed, did they show any real form. The scoring started early in the game, for on the first play after the kick-off Antulonis recovered a fumble and ran 35 yards for a touchdown. The second score came after a steady march up the field with McKinstry taking the ball over. During this march towards the goal the McKinstry featured with some nice skirting around the ends. Captain Olson was powerful on the offense, and he gained considerable ground. He was uncanny in picking holes in the line and on end runs he steadily advanced the ball towards its objective. In the closing minutes of play Carter also shone at quarterback and got away some nice forward passes, which figured in the final score of the game.

The summary:
TEXTILE ST. MICHAEL'S
Antulonis, Woods 1c
McAlpin, Leungit
Heap 1c
W. Smith 1c
Bentley, Musgrave, Carter 1c
McKinstry 1c
H. Wood, Skinner 1c
Brooks 1c
Goodwin, Brigham, Carter 1c
Frederickson, Ross 1c
Olson, Perkins, Gild 1c
McKinstry 1c
Score by periods: 1st 2 3 4 Tot
Lowell 7 14 12 39
Lowell T. S. 7 14 12 39
Touchdowns made by Olson 2, Carter 1, Antulonis, McKinstry, Bentley, Point by goal after touchdown, made by Olson 3. Referee, Dr. N. J. Mahoney, Umpire, Fred Lane, Line Judge, Joe Duffy. Time, 10 and 12-minute periods.

There were five contests on the program, a half-mile, three mile, four mile, five mile and three-mile consolation. One racer drove his machine onto the railroad tracks and two went through the fence, but in every instance the driver escaped injury. It was in the last race that Scobie was injured. G. L. Heuroux of Pawtucket, driving a Benson special, was well in the lead and entering the home stretch at a high rate of speed when one of his tires blew off. The tire went down the track at tremendous speed and up onto a hill spot where Scobie and several others were sitting. All got away but Scobie.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so even-ly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. Adv.

Don't let baby be tortured by eczema
Teething rash, prickly heat, eczema, chafing, and other skin disorders to which babies are subject can be quickly subdued by Resinol. Apply this pure, soothing, healing ointment to the affected parts and note how soon baby's fretful crying stops as his itching touch relieves the itching and burning.
Resinol Soap for baby's hair keeps it soft and silky. At all druggists.
Resinol

Over 5000 persons watched the boat race on the Merrimack Saturday afternoon that was the outstanding feature of the Navy Day observance here. Two cutters sent up from the Charlestown Navy Yard, manned by Lowell men who served in the navy during the war, furnished plenty of excitement in a close race.

The race was for a mile downstream and the course was covered in nine minutes flat by the winning boat. The second boat was close until the end of a half-length of open water, then the margin of victory began to show. The cutters were Callahan, Robert DeLoe, Edward Quinn, Michael Quinn, Henry Turcotte, Herbert Cox, Arthur Moran, Hedding and Kennedy. E. J. Wood was coxswain of the losing cutter and his crew was composed of Gulgore, Belanger, Brown, Burke, Bolser, Sullivan, Dubuque, Middleton, Burney and Dubont. The motion pictures of navy life shown at the Auditorium were well received and were quite interesting. Horatio B. Leggat, temporary president of the newly formed Navy club, presided. Mayor Donovan spoke, but briefly extending the greetings of the city to the men of the navy, and extolling the efficiency of our present day fighting force. He was warmly received.

Capt. William P. White, U.S.N., retired, drew a comparison of the navy of today and the navy of the Civil War.

The main feature of the day was the five-mile handicap. Four started in this race, Polay and Turcotte on scratch and Litterio and J. Byron Hall being awarded a ten-second handicap. Turcotte ran away with this race, completing the five miles in 6 minutes and 3 seconds, exceptionally good time for a flat track. Polay came from behind on the last lap and passed Hull, who appeared to be an easy second and won second money.

The summary and officials follow:
Half-mile, first, Turcotte, second, Polay, third, Turcotte, fourth, Litterio, fifth, Turcotte, sixth, Polay, seventh, Turcotte, eighth, Litterio, ninth, Turcotte, tenth, Polay, eleventh, Turcotte, twelfth, Litterio, thirteenth, Turcotte, fourteenth, Polay, fifteenth, Turcotte, sixteenth, Litterio, seventeenth, Turcotte, eighteenth, Polay, nineteenth, Turcotte, twentieth, Litterio, twenty-first, Turcotte, twenty-second, Polay, twenty-third, Turcotte, twenty-fourth, Litterio, twenty-fifth, Turcotte, twenty-sixth, Polay, twenty-seventh, Turcotte, twenty-eighth, Litterio, twenty-ninth, Turcotte, thirtieth, Polay, thirty-first, Turcotte, thirty-second, Litterio, thirty-third, Turcotte, thirty-fourth, Polay, thirty-fifth, Turcotte, thirty-sixth, Litterio, thirty-seventh, Turcotte, thirty-eighth, Polay, thirty-ninth, Turcotte, fortieth, Litterio, forty-first, Turcotte, forty-second, Polay, forty-third, Turcotte, forty-fourth, Litterio, forty-fifth, Turcotte, forty-sixth, Polay, forty-seventh, Turcotte, forty-eighth, Litterio, forty-ninth, Turcotte, fiftieth, Polay, fifty-first, Turcotte, fifty-second, Litterio, fifty-third, Turcotte, fifty-fourth, Polay, fifty-fifth, Turcotte, fifty-sixth, Litterio, fifty-seventh, Turcotte, fifty-eighth, Polay, fifty-ninth, Turcotte, sixtieth, Litterio, sixty-first, Turcotte, sixty-second, Polay, sixty-third, Turcotte, sixty-fourth, Litterio, sixty-fifth, Turcotte, sixty-sixth, Polay, sixty-seventh, Turcotte, sixty-eighth, Litterio, sixty-ninth, Turcotte, seventieth, Polay, seventy-first, Turcotte, seventy-second, Litterio, seventy-third, Turcotte, seventy-fourth, Polay, seventy-fifth, Turcotte, seventy-sixth, Litterio, seventy-seventh, Turcotte, seventy-eighth, Polay, seventy-ninth, Turcotte, eightieth, Litterio, eighty-first, Turcotte, eighty-second, Polay, eighty-third, Turcotte, eighty-fourth, Litterio, eighty-fifth, Turcotte, eighty-sixth, Polay, eighty-seventh, Turcotte, eighty-eighth, Litterio, eighty-ninth, Turcotte, ninetieth, Polay, ninety-first, Turcotte, ninety-second, Litterio, ninety-third, Turcotte, ninety-fourth, Polay, ninety-fifth, Turcotte, ninety-sixth, Litterio, ninety-seventh, Turcotte, ninety-eighth, Polay, ninety-ninth, Turcotte, one hundred, Litterio.

There were five contests on the program, a half-mile, three mile, four mile, five mile and three-mile consolation. One racer drove his machine onto the railroad tracks and two went through the fence, but in every instance the driver escaped injury. It was in the last race that Scobie was injured. G. L. Heuroux of Pawtucket, driving a Benson special, was well in the lead and entering the home stretch at a high rate of speed when one of his tires blew off. The tire went down the track at tremendous speed and up onto a hill spot where Scobie and several others were sitting. All got away but Scobie.

There were five contests on the program, a half-mile, three mile, four mile, five mile and three-mile consolation. One racer drove his machine onto the railroad tracks and two went through the fence, but in every instance the driver escaped injury. It was in the last race that Scobie was injured. G. L. Heuroux of Pawtucket, driving a Benson special, was well in the lead and entering the home stretch at a high rate of speed when one of his tires blew off. The tire went down the track at tremendous speed and up onto a hill spot where Scobie and several others were sitting. All got away but Scobie.

PRACTICE SESSION FOR BUTLER A. A.

The Butler A. A. football team will hold a practice session on the Carter street grounds at 7:30 o'clock tonight in preparation for the game on the Old Fall grounds next Sunday afternoon against the C.Y.M.A. of Lawrence. The Butlers will continue their practice sessions all week and if successful next Sunday will go after the O.M. Canals for a return game.

BUNTING CRICKET CLUB OFFICERS

James Smith was elected president of the Bunting Cricket club and Athletic association at a meeting held last Friday night. The other officers elected were as follows: Vice president, Sidney Fryer; corresponding secretary, Fred Chapman; financial secretary, Harry W. Short; treasurer, George Emley; captain, Arthur Crother; directors, Robert Fort, James Taylor, Ezekiel Mathewman and Arthur Capper.

Mrs. Nellie Woodsford
Speaks to Mothers

East Boston.—At 23 Lanson street, Mrs. Nellie Woodsford and her children now live happy and grateful to the kind neighbor who recommended Dr. True's Elixir to them. Mrs. Woodsford says: "My boys were out of order and my breath was very bad and all over. I had terrible headaches and I seemed to have suffered years before your Dr. True's Elixir was brought to me. After a short time I was myself again, my bowels were all right and I'm full of gratitude."
Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—60c—$1.20.—Adv.

of other days and the present day navy that was complete and informative. He recommended reading Roosevelt's history of the war of 1812 to show the need of naval preparedness by this nation.

Congressman John Jacob Rogers opened his speech by reading the Navy Day proclamation of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Rogers said the navy needs more officers and more men today and it should not be undervalued. He paid his respects to those critics from inland states who are forever crying for a smaller navy.

"Our navy is never stronger than public opinion," said Congressman Rogers. "We must all take an active interest in its affairs. It has made us a nation."

Parade Line Feature

The parade through the city's streets Saturday afternoon from the South common to the old clubhouse of the Lowell Motor Boat club was an inspiring sight. It was the first time Lowell's naval veterans have ever had a day to themselves and it goes almost without saying that they made the most of it. Over 250 men were out in navy blue, pressed and as neat as the awaiting deck inspection, and they made a beautiful picture.

As they passed, city hall few of the marchers or of the crowds that lined the sidewalks noticed two elderly men, in the faded blue of Civil war days, who stood rigidly at attention and saluted the colors as they passed.

These two men, with their chests adorned with medals won well over a half century ago, veterans of the "days of wooden ships and iron men," represented all that is left of Lowell's complement of men in the Civil war navy.

Served Under Farragut

Veterans of the days of Farragut, they were in their glory Saturday afternoon as they watched the youths of the new navy pass in review before them. With tear-dimmed eyes, peering from weather-beaten faces upon which time has left its trace, they saluted "Old Glory" as it passed, watched the young salts of a newer day pass by with their spring and cadence to their step that brought back old and tender memories.

Once the parade passed they stepped into a waiting auto, were transported to the finish line boat on the Merrimack river race course and as guests of honor watched the most exciting event of the day.

On Ram "Tennessee"

These men were Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street and Joseph A. Gurney of 75 Liberty street.

mon, of 75 Nineteenth street. Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a fireman, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Phillips when she was sunk in Mobile Bay. From the Phillips he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson

Mr. Gurney was discharged as a quartermaster. He, too, served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lennox, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat which took off Lt. Dewey, executive officer, who in later years won his personal fame at Manila Bay.

In The Sun Saturday, through a typographical error, it was stated the Maine was blown up in Manila harbor. Instead of Havana harbor.

Mayor Donovan acted as a starter for the race on the river and the judges were W. B. Adams and George Meserve. Commodore James H. Walker was timer and W. S. Shaw clerk of the course.

Navy Day resulted in the creation of a much more favorable sentiment toward the navy and the future success of the navy as a permanent local organization.

These men were Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street and Joseph A. Gurney of 75 Liberty street.

mon, of 75 Nineteenth street. Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a fireman, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Phillips when she was sunk in Mobile Bay. From the Phillips he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson

Mr. Gurney was discharged as a quartermaster. He, too, served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lennox, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat which took off Lt. Dewey, executive officer, who in later years won his personal fame at Manila Bay.

In The Sun Saturday, through a typographical error, it was stated the Maine was blown up in Manila harbor. Instead of Havana harbor.

Mayor Donovan acted as a starter for the race on the river and the judges were W. B. Adams and George Meserve. Commodore James H. Walker was timer and W. S. Shaw clerk of the course.

Navy Day resulted in the creation of a much more favorable sentiment toward the navy and the future success of the navy as a permanent local organization.

and saluted the colors as they passed. These two men, with their chests adorned with medals won well over a half century ago, veterans of the "days of wooden ships and iron men," represented all that is left of Lowell's complement of men in the Civil war navy.

Congressman John Jacob Rogers opened his speech by reading the Navy Day proclamation of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Rogers said the navy needs more officers and more men today and it should not be undervalued. He paid his respects to those critics from inland states who are forever crying for a smaller navy.

"Our navy is never stronger than public opinion," said Congressman Rogers. "We must all take an active interest in its affairs. It has made us a nation."

Parade Line Feature

The parade through the city's streets Saturday afternoon from the South common to the old clubhouse of the Lowell Motor Boat club was an inspiring sight. It was the first time Lowell's naval veterans have ever had a day to themselves and it goes almost without saying that they made the most of it. Over 250 men were out in navy blue, pressed and as neat as the awaiting deck inspection, and they made a beautiful picture.

As they passed, city hall few of the marchers or of the crowds that lined the sidewalks noticed two elderly men, in the faded blue of Civil war days, who stood rigidly at attention and saluted the colors as they passed.

These two men, with their chests adorned with medals won well over a half century ago, veterans of the "days of wooden ships and iron men," represented all that is left of Lowell's complement of men in the Civil war navy.

Served Under Farragut

Veterans of the days of Farragut, they were in their glory Saturday afternoon as they watched the youths of the new navy pass in review before them. With tear-dimmed eyes, peering from weather-beaten faces upon which time has left its trace, they saluted "Old Glory" as it passed, watched the young salts of a newer day pass by with their spring and cadence to their step that brought back old and tender memories.

Once the parade passed they stepped into a waiting auto, were transported to the finish line boat on the Merrimack river race course and as guests of honor watched the most exciting event of the day.

On Ram "Tennessee"

These men were Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street and Joseph A. Gurney of 75 Liberty street.

mon, of 75 Nineteenth street. Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a fireman, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Phillips when she was sunk in Mobile Bay. From the Phillips he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson

Mr. Gurney was discharged as a quartermaster. He, too, served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lennox, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat which took off Lt. Dewey, executive officer, who in later years won his personal fame at Manila Bay.

In The Sun Saturday, through a typographical error, it was stated the Maine was blown up in Manila harbor. Instead of Havana harbor.

Mayor Donovan acted as a starter for the race on the river and the judges were W. B. Adams and George Meserve. Commodore James H. Walker was timer and W. S. Shaw clerk of the course.

Navy Day resulted in the creation of a much more favorable sentiment toward the navy and the future success of the navy as a permanent local organization.

These men were Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street and Joseph A. Gurney of 75 Liberty street.

mon, of 75 Nineteenth street. Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a fireman, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Phillips when she was sunk in Mobile Bay. From the Phillips he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson

Mr. Gurney was discharged as a quartermaster. He, too, served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lennox, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat which took off Lt. Dewey, executive officer, who in later years won his personal fame at Manila Bay.

In The Sun Saturday, through a typographical error, it was stated the Maine was blown up in Manila harbor. Instead of Havana harbor.

Mayor Donovan acted as a starter for the race on the river and the judges were W. B. Adams and George Meserve. Commodore James H. Walker was timer and W. S. Shaw clerk of the course.

Navy Day resulted in the creation of a much more favorable sentiment toward the navy and the future success of the navy as a permanent local organization.

and saluted the colors as they passed. These two men, with their chests adorned with medals won well over a half century ago, veterans of the "days of wooden ships and iron men," represented all that is left of Lowell's complement of men in the Civil war navy.

Congressman John Jacob Rogers opened his speech by reading the Navy Day proclamation of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Rogers said the navy needs more officers and more men today and it should not be undervalued. He paid his respects to those critics from inland states who are forever crying for a smaller navy.

"Our navy is never stronger than public opinion," said Congressman Rogers. "We must all take an active interest in its affairs. It has made us a nation."

Parade Line Feature

The parade through the city's streets Saturday afternoon from the South common to the old clubhouse of the Lowell Motor Boat club was an inspiring sight. It was the first time Lowell's naval veterans have ever had a day to themselves and it goes almost without saying that they made the most of it. Over 250 men were out in navy blue, pressed and as neat as the awaiting deck inspection, and they made a beautiful picture.

As they passed, city hall few of the marchers or of the crowds that lined the sidewalks noticed two elderly men, in the faded blue of Civil war days, who stood rigidly at attention and saluted the colors as they passed.

These two men, with their chests adorned with medals won well over a half century ago, veterans of the "days of wooden ships and iron men," represented all that is left of Lowell's complement of men in the Civil war navy.

Served Under Farragut

Veterans of the days of Farragut, they were in their glory Saturday afternoon as they watched the youths of the new navy pass in review before them. With tear-dimmed eyes, peering from weather-beaten faces upon which time has left its trace, they saluted "Old Glory" as it passed, watched the young salts of a newer day pass by with their spring and cadence to their step that brought back old and tender memories.

Once the parade passed they stepped into a waiting auto, were transported to the finish line boat on the Merrimack river race course and as guests of honor watched the most exciting event of the day.

On Ram "Tennessee"

These men were Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street and Joseph A. Gurney of 75 Liberty street.

mon, of 75 Nineteenth street. Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a fireman, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Phillips when she was sunk in Mobile Bay. From the Phillips he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson

Mr. Gurney was discharged as a quartermaster. He, too, served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lennox, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat which took off Lt. Dewey, executive officer, who in later years won his personal fame at Manila Bay.

In The Sun Saturday, through a typographical error, it was stated the Maine was blown up in Manila harbor. Instead of Havana harbor.

Mayor Donovan acted as a starter for the race on the river and the judges were W. B. Adams and George Meserve. Commodore James H. Walker was timer and W. S. Shaw clerk of the course.

Navy Day resulted in the creation of a much more favorable sentiment toward the navy and the future success of the navy as a permanent local organization.

These men were Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street and Joseph A. Gurney of 75 Liberty street.

mon, of 75 Nineteenth street. Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a fireman, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Phillips when she was sunk in Mobile Bay. From the Phillips he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson

Mr. Gurney was discharged as a quartermaster. He, too, served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lennox, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat which took off Lt. Dewey, executive officer, who in later years won his personal fame at Manila Bay.

In The Sun Saturday, through a typographical error, it was stated the Maine was blown up in Manila harbor. Instead of Havana harbor.

Mayor Donovan acted as a starter for the race on the river and the judges were W. B. Adams and George Meserve. Commodore James H. Walker was timer and W. S. Shaw clerk of the course.

Navy Day resulted in the creation of a much more favorable sentiment toward the navy and the future success of the navy as a permanent local organization.

and saluted the colors as they passed. These two men, with their chests adorned with medals won well over a half century ago, veterans of the "days of wooden ships and iron men," represented all that is left of Lowell's complement of men in the Civil war navy.

Congressman John Jacob Rogers opened his speech by reading the Navy Day proclamation of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Rogers said the navy needs more officers and more men today and it should not be undervalued. He paid his respects to those critics from inland states who are forever crying for a smaller navy.

"Our navy is never stronger than public opinion," said Congressman Rogers. "We must all take an active interest in its affairs. It has made us a nation."

Parade Line Feature

The parade through the city's streets Saturday afternoon from the South common to the old clubhouse of the Lowell Motor Boat club was an inspiring sight. It was the first time Lowell's naval veterans have ever had a day to themselves and it goes almost without saying that they made the most of it. Over 250 men were out in navy blue, pressed and as neat as the awaiting deck inspection, and they made a beautiful picture.

As they passed, city hall few of the marchers or of the crowds that lined the sidewalks noticed two elderly men, in the faded blue of Civil war days, who stood rigidly at attention and saluted the colors as they passed.

These two men, with their chests adorned with medals won well over a half century ago, veterans of the "days of wooden ships and iron men," represented all that is left of Lowell's complement of men in the Civil war navy.

Served Under Farragut

Veterans of the days of Farragut, they were in their glory Saturday afternoon as they watched the youths of the new navy pass in review before them. With tear-dimmed eyes, peering from weather-beaten faces upon which time has left its trace, they saluted "Old Glory" as it passed, watched the young salts of a newer day pass by with their spring and cadence to their step that brought back old and tender memories.

Once the parade passed they stepped into a waiting auto, were transported to the finish line boat on the Merrimack river race course and as guests of honor watched the most exciting event of the day.

On Ram "Tennessee"

These men were Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street and Joseph A. Gurney of 75 Liberty street.

mon, of 75 Nineteenth street. Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a fireman, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Phillips when she was sunk in Mobile Bay. From the Phillips he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson

Mr. Gurney was discharged as a quartermaster. He, too, served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lennox, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat which took off Lt. Dewey, executive officer, who in later years won his personal fame at Manila Bay.

In The Sun Saturday, through a typographical error, it was stated

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

AMBASSADOR KELLOGG

Former Senator Kellogg of Minnesota has been nominated for ambassador to Great Britain to succeed Col. Harvey, retired. The choice is fairly good. Mr. Kellogg is an able lawyer who made his mark in the senate, but he was defeated last year by Mr. Shipstead, the farm-labor candidate. Magnus Johnson was elected later as the second senator from that state and the people seem to put great faith in his supposed ability to aid the farmers.

With this overturn of the republican party, President Coolidge takes up the defeated candidate and gives him a position of high honor. Will that help to retrieve the fallen fortunes of the republican party, or will it further incense the people who elected Shipstead and Johnson?

It will be remembered that Magnus Johnson visited the White House and had a long conference with the president. Whether Kellogg's appointment was arranged at that interview is not known; but a good many people believe that it was, and that it will help to placate the farm-labor senators who have been assuming a menacing attitude toward the republican leaders. On the League of Nations issue Kellogg fell in line with Senator Lodge, but he may have changed his attitude since then—to be more favorable to the league.

The political effect remains to be seen, but in any case, it is believed that Kellogg will be a great improvement upon Harvey and a worthy successor to the long line of eminent men who filled that position in the past, including James Munroe, John Quincy Adams, Washington Irving, Martin Van Buren, James Buchanan, Charles Francis Adams, James Russell Lowell, Robert Todd Lincoln, Thomas F. Bayard, John Hay, Joseph H. Choate, Whitelaw Reid, Walter Hines Page and John W. Davis.

It is very generally believed that Harvey was the most indiscreet man who has thus far served as ambassador to England. Kellogg will be a distinct improvement and as he is not reputed to be a wealthy man, he may find the post rather unprofitable. It is estimated that the ambassador to Britain must spend $50,000 in excess of his salary or else be considered penurious and niggardly. This may explain why so few candidates seek the position. Moreover, it requires a man of tact and judgment to keep in rapport with the British court, the British press and the British people; and at the same time hold the esteem of the American people whom he represents. Harvey failed in the task and he is doubtless glad to be rid of the responsibilities attaching to the office.

THE 1924 SPRING OUTLOOK

The National Wholesale Dry Goods association is very confident over the outlook for business in 1924. The leading wholesalers of the land believe, and put it very sensibly, that business during at least the early part of the coming year will prove to be most satisfactory. However, most of them believe that caution of the usual brand should be exercised in providing for this trade. An association report issued last Friday describes the situation as follows:

"Retailers are continuing purchases of dry goods to their immediate needs and they show little willingness to place commitments for any large quantities of spring merchandise. The main argument in the cotton piece goods market is whether goods can be successfully distributed on a basis of 30-cent cotton, and it is quite likely to be tested out this year. Advance sales on gingham are in larger volume than was thought possible, and a good balance is anticipated for the first three months of 1924."

The recent action of the Amoskeag Manufacturing company, the largest manufacturer of gingham in the world, in resuming work in many departments in the big Manchester mill district, after a short lay-off of nearly 10,000 men and women operatives, indicates real business ahead for the corporation's output beyond a doubt.

MRS. CROKER'S AMBITION

That was quite a touching scene in which the widow of the late Richard Croker called upon the Tammany leaders to tell them that her husband, an hour before his death, requested her to place at the disposal of Tammany hall, most of the wealth which he had accumulated through the loyalty of the members both in victory and defeat. He told her that he would rather be accounted "loyal" than to be recognized as great and he was loyal to the men of Tammany as they had been loyal to him, and he wanted his widow to use his wealth in aiding Tammany in its political battles as he would do were he alive and among them. The widow, who is said to be of Irish descent, averred that the Great Spirit was guiding her in making this declaration and that because of her so doing, her late husband would be more happy where he is. Mrs. Croker, it appears, is determined to enter the ranks of Tammany on the ground that if such associations were good enough for her husband, they are good enough for her.

It is presumed that Boss Murphy will find some suitable sphere of activity for Mrs. Croker in which she can perform some useful work in accordance with the expressed wishes of her late husband. It is not stated that she will seek any political office, but if she wants anything in that line, Tammany will be glad to place her in a position in which she can realize her ambition, her loyalty to her late husband proving her to be a woman of strong character.

TO ASSESS REPARATIONS

Two events of international interest have been announced within the past few days. One is that France, Belgium and Italy have agreed to accept the plan of letting a reparation commission ascertain the extent of Germany's ability to pay what she owes to France as provided under the Versailles treaty. This plan originated with Secretary Hughes and although the United States is not a party to the Versailles treaty, yet it is already announced that the United States will be represented on the commission. The suddenness with which this agreement has been brought about seems to suggest some unusual method of reaching a hasty conclusion. It is not outside the range of probability that Lloyd George has been an important factor in bringing about this agreement. It is to be hoped that it will be instrumental in securing a settlement of the very complicated situation that exists between France and Germany at the present time.

THE WASHINGTON ELM

The old Washington elm that has been dying for a number of years, perhaps more from the result of excessive care than from old age, has finally collapsed and fallen to the ground, unable to bear its own weight. It was under this historic tree that Washington took charge of the army in 1775. There are doubtless many thousands of elms in the country that are much older, but not being subjected to the culture of civilization they still remain in a healthy condition with an escape of decay. Trees, like animals, suffer from high living.

Edgar Guest, the poet of the home and family, made an appropriate opening of the Parker Lecture course yesterday, and the large audience that heard him was duly appreciative.

The duty of selecting the best available candidates for the city council and school board is before the people. Let no vote be wasted upon an unworthy candidate.

SEEN AND HEARD

All is not trash that litters.

More power to the navy and the Gobs.

Why be ashamed of a long neck? Giraffes sell for $12,000 apiece.

Prohibition may have failed in many things, but it at least eliminated the bur-fly.

There is more midnight oil burned by students in their autos than in their lamps nowadays.

The Japanese call telephone girls "moshi moshi," sounding to us exactly like "mushy mushy."

A Thought

Authority intoxicates. And makes more fools of magistrates: The fumes of it invade the brain. And make men giddy, proud and vain; By this the fool commands the wise; The noble with the base complies; The set assumes the role of wit. And cowards make the base submit. —Butler.

Fascination of Golf

They asked a famous professional to explain why golf made captives of so many people. He consented to do so. "You start golf in this way. You think you can knock that little pill out of the county," he began. "Yes." "You try it and find out you can't," he continued. "Well?" "You swear you will," with more emphasis. "And then?" "Then you are hooked for life."

Banker's Discovery

At the club they were discussing the Luxor excavations. The professor said they were of immense scientific interest. The dry goods man said that they had started many styles. Old things coming back into vogue, suggested the banker. "And this very thing gives me pause. I guess I'll keep quiet about a discovery I made last week." "What was that?" "While digging a posthole in my back yard I excavated a wire bustle."

Waiting for the Fire

Signor Ricci, the Italian ambassador, was talking at a dinner about the forbidden question of tariffs. "If we know a certain kind of tariff bill will do harm," he said, "let us say so frankly. Don't let us just wait and see. A fire once broke out in a farmhouse in Tuscany and the amateur fire brigade rushed to the rescue. They found the farmhouse enveloped in black smoke. No flames were to be seen. Hence the fire's heart or center was difficult to discover. The head of the amateur brigade advised the situation for some minutes; then he sat down on a garden bench and filled his pipe. 'Well, just leave her alone, boys,' he said. 'If she burns up a bit, she will be able to see what we're doing.'"

He Meant Well

Mr. Brown was railing on an old friend. "I declare," he remarked to the friend's wife, "it quite cures me of homesickness to drop in here and see a little of your home life—except not that your home life is anything but the—what I mean to say is that it makes me all the fonder of my own home—rather, that, on the homeopathic principle, a hair of the dog that bit you—which isn't, of course, what I mean. But when a man is lonely he can enjoy the society of almost anybody."

"Sir," said the lady, jolly. "I mean," returned Mr. Brown, as he mopped the perspiration from his face, "that, he'll never so humble—no, no, you're not that—but there's no place like one's own—but I mean—well, I must be going. Good day!"

The Chestnut Burr

A wee little nut lay deep in its nest Of soft and brown, the softest and best. And slept and grew while its cradle rocked. As it hung in the boughs that interlocked.

Now the house was small where the cradle lay. As it swung in the winds by night and day. For the thickets of underbrush fenced it round. This wee little nut by the great sun browned.

This wee little nut grew, and ere long it found There was work outside on the soft, warm ground. It must do its part so the world might know. It had tried one little seed to sow.

And soon the house that had kept it warm Was tossed about by the autumn storm. The stem was cracked, the old house fell. And the chestnut burr was an empty shell.

But the little nut, as it waited by, Dreamed a wonderful dream one day. Of how it should break its coat of brown. And live as a tree to grow up and down.

—Anonymous.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

If your coat bin is not filled so much as you would have it, cheer up, spring is only a few months away.

A citizen of Haverhill has presented a bill to the city for $100 because he captured a man employed in a garbage collection by the city robbing his orchard.

How many of us know what materials are used in the construction of the telephone instruments on our desks? Most of us know it by name only and give little thought as to how or of what it is made. I am told that there are at least 17 different kinds of materials embodied in the manufacture of a receiver and transmitter, aluminum, silk, iron, copper, rubber, wax, wax, nickel, silver, gold, silver, gold, platinum, silver, cotton, zinc, asphalt, lead and tin.

During a discussion in the corridor of the court house, the other day, an unimpeachable practitioner by the name of Attorney Daniel J. Donahue told the story of a stranger who arrived in a certain town and asked to be introduced to someone who knew the town. The "oldest inhabitant" was pointed out and the stranger asked him how long he had lived there. The old fellow replied, "Well, have you a good criminal lawyer in the town?" The stranger next inquired, "I am told that there are at least 17 different materials then drawn out: 'Well, we've been suspicious of one fellow for some time, but we haven't caught him at it yet.'"

Major F. J. Toole, in command of the Organized Reserve corps in this city, has received a blue print of the coast defenses of Boston, showing the

DIAMONDS
JEWELRY WATCHES
MOTOR CARS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
JEWELRY WATCHES
MOTOR CARS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

Why do they make court houses look so much like churches? A juror was caught asleep in Detroit.

A Frenchman has written 23,000 words on a postcard. We don't know why it wasn't a Scotchman.

Thousands of timid travelers will enjoy learning a Pullman porter was shot in Illinois.

National woman's camp says golf takes an iron nerve, when she really meant a midiron nerve.

Milwaukee auto salesman's wife got a divorce. Now she will have a chance to talk some herself.

Boston judge rules a man who sells booze is not idle. We rule very few of them rare.

The nickel shine has returned in Boston. It reports seeing nothing of the nickel cigar.

Los Angeles man has invented a sanitary cigar when we need it sanitary chewing tobacco.

Ford may accept prohibition nomination for president. Bottles are a great evil to Fords.

Man in Knoxville, Tenn., was not his brother's keeper. Gave him in cops for a $25 reward.

While raiding a bathhouse in Detroit a clean haul was made.

Evansville (Ind.) woman says unimportant things make girls leave home. May mean men.

American arrested in Rome. When in Rome don't do as Romans don't.

Please pay attention. Eighty in a fishing contest caught only one pound and it was in the Seine.

Chicago Y.W.C.A. says wear blue to make men propose. And at times, we say, act blue.

A Los Angeles taxi barber shaves them en route to work, but taking police stationers would be pointless.

Frenchman wanted to fight a duel over a tax dispute. Let us hope it doesn't become stylish here.

While an eye for an eye may be all right, the daring couples demand a neck for a neck.

A huge cliff, on which we hope medicine ads were painted, has been blown away in Mexico.

Seattle man was fined for flirting with a little girl, so he did get the wrong number.

Atlantic City doctor says bootleg is ruining girls' complexions. May avoid this by using funnels.

The Mowes are rising in the Philippines, and the morose here.

Heat from a Hawaiian volcanic range is used as a kitchen range.

They have soup stations in Germany because she is in the soup.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Lowell Sun: Gentlemen: As a suggestion for traffic betterment, I believe if Fletcher street were not so rough it would be much used. It should be well paved as far as Pawtucket street. I believe this would relieve traffic congestion 25 per cent. The same may be said of other main arteries of traffic.

Truly yours,
E. A. JEAN,
35 Melvin Street.

It seems rather impossible to tell how much relief would result from the paving of Fletcher street, but a portion of it is under construction at the present time and before winter will be black paved as far as Franklin street. Next year the program will be extended and eventually it is planned to have the entire street resurfaced as far as Pawtucket. The obsolete street car tracks now in the street will be removed at the same time. It is planned.—Ed.

SILVER LAME

Houses of silver lame are featured in the smartest shops and do wonders toward making a costume out of a very plain suit.

Location about the harbor of the various forts and the companies of coast artillery occupying the same. The two Lowell companies are to be located—the 542nd at Fort Duval on Little Neck Island and the 543rd at Fort Rockman. As far as it can be arranged, Boston is evidently to be well protected by the coast artillery, and many Lowell men will be among the defending forces in event of an attack by hostile powers.

The fact that children were everywhere about when the trucks bearing the naval equipment arrived at the Auditorium on Friday afternoon of last week, showed that not only were they curious but that they were interested in knowing more about Uncle Sam and his navy. To the credit of Robert Frederick, C.W.T., U.S.N., he it said that he allowed the children to stand around and have "a good look" as one of the youngsters expressed it. It is well to satisfy the curiosity of the children when they want to know more of things they have heard of but never seen.

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER

Is sold at Coburn's for Priming and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Major F. J. Toole, in command of the Organized Reserve corps in this city, has received a blue print of the coast defenses of Boston, showing the

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
JEWELRY WATCHES
MOTOR CARS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

DIAMONDS
JEWELRY WATCHES
MOTOR CARS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

SUMMARY OF EARLY MORNING A. P. NEWS

Poincare announces that France cannot agree to any reduction in the German debt and that proposed committee of allied experts will have no authority, in accordance with Versailles treaty, to cut German payments.

Ruhr towns are almost helpless in face of mobs. Duesseldorf advises may: plundering, jail deliveries and other acts of violence continue unchecked.

Saxony refuses Berlin government's demand for resignation of Premier Zolner's ministry and Chancellor Stresemann announces he will appoint civil governor for Saxony.

Governor Pinchot in letter to Secretary Mellon attributes collapse of federal prohibition enforcement in Pennsylvania to the federal permit system.

Lloyd George pays tribute to "Stonewall" Jackson and stands bareheaded before monument marking spot where southern general fell mortally wounded near Chancellorsville, Va.

Income and profit taxes from 7,018,533 individuals and firms in 1921 totaled $1,420,982,458 with only one man, undesignated, showing income of more than five million dollars.

Samuel Untermyer of New York city assails Israel Zangwill as a "prince of intellectual jugglers" and denies that Zangwill is representative Jewish leader.

Portsmouth, Ohio, police stop parade of Ku Klux Klan, and arrest 244 paraders of whom 187 were Klan regalia.

OFFICER HUNTER DID NOT SEE MAYO

In a recent story telling of the arrest by the local police of William Mayo, wanted in connection with a statutory offense alleged to have been committed in the Highlands a week ago today, it was said that Mayo was seen running through a field near Princeton street by Motor Cycle Officer Andrew Hunter. Officer Hunter was searching the neighborhood at the time, but did not see Mayo, although told by boys that he had run away. He scoured all streets in the vicinity for some time, but did not see him. This correction is made for the purpose of stilling any rumors that Officer Hunter was lax in his duty after seeing the man in question running away.

CATHOLIC FORESTERS INSTALL OFFICERS

The installation of officers of Lowell Court, No. 109, Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, took place at Grafton hall last evening. District Deputy John J. Murphy and staff of Haverhill performed the ceremony and installed the following officers for the ensuing year: Chief ranger, William J. Enwright; vice chief ranger, Thomas Brown; recording secretary, Timothy F. Roban; treasurer, Humphrey Coffey; junior conductor, Mark J. Geary; senior conductor, William M. Ambrose; inside sentinel, Thomas J. Wallace; outside sentinel, Frederick E. Maloney; delegate to convention, Timothy F. Roban. The court will observe its 20th anniversary in December. Mrs. Agnes L. Higgins of Lawrence, deputy-at-large, addressed the members on the progress of the order. Deputy Murphy and Chief Ranger Enwright also spoke.

BLACK AND WHITE
A Lavin suit of unusual charm is of black and white shepherd's check with a white satin overblouse and a high collar with a green chiffon kerchief fastened about the throat.

The Kimball School COURSES

C. P. A. Training
Secretarial
Stenographic
Business and Accounting
Civil Service

Students May Enter Anytime
Office Open Mon. and Thurs. Nights
220 CENTRAL ST.

HATS

Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames. New Felt and Beaver hats for Ladies and Children.
E. H. SEVERY, Inc., 123 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 9 P. M. every week day

LEARN TO DANCE

Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6418 or 6624-X

STAMMERERS

Learn to speak fluently. Don't let your stammering hold you back.
PAULINE O. ROBINSON
240 Huntington Avenue, Boston

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

A Jazz Record

Sometimes a moniker gets on my mind,
Runs like a tune through my head,
And "Peter B. Kyne" is a name of that kind
(His stories you've certainly read.)
I find myself making a fool little song
Nonsensical in its design,
A metrical whimsy step-stepping along
And rhyming to "Peter B. Kyne."

I hope he won't take it amiss,
The chorus goes something like this:

"Oh, Peter B. Kyne to me,
Peter B. Kyne,
Your label just fits my poetical line;
Your name has a lilt which I cannot define
It's 'Peter B. Kyne to me,
Peter B. Kyne!'"

Booth Tarkington's name is entitled to fame,
And I got a kind of a throb,
When, here and anon occurs
Something in monikers
Such—say, as "Irvin S. Cobb."
And "Edna St. Vincent Millay"
Possesses a name in a way
Quite fit for a lyric design,
But no other title has quite such a vital
Enchantment as "Peter B. Kyne."

I sing it in various keys,
I use it in verses like these:

"Oh Peter B. Kyne to me,
Peter B. Kyne,
The name fairly jingles,
It tingles like wine.
And by the same token
That natal cognomen
Keeps jiggling along through this noodle of mine;
Until I MUST croon
This nonsensical tune,
'Oh Peter B. Kyne to me,
Peter B. Kyne!'"
(Copyright, 1923, The Lowell Sun)

REV. E. E. JACKMAN COMING TO LOWELL

The farewell sermon of Rev. Ernest E. Jackman was preached to a large congregation in the Methodist church at West Chelmsford, on Sunday morning. The subject of his oration was "Loyalty to Your Church," from the text Ephesians 4:1, and he brought out the necessity of union, fellowship and love in order to make a church function properly. At the conclusion of his talk he sang "Open the Doors of the Temple," by special request.

quest from the congregation. Rev. Mr. Jackman has been appointed by Bishop Hughes to accept the pastorate of the Highland Union M.E. church in Lowell, and his leaving will cause a deep regret to his parishioners with whom he has worked for two years in a conscientious manner. Many wishes for success follow him in his new undertaking.

SEE THE POINT
The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Two per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser!

Discovery of Gas Accidental

In Greece, one summer afternoon some centuries ago, a shepherd tending goats noticed that some of them wandered about in an unusual fashion whenever they came to a certain spot. He walked over and became affected himself by something which arose from the ground. He ran to the village and told his neighbors. They hurried back in great excitement—all had the same experience.

Each one became talkative and light-headed, and not only acted queerly, but his speech became disconnected and difficult to understand. The villagers agreed that they were in the presence of a supernatural agency, and decided that a God was living there. Later they appointed a priestess to communicate with this God, and built a temple where persons might go for advice. Thus the Oracle of Delphi became famous. Now we have reason to believe that the mysterious spirit at Delphi was nothing more nor less than Natural Gas.

Lowell Gas Light Company

You Can Do It Better With Gas

SUGAR, 5 lbs. 49c

Corned Fcy. BRISKET	Corned LEAN ENDS	STEAK
17c lb.	15c lb.	25c lb.
		All Round

Lean Fresh Ground HAMBURG STEAK 10c lb.

LAMB CHOPS	LAMB	Yellow ONIONS
20c, 25c lb.	Stewing Pieces	8 lb. 25c
Fresh Cut	10c, 13c lb.

Fresh Creamery BUTTER 49c lb.

JEM BREAD	Best Sweet POTATOES	Fancy SQUASH
16 oz. Loaf 5c	9 lb. 25c	3c, 5c lb.
24 oz. Loaf 8c

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET

Free Delivery 181 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

CATHOLIC CHURCH NEWS

Next Thursday Holy Day of Obligation—Friday is All Souls' Day

All Saints day—a holiday of obligation in the Catholic church—will be observed with solemn services in the churches of this city next Thursday. Friday is All Souls day and will like-

BOY INJURED BY FATHER WHILE HUNTING

Ralph Patterson was mistaken by his father for a raccoon in the bushes near the Carleton road in Chelmsford, Saturday afternoon, and received a charge of buckshot in his left elbow and head. Young Patterson was taken to Chelmsford in a machine and treated by Dr. Scoboria and was then taken to his home in Newtonville. Alexander Patterson, the father, and Ralph had been hunting in the woods near the Lamb place and had inadvertently become separated. Ralph threw himself down behind a clump of bushes to await his father's return. His father saw the bushes move and fired one barrel of his gun with the above result. It is believed that Ralph's injuries are not serious.

wise witness special ceremonies. In all the Catholic churches, masses will be celebrated in the morning and devotions will be held in the evening. In the majority of churches, confessions will be heard Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon and evening, in preparation for these two events.

At the 11 o'clock mass in St. Peter's church yesterday, Rev. Daniel J. Hoffmann preached an eloquent sermon on the doctrine of the communion of saints as illustrated in the two feasts to be observed this week—that of All Saints on Thursday and All Souls on Friday. The church, he said, teaches that the saint who, enjoying their eternal reward in the glory of the beatific vision can intercede for those who seek their aid in overcoming temptations and leading lives of virtue and holiness. Similarly those on earth, their prayers and especially by the mass, the sacrifice of atonement, can aid the souls in purgatory, those who on passing from this life were free from the guilt of mortal sin, but who because of some imperfection were unworthy to be admitted to the realms of bliss, as nothing defiled can enter the kingdom of heaven. The preacher appealed to the congregation to pray for

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take

The tonic and laxative effect of Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets will fortify the system against influenza and other serious ills resulting from a cold.

The box bears this signature
E. W. Brown
Price 30c.

Mechanically able to keep pace with busy minds

Eversharp is a worker, a business pencil—America's favorite. It keeps going day after day with no other attention than an occasional leading. Many people carry two—one with black lead, one with the new colored lead.

Eversharp is comfortable to hold. It never tires the hand because it is perfectly balanced. The lead never wobbles—the exclusive rifled lip grips it like a vise. You know when to put in a new lead—the automatic index tells how much is left in the barrel. New leads are found under the cap. So is the handy eraser. Eversharp features can't be copied.

The all-metal Wahl Pen is a writing innovation, a fountain pen improvement that makes it a worthy companion for Eversharp. The barrel holds more ink. Wahl Pen cannot crack or split. It is beautiful. It is durable. Wahl Pen will last a lifetime.

Wahl Pen and Eversharp are matched in gold and silver. Buy both. Eversharp, $1 to $10; Wahl Pen, $4 to $10. Solid gold at higher prices. Look for the name on each. Wahl Pens in rubber are the finest rubber pens made. $2.50 up.

Made in the U. S. A. by THE WAHL CO., Chicago

EVERSHARP
matched by
WAHL PEN

IMPORTANT. A pencil is no better than its lead. Don't use poor lead in your Eversharp. Use Eversharp leads, which are recognized as the finest made. Over 200,000,000 sold every year. They fit the pencil. Get them. Seren grades, very soft to very hard. Ask for the new small-diameter colored leads, too! In the red top box.

Copyright 1923, The Wahl Co.

ASTHMA
Cough shortness of breath wheezy breathing
Quick Relief
with
FOLEY'S HONEY-TAR
ESTABLISHED 1875
Refuse Substitutes

Fred Howard's drug store, 223 Central; Burdick's drug store, 418 Madison St.; Green's drug store, 2 Morris street.

OUT OUR WAY

THOSE KIDS WHO PLAY WITH WASH FUNKS HORSE ARE ALMOST INSEPARABLE SOMETIMES.

the faithful departed, it may be a father or mother, sister or brother, waiting for the angel of God to convey them to heaven and who during the detention cry out "Have mercy on me, at least you, my friends, for the hand of the Lord is heavy upon me."

The Girls' sodality received communion at the 8:30 o'clock mass yesterday. High masses will be celebrated Thursday and Friday mornings at 9 o'clock.

This morning at 8:30 o'clock, a solemn high mass of requiem was sung in St. Michael's church for the repose of the soul of Rev. Francis J. Mullin, beloved assistant pastor, who died a year ago. The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing parishioners who revered the dead priest during his exemplary life and who were shocked at his sudden death one year ago today. The children of the parish school attended the mass in a body. Yesterday, announcement was made at all the masses that special devotions in honor of All Saints and All Souls days will be held next Thursday and Friday. The Propagation of the Faith society and the League of the Sacred Heart will meet Friday evening following services. St. Michael's Charity Guild will meet tomorrow night.

At the high mass yesterday, Rev. Aloysius G. Madden delivered a forceful sermon on "Purgatory," proving the existence of such a state for the expiation of venial sins. The high mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock by Rev. Thomas J. Heneghan.

The feast of St. Veronica—annually observed in the immaculate conception church, was solemnized last evening with an elaborate procession in honor of the occasion. Those participating in the impressive service were the members of the Holy Angels sodality and both branches of the Children of Mary sodality. It was a most impressive service.

The 11 o'clock mass yesterday morning was a solemn high, celebrated by Rev. William E. Moran, O.M.I., with Rev. Fr. McQuinn, O.M.I. deacon, and Rev. Clement Flynn, O.M.I. sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Robbins preached a thoughtful sermon on All Saints day and its meaning.

At the 8 o'clock mass, the senior branch of the children of Mary and the junior branch of the Holy Name society received communion. Nov. 11 has been set as the date for the annual memorial communion for the members of the Y.M.C.I.

Masses on Thursday and Friday will be celebrated at the usual hours with special services, including vespers of the dead, sermon, and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the evening.

In St. Patrick's church yesterday, announcement was made that university extension courses in interior decorating and public speaking will be held in O'Connell hall this week and in the future until further notice. The courses are open to parishioners. The interior decorating classes will be held for women on Monday evenings, and the public speaking classes for men on Friday evenings.

Friday morning at 8 o'clock, a solemn high mass for the deceased members of the parish will be sung. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from 11:30 in the morning until after evening services.

Rev. Gerald Kenealey, O.M.I. was the celebrant of the children's mass in the Sacred Heart church at 7:30 o'clock. The members of the Children of Mary sodality received communion at this mass. The dates for the parish reunion were announced as Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Nov. 21, 22 and 23. Several committees have been appointed to make arrangements for a monster celebration.

The Holy Name society held its regular meeting following the 9 o'clock mass. The social club of the society has started a membership drive and hopes to have one of the largest representations in the city. A novelty party, under the auspices of the Holy Rosary sodality will be held Friday evening in the school hall, the proceeds to be donated to the reunion fund. A Halloween party for the children of the parish will be held in the school hall on Saturday.

A conference of the St. Theresa Guild of the Little Flower of Jesus will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O.M.I., pastor, will address the members on the subject of Christianity. Rev. Fr. Kenealey will deliver the sermon on All Souls day.

Rev. Cornelius Götter celebrated the 8:30 o'clock mass in St. Columba's church, while the high mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. John J. Powers. The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin will meet in the parish hall tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. At 8 o'clock the same evening, a joint meeting of the men and women of the parish will be held for the purpose of making preliminary preparations for the coming parish reunion, the exact date of which will be announced in the near future. Devotions to St. Rita, benediction and sermon by Rev. Fr. Powers were held last night. A whist party will be held in the parish hall tonight for the benefit of the building fund.

Rev. Andrew O'Brien, Rev. William P. Brennan and the pastor, Rev. Charles J. Galligan, celebrated the masses in St. Margaret's church. The 9 o'clock masses on Thursday and Friday of this week will be solemn high masses.

At the 5:30 o'clock mass in St. Louis' church yesterday, members of the League of the Sacred Heart received communion. The regular meeting of this society was held at 7 o'clock last evening.

Next Sunday, the Children of Mary sodality will receive communion at the 8:30 o'clock mass.

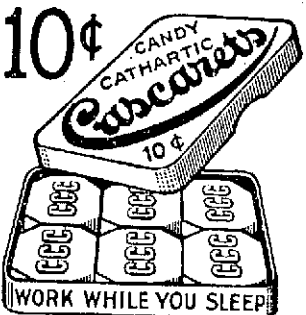

The Zouaves and the boys of the parish received communion at the 7:30 o'clock mass in Notre Dame de Lourdes church yesterday. It was announced that the children of the parish and public schools will go to confession Wednesday morning, the only time they will be heard. October devotions will be brought to a close Wednesday evening.

At St. Jean Baptiste church, Rev. Avite Amyot, O.M.I., observed the 50th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood by celebrating the 11 o'clock mass, assisted by the vice provincial of the Oblate order, Rev. J. E. Turcotte, as deacon, and Rev. A. Gratton, as sub-deacon. After the mass, Fr. Amyot held an informal reception and was congratulated by his many friends for his many years of faithful service in the vineyard of the Lord.

The Angel Guardian and Children of

IF CONSTIPATED SICK, BILIOUS

Harmless Laxative for the Liver and Bowels

Feel fine! No griping or inconvenience follows a gentle liver and bowel cleansing with "Cascarets." Sick Headache, Biliousness, Gases, Indigestion, and all such distress gone by morning. For Men, Women and Children the boxes, at 25 and 50c sizes, any drug store. Adv.

LARGE PIMPLES ALL OVER FACE Were Red and Scaled Over. Cuticura Heals.

"I was troubled with pimples on my face. They were large and red and scaled over, and were scattered all over my face. They itched badly causing me to scratch, and my face was very much disfigured. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I could see an improvement so purchased more, which healed me." (Signed) Miss Ida Berthao, 20 Horton St., Taunton, Mass., Mar. 31, 1923.

Cuticura Soap to cleanse and purify, Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal and Cuticura Talcum to powder and perfume are ideal for daily toilet purposes.

Mary sodalities received communion at the 7:30 o'clock mass.

In St. Jeanne d'Arc's church yesterday, members of the Children of Mary and Angel Guardian sodalities received communion at the 7 o'clock mass, celebrated by Rev. Leon Lamothe, O.M.I. Confessions will be heard Wednesday afternoon and evening. No confessions will be heard Thursday. Parish visits for this week were announced as follows: Rev. Fr. Lamothe, Plymouth and Gardner streets and Gresham avenue; Rev. Aurelien Merrill, Sparks, Martin and Emory streets.

The masses in St. Marie's church in South Lowell yesterday were celebrated by Rev. Joseph Denis, O.M.I. The Children of Mary sodality received communion at the 7:30 o'clock mass. Confessions will be heard Wednesday afternoon and evening.

'First Aid' For Sick Children

THE experienced mother is not alarmed when a child becomes sick. She knows that most of the ailments of childhood are trifling. If it seems serious she calls a doctor, but whether or not she calls him she gives, first of all, a good laxative medicine. The doctor would advise that anyway. It is his "first aid." Such experienced mothers as Mrs. Everett E. Hunt of Belzoni, Okla., who has three children and never any sickness, and Mrs. F. B. Kuklenski of Prosser, Wash., always give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at the first indication of sickness. Such timely doses have saved them much worry.

The Meaning of "Good"

All doctors agree that a thorough cleaning out of the bowels is of first importance for it removes dangerous intestinal poisons. They will also advise a "good laxative," and by "good" they mean one that is effective and yet harmless. They know that there are physics that never should be given to children - calomel, which is mercury and loosens the teeth; phenolphthalein, a constipating drug that causes skin trouble; salts, which concentrate the blood and dry up the saliva. They consider Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin safe for all ages as they know it is a simple vegetable compound of Egyptianenna with pepsin and agreeable aromatics. The formula is on the package.

Give Laxative for Colds

Adults should have at least one movement of the bowels every 24 hours, and children two or three. Failure to have it means constipation, then headache, biliousness, drowsiness, lack of appetite. Give a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bedtime, and there will be health and good feeling by morning. A dose costs less than a cent, and a bottle can be had at any drug store. Colds and constipation come together, so if you notice coughing or sneezing stop it at once with Syrup Pepsin.

*****If You Want to Try It Free Before Buying*****
"Syrup Pepsin," 517 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

I need a good laxative and would like to prove what you say. Send Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin by actual test. Send me a free trial bottle. Address to Name.....

Address.....

Not more than one free trial bottle to a family

PLESTINA MEETS ZBYSKO

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Formally opening the wrestling season, Martin Plestina and Wladislaw Zbyszko will meet in the feature match of a five-event program at the Seventy-first regiment armory tonight. To the winner will go the opportunity of attempting to wrest the championship crown from Strangler Lewis. The match, which Plestina has been seeking for seven years, will go to a finish, the promoters promise.

SPANISH EFFECT

Long loop earrings are worn appropriately with the high Spanish combs and the Spanish shawls that are so much in demand.

SEE THE POINT

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser?

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Thomas Waterhouse, Jr. and Miss Elizabeth Heathcock were united in marriage Saturday at All Saints' church, Chelmsford, by Rev. Wilson Waters. The bridesmaid was Marjorie Elizabeth Ryan and William R. Heathcock, brother of the bride, was best man. Mr. Waterhouse is a resident of Palmer and Miss Heathcock of Lowell. After an extended tour they will make their home in Palmer.

COLDS
of head or chest are more easily treated externally with—
VICKS
VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

$50 to $100 Off

On All Dining Room Suites

That Sold for $269 to $425

These are all beautiful suites, some in combination Mahogany, others in combination Walnut. But Dining Room Suites of that price don't move fast enough to suit our quick turnover methods. So we are going to make medium and low price suites of these high grade goods. And you know when A. E. O'Heir & Co. advertise a cut down in price it is genuine and a mark down from an already fair price.

$425.00 Dining Room Suite, consisting of 8 pieces. Very high grade construction. Italian Renaissance design, every detail carried fully on every piece, chairs carved to match buffet, etc. Sale price $375.00	$350.00 9-Piece All Solid Walnut even to bottom of drawers, except the chairs that are combination walnut. $100.00 off. Sale price $250.00
$375.00 Louis Sixteenth Style, every detail perfect $300.00	$205.00 Mahogany, finished natural color, chairs carved to match $245.00
$350.00 8-Piece Chippendale Mahogany Suite $275.00	$185.00 8-Piece Solid Oak Suite, Jacobean finish $125.00
	$145.00 Solid Fumed Oak Suite, 8-Piece $95.00

These prices for quick sale. This week only. After that they go to regular price.

SO ACT AT ONCE

A. E. O'HEIR & CO., 15 Hurd St.

ANNUAL CATTLE DRIVE

Dracut and Pelham Farmers
Bring Cows Back From
Pasture Lands

The cream of Dracut's buckaroos, led by the stalwart, were policed the trail from Hancock when the cows came back!

Dracut's annual cattle drive from the north pasture lands is over.

New England's choicest herds of fancy bred Holsteins, Guernseys and Arshires made a fine parade down the long valley roads fringed with golden autumnal scenery. They came home with eyes that blinked mournfully as they remembered their summer of idleness in the famous old Lightning mountain and Temple range pasturing districts in southern New Hampshire.

Tanned, rollicking young farm bred huskies of humanity, armed with white birch switches, led in the tall rustling at the round-up, headed the hoves southward and drove them expertly back once more to the home of the Old Yellow Meeting House.

Back once more in the nearby farm cattle barns for winter keep, more than 150 fancy cows, belonging to Dracut and Pelham farmers, are now contentedly munching cold weather menu cards composed of shorts and milk for morning and night, tickled to back home, perhaps, but missing the green pastures of old New Hampshire, where they have been roaming fancy free all summer without hatters or tie-ups and no one to worry them at milking time.

The annual summer homecoming of Dracut and Pelham cows, sent to pasture north every spring for the summer season, is an event of importance to the farm districts north of Lowell. Few Massachusetts farmers with cow herds today take the trouble to find outside pasture lands for their milk and "fresh" or better coming-in cattle. They used to do it years ago, but the custom is not general today.

Prosperous Dracut and Pelham farmers who own registered stock are reluctant to break away from the custom of sending their dry cows away into the open-range pasture lands every season—in some cases 50 or more miles from the home barns. They have been doing this for many years and a few of them will continue to do it as long as they have pasture and good supplies of fresh water sufficient for their needs. There are no cattle ranges large enough in this vicinity to accommodate large droves of cows in these modern times, although there used to be.

And so it has been the yearly custom

Our quick skillful cleansing of your last year's apparel should enable you to complete the season with great economy.

DILLON DYE WORKS
5 East Merrimack Street
Tel. 1788 Auto Delivery

ASPIRIN

Say "Bayer" and Insist!

Unless you see the name "Bayer" on the package or on the tablets you are not getting the genuine Bayer product prescribed by physicians over twenty-two years and proved safe by millions for Colds, Toothache, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain, etc.

WHY YOUR DOCTOR ADVISES TONIC AT THIS TIME OF YEAR!

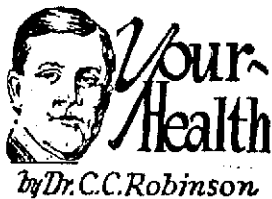

There are lots of people who seldom really feel their best at this time of year. Certain foods do not agree with them; they suffer from indigestion after meals, sleep poorly nights and wake up feeling dull, tired and often constipated. Frequently their systems are so run-down they cannot throw a kick in such wintry life. As a result there are many needless days of suffering.

Take a good tonic and build yourself up! Try just a spoonful of Dr. Thacher's after the next few meals and notice the quick difference in the way you look, eat, sleep and feel. Tonic up your system and feel your best. Have red blood to keep you warm this winter. Druggists are authorized to return the small cost unless you are completely satisfied.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Tonic

Green's drug store, Frye & Crawford Drug Co., A. W. Dows & Co., Noonan the druggist and at leading druggists in every town and city.

Almost Unbelievable
You can hardly realize the wonderful improvement to your skin and complexion the mirror will reveal to you after using Gourd's Oriental Cream for the first time. White-Flesh Rachel. 6 Send 10c for Trial Size R. T. HOPKINS & SON New York

by Dr. C.C. Robinson

BY DR. CLIFFORD C. ROBINSON

ANTHRAX

During recent months much interest has been aroused by an international fight against the infection of anthrax. There is a desire to find some way of disinfecting wool and hair infected with anthrax germs from the blood of sheep and some to the persons who handle them, sometimes causing death.

The anthrax bacillus, under favorable conditions, will retain its virulence for years. Animals dying infected by bacillus anthracis, transmit in their blood, hair and wool the germs an anthrax to human beings. The anthrax bacillus has a strong affinity for the oxygen of the human blood. Its chief action is to so affect the red corpuscles that they are unable to sustain the life stream of blood in a healthy normal state.

The strange thing about the whole story of anthrax is that, although it has been known since ancient times, no particular efforts have been made to stay it through comparatively modern times. In 1877, Louis Pasteur, the great Frenchman, discovered that he could use the organism from the blood of sheep or swine, dead of anthrax, and prepare from it an attenuated virus which he used as a vaccine with remarkable success on sheep.

The real cause of the latest interest in anthrax is that, while it is not certain that shaving brushes, which have not been properly sterilized before use, are dangerous and might transmit the infection. Some actual cases have been reported.

There is no great cause for alarm. I have always used a shaving brush and up to date have escaped anthrax. I have never known anyone who suffered from it through infection from shaving brushes.

It is well, however, for the layman to be informed in regard to it, as some workers, such as wool sorters, spinners and other handlers of wool and hair, are sometimes victims of this disease, either through slight wounds on the surface of the skin or through inhalation.

FACE AND FUR
An edge of modernism on the face ruffles which edge a tidily party truck is one of the inconsistencies of style to be met with this season.

For farmers living in Dracut, Pelham and several nearby towns in this state and southern New Hampshire to hire pasturage for various lots of selected cattle that need to be "summer pastured," and for nearly a century the favorite country district range has been the green grass lands up around Hancock and Temple, N. H.

Bert E. Cluff, chairman of the Dracut board of selectmen, is a nearby farmer who owns a vast stock of registered cattle of several popular breeds. And every summer or more than two decades he has been marching over the country roads north, some 50 miles or more, a flock of his best cattle, placing them up among the long, rolling pastures of the southern mountain region in and about Hancock and nearby towns.

George Carleton of Pelham, another farmer who has registered stock of much value same as Selectman Cluff, also sends a host of his cows each year over the northern roads to the upland pastures. There were slightly more than 160 in the long, nervous procession that went away early in the summer, bound for Lightning mountain via the Mt. Vernon way station.

Messrs. Cluff and Carleton, of course, led the way, but it took eight or ten cowmen of the western brand but eastern fringes, to make the order of march even and regular, no "brooding out" of the long, slow lines, and all eyes, noses and horns straight ahead for the green playgrounds.

The parade every spring up the highways by the most direct route to the mountain pasture region is always a sight bordering on the spectacular. It reminds some observers who happen to be motorizing along the "cattle trail" of a western prairie round-up with the mounted cowboys missing.

Mr. Cluff says when a bunch of cows "gets started" there's nothing to it. You may imagine they are going to try and run into every open orchard or pasture bar they pass, same as they do when Rita or Joe attempts to drive the mooler home from the nearby berry pasture on the old town homestead farm, but they don't. That is, they don't try to run away and do any circus stunts after the first long mile.

A cow hates to march steadily along a country road without a few steps for grazing, or to investigate a bunch of dogwood or poplared tree, or something equally tasty. But after the first mile has passed, the cattle take it steadily the rest of the distance. They understand, as those cowmen behind keen tabs on them, that this march to the north pasture is no joy tramp. If any cow wants to get playful, she must wait until that Temple mountain pasture gate is opened before she can get out of the main line and dance any polkas all by herself.

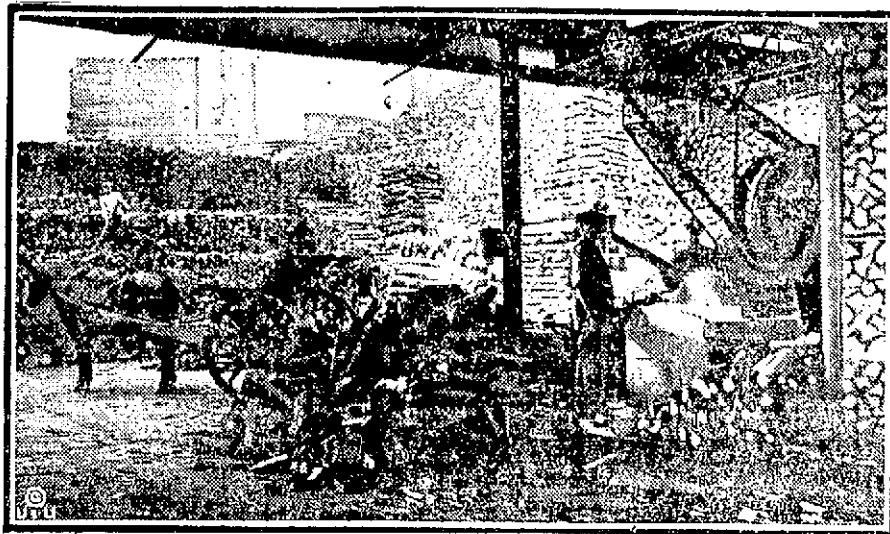

The mountain-side pastures where such cattle owners as Mr. Cluff and Mr. Carleton graze their flocks each season are amazingly large when you stop and think of the measure acres in Massachusetts now devoted to cattle husbandry. The men who send cattle to Hancock and vicinity each year give their stock a "run" of freedom over an area of nearly 4000 acres—all in splendid green pasturage the entire summer. There is no scarcity of water, a large pond lying in the center of this ideal grazing ground.

The drive home in the fall of the year—just finished without any accident worth reporting—takes about two days. Messrs. Cluff and Carleton supervised the homeward journey arrangements, with the usual crew of active cow herders on the job. The journey this season was about 50 miles and took a little more than 48 hours. There was a stop over-night at Mt. Vernon, where the cattle were well fed and pastured.

Some of the Dracut summer-vacation hoves were pastured in the vicinity of Sulphur mountain in Hillsboro county, always a favorite feeding locality with plenty of eternal water springs that bubble freely and copiously even during the "dry spells."

More than one-half of the cows pastured this year were registered stock. Only four lost their lives in the pastures. None were stolen, as has sometimes been reported. The charge for pasturing cattle in the southern New Hampshire open ranges from $7 to $8 a head for "the season." And it is worth it, Dracut farmers say, most emphatically.

One more little item of interest—Notwithstanding the "high cost of life," not a single pasture owner in New Hampshire has raised his range feeding prices, which have been about the same each succeeding year for the past quarter century or more.

AND RIGHT IN NEW YORK, TOO!

At 31st street and the East River, New York, is this wood yard. Here society comes to get its supply of logs for the open hearths, around which real New Yorkers like so well to sit and chat. Steam heat doesn't compare with it, say those who know.

AT ASSOCIATE HALL

Several exponents of the terpsichorean art will compete tonight in the open trot contest at Associate hall as many entries have been made for the event. Not only Lowell dancers will take part, but dancers from other cities have signified their intention of participating. Miner-Doyle's orchestra will be on hand and indications point to a big night. Check dancing will be in order during the evening. A small admission charge will be made as customary. Ferdinand's celebrated Havana orchestra of 11 men will make its first appearance of the season tomorrow night at Associate hall and in the past has been a wonderful drawing card. This aggregation is composed of first-class musicians and will introduce several new features. It is considered a real treat and the patrons are assured of a good entertainment.

SEE THE POINT?

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser.

WILL HOLD HALLOWEEN PARTY AND DANCE

Next Wednesday evening in the K. of C. hall in Dutton street, a Halloween party and dance will be conducted under the auspices of Bishop Delany assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus. Elaborate preparations for this, the first social of the fall season, have been made and a musical program is assured for all who care. J. Broderick's orchestra will furnish the music for dancing and everything is in readiness for a most enjoyable evening.

The following officers will be in charge: General manager, John V. Donahue; assistant general managers, John E. Hart and Charles F. Hunt; door director, Edward F. Slattery; and chief aids, Dan Condit and Frank T. O'Brien. Aides, Edward Appleton, Percy Archambault, John T. Barry, George F. Brennan, John T. Barry, Frank W. Connelly, George B.

A SPECIAL OFFER!

To get you better acquainted with our shoe repairing department for a limited time we will put on

Ladies' Rubber Heels. 25c for

SHWARTZ'S SAMPLE SHOE STORE
24 Prescott St.

C. P. A. Training and Advanced Accounting

A standard course in Public Accounting and Business Management. Each student progresses individually and has personal help and explanations. Not a lecture course. No more wearied trips from Boston at midnight! A more thorough and more practical training of proved success right here at home. Send or telephone for Special Catalog. Local references given.

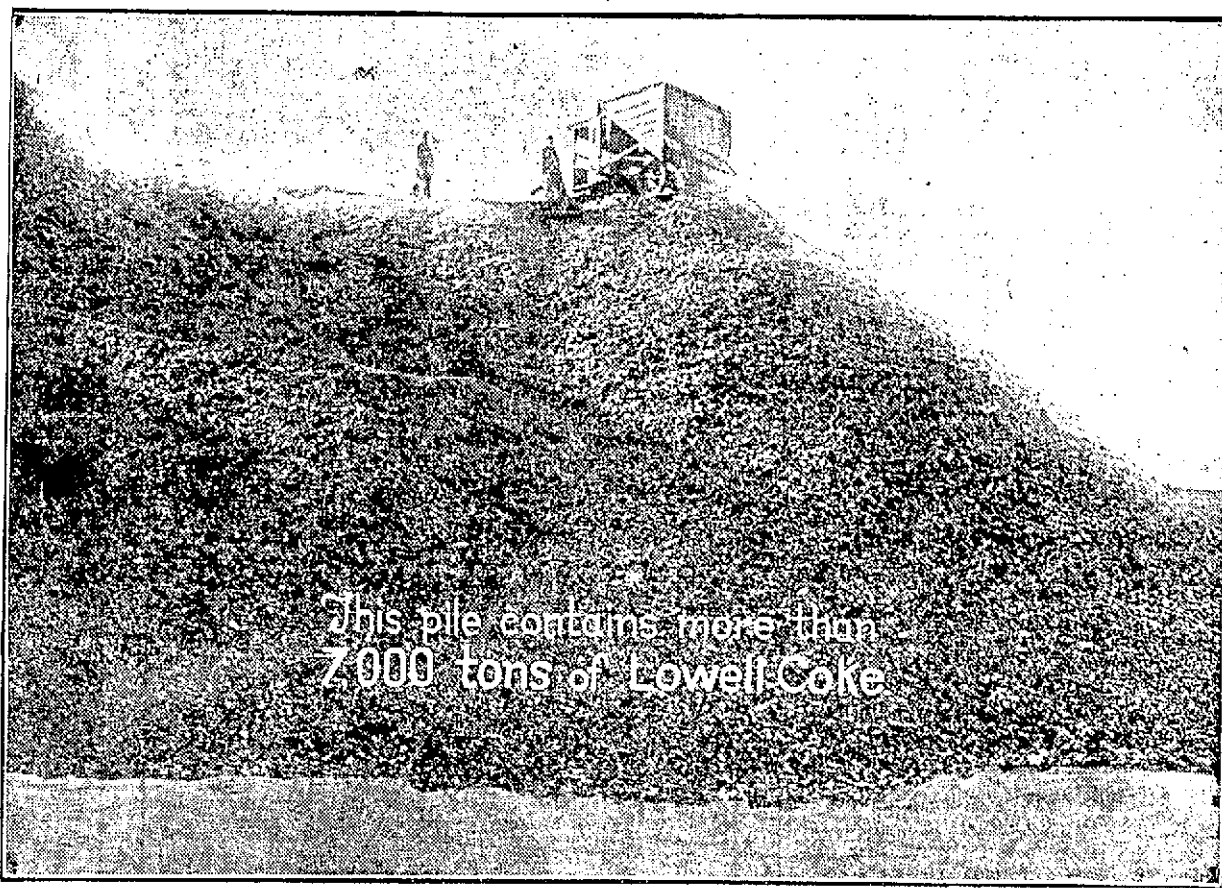

Under Expert Instruction of Certified Public Accountant and Member of Massachusetts Bar.

THE KIMBALL SCHOOL, 226 CENTRAL ST.

Here's Lowell Coke Enough For Everybody

This photograph of the coke pile at the School street plant of the Lowell Gas Light Company was taken a few days ago. It shows clearer than words can tell the immense amount of Lowell coke we have on hand with which to fill the wants of Lowell people during the cold weather.

The papers have told the last few days of the scarcity of anthracite coal—in fact State Fuel Commissioner Hultman issued a statement urging people to use soft coal or coke. Mr. Hultman says that Anthracite will be scarce and he knows. Fill your bin now with Lowell Coke.

(Photo shows Auto Truck on top of Pile)

Last winter people who waited until the last minute to get their supply of fuel were left high and dry. Many bins remained empty with the attending inconvenience, sickness and lack of comfort. Those who learned their lesson well will not get caught this winter—at least we hope not.

We are prepared to make delivery at a moment's notice. We have extra trucks and men ready to go to any part of the city at any time. Just phone 6790 and let us tell you what size Lowell coke will best suit your wants. If you desire we will show you how to burn coke right.

Lowell Gas Light Company

GOOD GAME YESTERDAY ON TEXTILE CAMPUS

Yesterday afternoon on the Textile campus, the fast St. Patrick's J. H. N. eleven defeated the Stanley Wildcats in one of the most interesting games of the year by the score of 20 to 0. Both teams entered the game well drilled in the fundamentals and gave the large

TOO WEAK TO WALK

Lost All Strength After Years of Suffering

"I suffered for years with non-assimilation of food, nervousness, nervous chills, and irregular and weak heart action. I lost flesh and strength until I was scarcely able to walk. My limbs got so numb and weak that when I tried to walk even a short distance I felt I must sit down at once if I didn't want to fall down. A friend told me that Vincarnis would be the best thing in the world for me. I took Vincarnis and such it proved to be in my case. It helped me in every way and did quickly. I soon gained new flesh and blood, strength and vim. I feel alive once more. I always keep Vincarnis on hand for I found it a friend, tried and true."

(Mrs. T. R. Crane, St. Johnland, Kings Park, Long Island, N. Y.)

VINCARNIS

At all good Druggists.
Two Sizes, $1.10 and $1.95
WRITE FOR FREE INTERESTING BOOKLET TO EDWARD LASSERE, INC.,
400 West 23rd Street, NEW YORK.

End Corns

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. Stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in clear liquid and in thin plasters. The action is the same.

At your druggist

Blue-jay

Accept This Gift

Watch the prettier teeth that come when you combat the film

Here is a test which has brought to millions a new conception of clean teeth. Wherever you look you see the results. Teeth glisten as they never did before.

If you don't know this method, you should find it out. You owe that to yourself.

Film is dingy

You feel on your teeth a viscous film. No ordinary tooth paste effectively combats it. So much of it clings and stays, becomes discolored, and then forms dingy coats. That is how teeth lose their beauty.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Under old methods, these film-caused troubles became almost universal.

So dental science sought and found two effective film combatants. One disintegrates the film,

Protect the Enamel

Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combantant which contains harsh grit.

Pepsodent
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

The New-Day Dentifrice

Now advised by leading dentists the world over.

fundamentals and gave the large gathering of fans a good run for their money. St. Patrick's long end runs spelled disaster for the Wildcats, who could not follow their elusive shift. O'Leary, Lawless and Klinton were the outstanding stars for the winners. O'Leary's line plunging being of an especially brilliant calibre. The winning touchdowns were registered by the above. O'Sullivan, the 30-pound center, surprised the crowd with his fast work. He was all over the field. The St. Patrick's challenge and 125-pound team in the city, the Butler 2nds preferred. All players are requested to report at the school hall tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

RICHARD WANDERERS WIN

The Richard Wanderers went out of their class yesterday at Shedd park, but took the belvedere seconds by a 12 and 9 score, making four straight wins for the Wanderers. The latter are still waiting patiently to hear from the Ponies, Butler 2nds, and Indians and will claim the 125-pound championship if these three teams persist in their refusal to meet them.

HIGHLAND STARS DEFEATED

The Y.M.C.A. Juniors defeated the Highland Stars at Washington park by a 6 to 0 score at Washington park yesterday afternoon. The lone tally was scored in the last few minutes of play when Cohen went over the line for a score. The playing of the Cohen brothers and O'Sullivan featured for the Juniors, while Willard, high school, and Capt. Murray substituted for the Stars.

TEXTILE JUNIORS WANT GAME
The Textile Juniors would like to play with first 100-pound teams. They claim a victory over the Pawtucket Blues because the latter failed to show up for their game yesterday.

MEETING OF PLATO CLUB AT HIGH SCHOOL

The meeting of the Plato club of Lowell was held yesterday afternoon in the Lowell high school with a large audience present to hear the addresses arranged.

The principal speaker was the Hon. Emmanuel Maniannos, Greek consul at Boston, who talked on the "Progress and Future of the Greek in America." Mr. Anthony Tsongas, president of the club and a student at M. I. T., spoke on the "Education and Americanization of the Greek in America" and Dr. J. Constantinos of Haverhill gave a very interesting outline of the "Educational Systems of the Greek Schools in America."

A talk in English was given by Constantine S. Dukakis who discussed at some length the question of the Greeks in America, becoming naturalized citizens. He stated the various objections that were raised to such a procedure and then overcame them one at a time. The audience greeted his remarks enthusiastically.

Dr. J. Gaisopoulos and A. Soufras were also scheduled to address the meeting but owing to outside matters of urgency they were unable to attend.

The club is an organization of Greek students in the Lowell high school and in colleges in this country who have formed for the purpose of promoting the education and other interests of their compatriots in America.

MAKE MIND AND BODY WORK TOGETHER

BY NIELS BUKH

You can't have a perfect body without a perfect telephone system. That's what co-ordination of mind and body means.

Did you ever try to circle your hands in opposite directions and find that you can't do it?

That's because your telephone system isn't as it can be. Your mind isn't able, without training, to transmit more than one order at a time.

The reason for this is that in ordinary life we have too few movements. Therefore, in teaching co-ordination of mind and body I start in with an arm movement, then arm and leg movement, then arm, leg and body, until finally the movements are extremely complicated.

There is no end to what can be done in this way, and all is beneficial, making for better control of the body, and better development of the mind.

A suitable exercise to start with is: Stand erect, heels together, hands on shoulders. At the count of one, point left foot to side, left arm up and right arm out to side. Keep arms and legs straight.

At count of two, return to first position. Then repeat, pointing right foot to side, right arm up and left arm out to side. Continue alternating a number of times.

When you have become proficient in this, the exercise may be complicated by following with these movements:

Left hand on shoulder, right arm out to side, left leg forward and up, bent at knee.

Right arm forward, left arm up, left foot pointed forward.

Both arms up, left leg forward and up, bent at knee.

Left arm out at side, right arm up, right leg pointed side.

Left arm out to side, right hand on shoulder, right leg forward and up, bent at knee.

KAREN WESTERALL ILLUSTRATING EXERCISE ON CO-ORDINATION

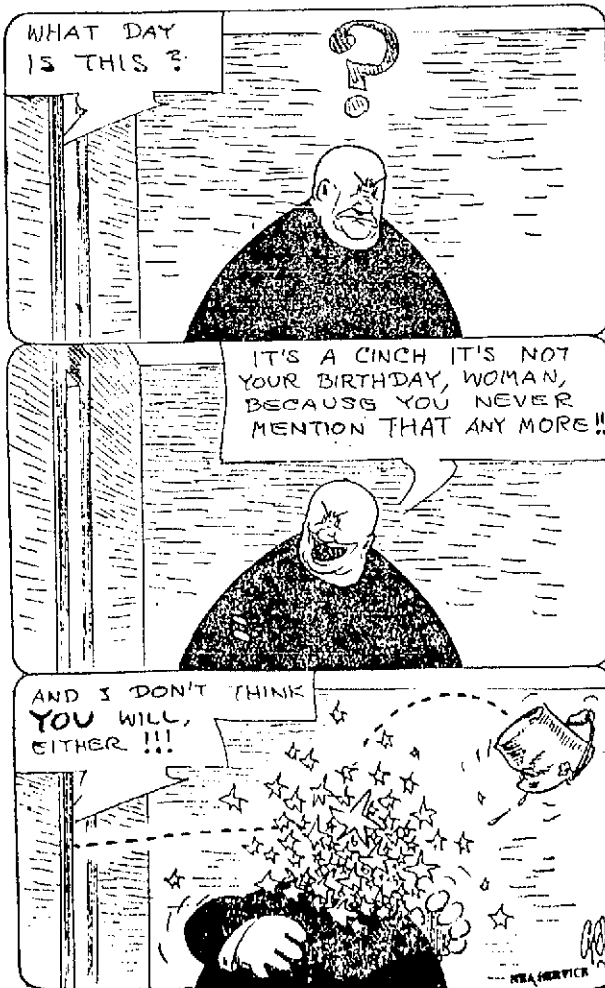

Right arm up, left arm forward, right leg pointed forward.
Both arms up, right leg up and forward, bent at knee.
After you can do these exercises rapidly, you can easily think of other movements that will accomplish the same results in developing co-ordination of mind and body.

CHAMPIONS ALL

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—A great galaxy of championship talent faced the camera when this picture was taken. Duke Kahanamoku, a champion swimmer with Olympic laurels; Charles Paddock, greatest of all dash runners, and Jack Dempsey, heavyweight boxing title holder. The three met here recently in connection with an Olympic drive. Los Angeles hopes to get the games in 1932.

EVERETT TRUE

WHOLESALE GODFATHER PROVIDES ARMY OF ORPHANS WITH FRESH START AT LIFE ON CANADIAN FARMS

IMMIGRANT CHILDREN ON A SASKATCHEWAN FARM

By GEORGE BRITT
(N.R.A. Service Writer)
OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 29.—"Godfather to Thousands" is the unofficial title of James A. Robb, minister of immigration and colonization in the Canadian government.

His foster children are British war orphans and homeless little ones from city streets brought overseas to take a new start. Since the beginning of this century, 78,000 boys and girls from Great Britain have been received, their ages ranging from 3 to 15.

Each immigrant youngster is directly a ward of the government and under the supervision of Minister Robb's department. They are selected by philanthropic organizations and upon their arrival are placed in the homes of substantial farmers. Already, many of the earlier juvenile immigrants have become influential citizens. At the close of the last fiscal year, 2558 boys and 975 girls were sharing the minister's godfatherhood.

"British children on Canadian farms," is the slogan under which we are working," says Robb. "No better outlet can be found for the overflying population in the British Isles, and Canada can obtain no better material for citizenship than these children of kindred blood, brought up from their early youth as Canadian citizens."

Although the children when received are on an apprentice status, many are adopted into families and rapidly assimilated in the new community. The Canadian child immigration plan is without parallel in United States practice.

SPEEDY

Introducing the typewriting speed demons. Top shows Jessie Friedman of New York who recently won the world's championship for women typists. She wrote 5500 words in an hour, which, with penalties deducted was 143 words a minute. Below is Albert Tanager, who won the championship for all, with a speed of 147 words a minute.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

When putting in the winter stock of foods, why not include a supply of native nuts?

Nuts are a real food, furnishing protein and fuel calories at a comparatively low cost. They are a concentrated food and require some thought in combining with other foods to make a well balanced meal.

Too often nuts are served with no thought of their food value and are added to a meal quite rich enough in proteins and fats. The ordinary nuts should take the place of meat, fish or eggs, providing the "nutre de resistance," so to speak. If nuts are in the salad, keep in mind their food value while planning the rest of the meal. Don't repeat nuts two or three times in the same meal.

"Fletcherize" the nuts you eat and they will not cause indigestion. Here are some suggestions as to

HER LATEST AND BEST

This is the latest and favorite portrait of the Viscountess Curzon, American wife of the Viscount Curzon, British statesman. They were married in 1916.

how to use nuts to make the most of them.

Many an otherwise uninteresting dish is enlivened by the addition of a few nut meats. To this end it pays to keep some shelled nuts always on hand for emergencies. While you might hesitate to serve shredded cabbage to guests, a salad of this same shredded cabbage combined with apples and nuts is not only palatable but desirable.

This nut pudding is simple but so good. The woman on the farm with plenty of cream at her command will especially like this dessert.

NUT PUDDING

One-half cup brown sugar, 2 tablespoons milk, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon warm water, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon butter, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, 1/2 cup nut meats, 1/2 cup whipping cream, 2 tablespoons powdered sugar, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla.

Add the 2 tablespoons milk to the brown sugar and melt over a slow fire. Stir in soda dissolved in warm water. Stir in milk and butter and add cornstarch dissolved in a little milk. Stir nuts when removing from fire. Cool and serve with cream whipped and sweetened and flavored with vanilla. This nut loaf should form the main part of a meal.

(Copyright, 1923, The Lowell Sun)

TAKEN FROM LIFE

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 18

Jack looked up and saw a fat lady, dressed in white. She looked just like the laundry lady Jack had seen at home. But the little adventurer decided he didn't want to be put into one of the great tubs that stood nearby, so he started to run, with Flip close at his heels.

At the end of the laundry room was a small stairway and Jack made for this as fast as he could. Up these stairs he went. And as he reached the top, Flip went tearing out just in front of him. Then he heard great peals of laughter. The whole affair had amused the laundry lady.

"Well, we got out of that safely," said Jack. "I wonder where we are now." And a voice replied, "Why, you're right out in the corn yard again, and just in time to see King Bugaboo return from his hunting trip." Jack then saw that King was standing beside him. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

"LOOK HERE, LADIES," HE SAID POLITELY. "YOU'RE ALL WRONG"

"Come here," beckoned Mister Dodger to the twins. "What do you make of this?" Nancy and Nick crouched down beside the fairman where they could see and hear, but where they could not be seen themselves.

But they need not have been afraid, for the chickens were having an argument, and when people are trying to show that every body else is wrong and nobody is right but themselves, they don't bother much about outsiders.

"Mrs. Bon Orpington was speaking. 'Why all you've got to do is to ask Farmer Brown,' she chuckled. 'He had me at the County fair in a race with wire over the front, with a card on it that told all about me. I'm the finest hen on the farm. My ancestors date back as far as the first hay stack in the county and my blood is as blue as blue water on washing day.'"

"The goodness!" chuckled Miss Plymouth Rock. "Blue blood! My goodness! Didn't my ancestors come over in the Mayflower and land at Plymouth rock? Don't talk to me about blue blood!"

"Speaking of blood," put in Misses Bantam. "My great-grandfather was the most famous gamecock in America. He won the biggest cockfight ever held on this side of the ocean."

"Humph!" sniffed Misses Black Mores. "That's something to be ashamed of, not proud of. I shouldn't boast of it if I were you, Misses Bantam. But they do say that small people are always talking of their own importance. You'd make pretty poor picking when it came to a meal."

Misses Rhode Island Red spoke up majestically at this:

"Yes, I should say so! When it comes to showing one's head and keep, I flatter myself that I have some meat on my bones. Besides my eggs are larger and finer than any in Squaw-Moo Land. I have heard Farmer Brown say so, and besides I

IF YOU WANT HELP IN YOUR HOME OR BUSINESS
TRY A SUN
CLASSIFIED
AD

MACHON, Ga., Oct. 24.—When Young Stribling, school-boy light-heavyweight, who caused the champion, Mike McGuffee, and his imported referee, Harry Ertle, such great embarrassment some days ago at Columbus, gets an offer to fight his mother decides whether it should be accepted or not. "Ma" Stribling, as she is known here, is virtually the business manager of her rising young gladiator. She feels that Young Stribling is a match for any man of his weight in the world, especially after the manner in which he cuffed McGuffee around, but she is careful to see that he is not overly matched or underpaid. In short, "Ma" Stribling is a regular manager, and none of the wise-olucky promoters are going to put anything over on her.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Thomas Dwyer, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Joseph Albert, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Margaret Henrietta Weaver Williams, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by George B. Wilson, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the thirty-first day of October, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this thirteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Patrick A. Mahon, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Announcements

LOST AND FOUND
SUM OF MONEY in envelope lost Friday, Oct. 26. Reward, 127 Blossom st.
TOY FOX TERRIER, white with black and tan head, lost Sunday night, on Bridge street, near Lakewood ave. Reward, Mrs. Lester, 234 Bridge st.
EYGLASSES, tortoise shell rims, gold bridge, lost between High and Andrews sts. to post office. Tuesday evening. Finder call 3554-M. Tooty Carrier 45, Post Office.
MALE COON CAT, gray and white, lost around Barrows' block. Reward at 48 Gorham st.
GOLD LOCKET lost, probably Thursday, noon, containing J.R.K. containing colored photographs. Reward for return to D. W. MacLean, Room 205, 34 John st.
CHIMNEYS CLEANED 37
CHIMNEYS SWEEPED, $3.50 a flue. J. M. Kelley, 191 Appleton st. Tel. 4711-N.
ROOFING 38
CHIMNEY and slate roof repairing. Smoke chimneys a specialty. J. M. Kelley, 191 Appleton st. Tel. 4711-N.
M. G. PROFFER—Contractor for shingle, slate, gravel and tar roofs. All kinds of sheet metal work. Roofer of 15 years' experience. 543 Alma st. Tel. connection.
STOVE REPAIRING 39
QUINN STOVE REPAIR CO., 149 Middlesex st., sells stoves, grates and other parts to fit all stoves and ranges. Work promptly attended to by expert repair men. Tel. 4170.
HAVE YOUR STOVE TRIMMING done and make it look like new. Tel. 2657.
MEDICAL SERVICE 36
FREDERICK DUGDALE, M. D. Specialist.
SKIN, BLOOD AND NERVOUS DISEASES
RHEUMATISM, neuralgia, neuritis, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatoid arthritis, gout, catarrh, epilepsy, and other diseases WITHOUT THE KNIFE.
EYE, ear, nose, throat, stomach. Latest methods of treatment. LOWELL OFFICE.
FIVE CENT SAVING BANK. JOHN ST. WED. AND SAT. 2, 4, 7-5. Consultation Free.
PROFESSIONAL SERVICES 37
ACTIVE AND HEALTHY—ALL HIT my feet. We specialize in the manufacturing and adjustment of mechanical appliances. Special agents for Dr. JENSEN'S foot appliances. Consultation free. Always at your service. Come in and talk to us. No charge. Tel. 474. 474 MERRIMACK STREET.

Automobiles

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE 19
BOMBE TOURING CAR for sale at a bargain. In perfect condition. Owner buying larger car. 45 Florence ave.
SERVICE STATION 10
CYLINDER REGRINDING for all makes of cars and trucks. Piston rings fitted. R. B. Roper, 25 Arch st. Tel. 4204.
AUTOMOBILE ACCESSORIES 17
AUTO TILES put in shape now by Bealy & Hiltz will carry through the winter. 404 Central st. Tel. 4330.
ELECTRIC SERVICE 15
J. M. RICHARDS, electrician. Estimates given on large and small jobs. 206 Appleton st. Tel. 6830 or 5266-J.
COTE ELECTRIC COMPANY
AUTOMOBILE ELECTRICAL REPAIRS
531 DUTTON ST. TEL. 6373
STORAGE 31
STORAGE FOR FURNITURE and pianos. Large enough for two-horse load. M. A. Mahoney, 18 Fourth st.
MOVING AND TRUCKING 30
J. WOOD & SON—Piano and furniture moving. Long distance. General trucking. 18 Hampshire st. Tel. 2724-W.
LEO GAVINE—Piano and furniture moving. General trucking. Hard wood coal for sale. 140 Hall st. Tel. 2533-J.
SAXE, GRAVEL and cinders for sale. All kinds of trucking. Alex. Mathieu, Broadway, Tel. Centre Tel. 6044-W.
M. J. FEENEY—Piano and furniture moving. Parties called. 19 Kinsman st. Tel. 3473-W.
D. P. HENRY—Local and long distance furniture and piano moving. 116 Port St. Ave. Tel. 333-J.
J. HURKE & SON—Furniture and piano moving. Long distance. Reasonable rates. 54 Little st. Tel. 2423.
W. O'DRISKELL—Piano and furniture moving. Long distance trucking. Local and long distance trucking. Office Tel. 4529.
W. E. SANDS—213 Dutton St. Phone 4569; moving, trucking, local and long distance. What you don't want I buy. What you want I sell.

Legal Notices

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Sybil Messer, late of Billerica, in said County, deceased.

Whereas a petition has been presented to the Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Beale A. Messer of Billerica, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the thirty-first day of October, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, first judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. F. M. ESTY, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Maria R. Desjardins, late of Westford, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o

JUDGE QUA ORDERS VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFFS IN AUTO ACCIDENT CASE

Judge Qua in superior civil court this morning ordered a verdict for the plaintiffs in the case of Fannie R. Simpson vs. Charles T. Douglas and Bartholemew Hayes and John A. Simpson vs. same, after the jury had reported its findings of fact to the court. The jury then retired for the second time to assess damages and reported verdicts of $150 for Mrs. Simpson and $115 for Mr. Simpson.

The auto grew out of an automobile accident on the Lowell-Lawrence boulevard in which the plaintiffs claimed that their Peerless sedan was run into by a Ford truck owned by the defendants, damaging the sedan and causing injury to Mrs. Simpson. Their son, Roger Simpson, was driving the sedan at the time, and a man named Daily, an employee of the defendants, was driving the truck.

Because of the intricate points of law involved in the case the jury was asked merely to answer eight questions relating to the facts in dispute, and to determine the facts by their answers. The eight questions and the answers of the jury were as follows:

- 1—Was the forward number plate in position on the defendants' car at the time when the defendant permitted Daily to drive the car? Answer: Yes.
- 2—Was the forward number plate in position on the defendants' car at the time of the collision? Answer: Yes.
- 3—Was Roger Simpson, at the time of the accident, acting as the servant of the plaintiff, John Simpson, in driving the Peerless car? Answer: No.
- 4—Did the plaintiff, Fannie R. Simpson, voluntarily and without constraint surrender all care of herself to the caution of the driver, Roger Simpson? Answer: No.
- 5—Did negligence on the part of Roger Simpson contribute to the cause of the accident? Answer: Yes.
- 6—Was Daily, at the time of the accident, acting as the servant of the defendant, within the scope of his employment? Answer: No.
- 7—Did negligence on the part of Daily contribute to the cause of the accident? Answer: Yes.
- 8—Did negligence of the defendants in permitting their truck to be driven by an unlicensed driver contribute to the cause of the accident? Answer: Yes.

Jury Empaneled
A jury was empaneled this morning in the case of Joseph Norkunas vs. Morris Schulman and the case went to trial. The action is one of contract to recover $200 alleged to be due as commission on the sale of real estate. The plaintiff claims that he entered into an agreement with the defendant on April 28, 1923, by the terms of which the defendant agreed to pay him a commission of $200 for the sale of a certain property on Ware street at a price of $3000. The plaintiff claims that he did procure a purchaser and that the sale was made by the said purchaser, but the commission has not been paid.

Attorney F. C. Zachary is counsel for the plaintiff and Attorney D. J. Murphy for the defendant.

The case of Bechard, et al. vs. Jean F. Morin, which was scheduled for trial this morning, will start as soon as the case now on trial is finished. This is an action of contract, ad damnum $20,000, and grows out of the collapse of the bank hall on the Pawtucket boulevard. The plaintiffs claim that they paid the defendant $14,300 for the construction of the building, and they seek damages because they contend the construction was faulty and good material was not used.

The case promised to bring out many fine points in law. Several experts will be called to testify, and an attempt will also be made to qualify certain witnesses as storm experts. It is expected that the trial of the case will consume at least one week.

Attorney E. J. Tierney will conduct the trial for the plaintiffs and Attorney Albert S. Howard will represent the defendant.

LOWELL DISTRICT COURT AUTO ACCIDENTS OVER THE WEEK-END

Officer Cooney Makes Double-header—More Liquor Cases Heard Today

Officer Cooney nailed two birds with one stone when he went to investigate a Lee street house yesterday. Besides arresting a man and a girl in an alleged house of ill-fame, he also took Thomas Traversy, tenant in an adjoining house, into custody for an illegal sale. The latter was found guilty in court and the case continued two weeks for sentence.

Frank P. Whelan, giving his residence as Lawrence, was found guilty of being a vagrant and sentenced to the state farm. About 9 o'clock last night, according to Officer McNally, Whelan went to the undertaking parlors of G. W. Healey in Westford street and requested lodging for the night. When it was refused, he was arrested and taken to the police station.

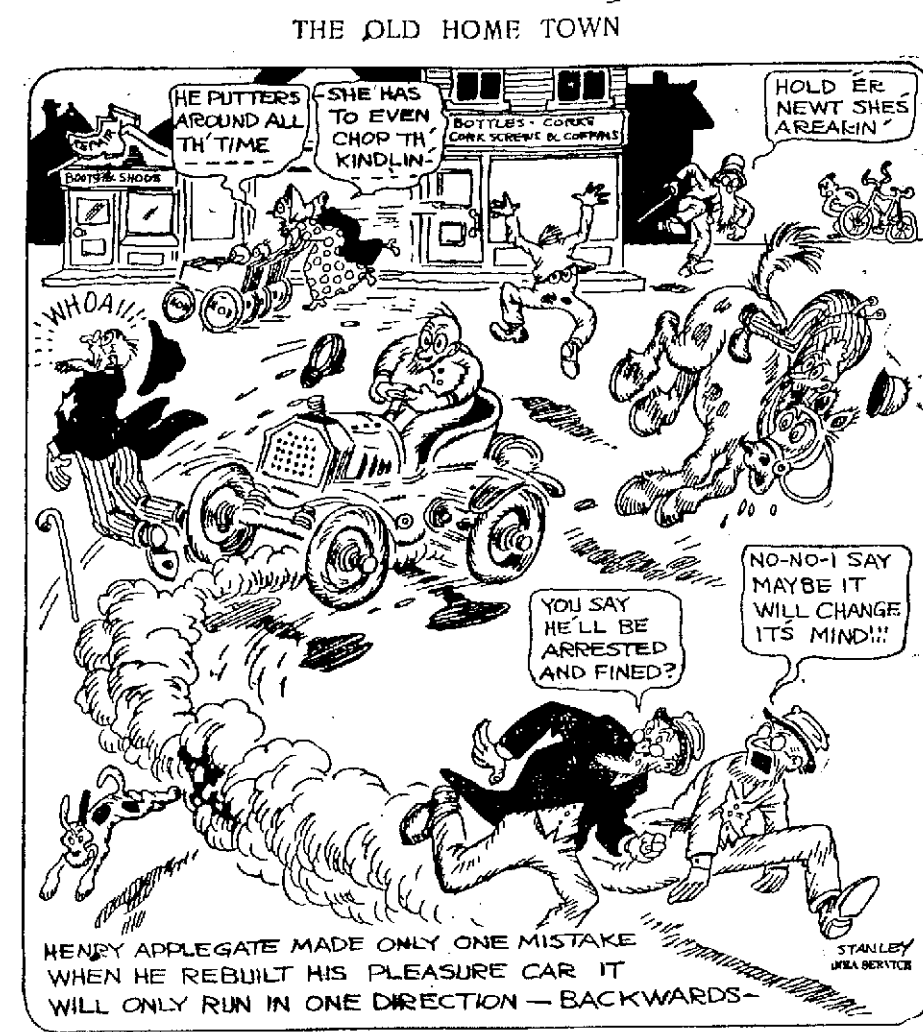

Katrina Trepoulos pleaded guilty to illegal keeping and paid a fine of $100. Joseph McElmehy was fined $100 for illegal sale of the first place, but later changed his plea and paid the customary fine. For illegal keeping, Leo Tighe was fined $100.

Emery Dufault, charged with drunkenness and operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was fined $100. Edward Butler, for a like offense, was continued until Friday. For operating without a license, William Auger paid a fine of $5.

FREE DANCING
C. C. A. Hall, Tomorrow Night
Middle St., Formerly A. O. H.
Everybody Invited to See This
New Hall
Leo Peter's Orchestra

AUTO ROBE MISSING
from
5 VARNEY ST.
If the person seen taking this robe returns it at once, they will avoid trouble.

Tomorrow Night
Halloween Dancing Party
By the Ferncasts
DRACUT GRANGE
Eddie Brooks' Orch. Adm. 35c

HENRY APPLEGATE MADE ONLY ONE MISTAKE
WHEN HE REBUILT HIS PLEASURE CAR IT WILL ONLY RUN IN ONE DIRECTION - BACKWARDS

C. Y. M. L. TO AID IN BOY SCOUT DRIVE

The C.Y.M.L. held its regular meeting in the clubrooms, 378 Suffolk street, yesterday afternoon, and transacted considerable business. President John J. Mahoney occupied the chair.

The first business to come before the meeting had to do with the Boy Scout movement. Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, the club's spiritual director, explained the movement in detail, and it was unanimously voted to aid the scouts in every possible way. The following committee was appointed to represent the scout drive: Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, John McDermott, James O'Brien, Raymond Ricard and Joseph Sexton.

The question of starting a university extension course was discussed at considerable length by several of the members. Rev. Fr. McDonough and John J. Gildea explained the subject in detail. Several other members entered into the discussion and it was unanimously voted to start a class in the school hall, and a meeting for that purpose will be held next Friday evening.

The matter of the C.Y.M.L. having a basketball team this season was taken up and it was voted to conduct the team under the same rules as last year. Until a permanent manager is elected the chairman of the athletic committee will be in charge.

The revival of the communion breakfast was next taken up. Several members thought a mistake was made when they were discontinued. The members will receive holy communion in a body at the 8:30 o'clock mass Sunday, Nov. 11. After the mass the breakfast will be held in the school hall.

The bowling league question was taken up in former years the league has started late and the schedule carried the boys into warm weather. The following committee was appointed to have charge of the league with instructions to get under way at once: John E. Murphy, chairman; Frank O'Neil, Philip Carroll, Harold B. Sullivan and Frank McGarrahan.

President Mahoney reported that Secretary James P. Saunders, James J. Bruin, Esp. and himself attended the regular meeting of the park commissioners last Friday evening and advocated the establishment of a cinder track, comfort station, shower baths and outdoor gymnasium on the North common. The committee was received courteously and the commission members looked upon the matter in a very favorable light. It is not the intention of the C.Y.M.L. to chance the name of the common, but it is its intention to do all in its power to have the desired improvements made. The meeting unanimously voted to lend its moral support to the park commission to obtain the desired results. It was also voted to draw up a petition and present the same to the city council asking for its support.

The committee in charge of the annual Halloween dancing party in Association hall next Wednesday evening reported that everything is in readiness and that present indications point to the most successful affair ever run by the league.

Suitable resolutions on the death of the late brother, John F. Kelly, were submitted and adopted.

Fourteen applications for membership were received and referred to the investigating committee and 11 new members were admitted.

Joseph Heslon was elected to the advisory board to fill temporarily the vacancy caused by a member working out of town.

House, finance and membership committee will be made up of the executive board.

President Mahoney appointed the following standing committees for the year:

Pool and game committee—James McPhillips, chairman; John J. Conlon, James Lannon, John P. Murphy and Frank McGarrahan.

Entertainment committee—Joseph Heslon, chairman; Timothy F. Rohan, Frank G. Heslon, James P. Saunders and John J. Gildea.

Athletic committee—Andrew Smith, chairman; John W. McInnes, Frank Saunders, John J. Flannery and Daniel Lohly.

Laboratory committee—Joseph Haley, chairman; Henry McCullough, Henry Gould, James J. Bruin and Martin Givlan.

Under the head of good and welfare interesting remarks were made by Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, John J. Gildea, President Mahoney and others.

U. S. Commissioner Hears Liquor Cases (Continued)

Jacques was arrested in Haverhill last Friday, he was released on bail furnished by his brother, but this morning, his brother refused to furnish bail and Jacques was ordered remanded to the East Cambridge jail to await trial.

John H. Jernyn of Haverhill, pleaded not guilty to a charge of making an illegal sale, but probable cause was found against him and he was held in $500 for the United States district court.

Federal Agents Sullivan and Hall testified that they approached Jacques in Haverhill last Friday and told him they wanted to purchase some liquor. He directed them to a doorway and in a few minutes Jernyn came along with a half pint of liquor, which he sold to Sullivan for $1.00. Then they arrested Jernyn and also took Jacques into custody, and they testified they found several pint bottles of liquor in Jacques' pockets.

Callender of Lawrence, a clerk in a saloon at 170 1/2 Lowell street, Lawrence, pleaded not guilty to a charge of illegal selling of liquor. He waived examination and was held in $500.

James Gleason, who was arrested in a saloon at 171 Elm street, Lawrence, also pleaded not guilty to illegal selling and through his counsel, Attorney J. P. S. Mahoney of Lawrence, he waived examination and was held in $500.

Andrew Conley, who was arrested in a saloon at 70 South Broadway, Lawrence, pleaded not guilty to a charge of making an illegal sale. At the request of his counsel, Attorney Joseph Donahue of this city, the case was continued for one week.

Commissioner Walsh will hold regular sittings at the court house on every Monday and Friday morning hereafter, at 10 o'clock, provided there is any business to be brought before him.

SUN BREVITIES

Best printing, Tobin's, Associate bldg. Mirrors resilvered. Tel. 466-R. Catering the best—Lydon. Tel. 4934. Fire and liability insurance, Daniel J. O'Brien's, Wyman's Exchange.

Learn to dance. Join the Wednesday evening class at the Bay State Dancing school, 255 Dutton st. 50c a lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Curry of 243 School street are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl, born Oct. 22.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Joseph Mullany last evening at St. John's hospital. Mrs. Mullany was formerly Miss Isabel McQuade.

Attorney Edward J. Tierney has recovered from an attack of the grippe which kept him confined at his home since last Thursday.

Dr. John K. Gatsopoulos of 1562 Middlesex street, has applied for a commission as captain in the medical branch of the coast artillery reserve corps.

William K. Ryan of 332 Wentworth avenue and Fred H. Little of 32 Emory street, have both enlisted in the coast artillery reserve corps, the first as a private and the latter as a cook.

The Lowell Memorial Auditorium has a seating capacity of 4000. Imagine the Auditorium filled to capacity twenty times and you will get some idea of the number of people who read The Sun daily, and 90 per cent of the 50,000 readers of The Sun take no other Lowell newspaper.

Miss Anna S. Madigan returned to her duties in the office of the Lowell chamber of commerce this morning after a two months' leave of absence granted because of illness.

GRATEFUL FOR AID IN FINDING GRAHAM

Secretary Wells of the chamber of commerce today received a letter from E. H. Evans of Springfield thanking him for his assistance in locating William Graham. Mr. Graham a few weeks ago was located here through a story in the news columns of The Sun, stating his father was dying in Springfield.

Mr. Graham, who before the war worked here in one of the mills, was located through the publicity given in The Sun. In Mr. Evans' letter, Mr. Wells is thanked for securing newspaper co-operation here in the effort to locate the man. The letter Mr. Graham who was near death at the time, is on the road to recovery, the letter states.

LOWELL BOY DIES IN DETROIT, MICH.

A telegraphic report to The Sun this morning conveyed the news that Thomas F. Lyons, a former Lowell boy, brother of Bro. Fabian, C.E.N., superintendent of the Working Boys' home in Newton Highlands, died in Detroit, Mich., of pneumonia, following an operation last Saturday morning. The message also stated that Brother Fabian is accompanying the body to this city and that the funeral will be held from the home of his cousin, Miss Julia Reardon, 30 Claire street, this city.

Decensed was born in this city and lived here until after the World war, when he went to Detroit with a brother, Maurice. Both his parents are dead.

BOY SCOUTS CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS WILL OPEN TONIGHT AND CONTINUE THROUGH THE WEEK

Another team has volunteered its services to the campaign for funds that is being started by the Boy Scout organization tonight. The team is composed of members of the Lowell A.C. club and the captain will be H. B. Leggat.

The drive will open with a dinner at Charlie's restaurant on Central street, tonight at 6 o'clock, at which all team members and captains will be present. All other persons who are interested in the work that is being done by the scout troops are invited to be present and hear the speaker of the occasion, Mr. Dudley H. Dorr, a prominent Boston attorney, and the chairman of the New England regional scout executive board, who will tell of the work that has been and is being done in other cities with the youth of the nation.

Final instructions as to methods of campaigning and the necessary lists of names to be canvassed, as well as the other necessary paraphernalia will be distributed and one or two short "pops" talks given before the meeting breaks up. The drive will last throughout this week, ending Saturday night, and is for the purpose of obtaining $7200 to carry on the work in Lowell of organizing troops of scouts and buying them properly supervised to get the greatest good out of their work. The figure of $7200 represents the budget compiled by expert accountants and from it has been eliminated everything that is not absolutely essential to the proper performance of training the boys for a period of one year.

NO NEW DETAILS ON LOST SUB TWO UNCONSCIOUS MOTOR LAUNCH

O-5 Sank in Collision With Steamer at Atlantic Entrance of Panama Canal
Five Men, Including L. T. Brown of Tyngsboro, Went Down With It

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The navy department today had no new details on the sinking of the submarine O-5 in collision with the steamer Abangarez at the Atlantic entrance of the Panama canal. A message to the department said the submarine had been sunk early in the day and that five men had gone down with the vessel.

Although constructed during the war, the O-5 already had passed into a class of submarines now considered to be practically obsolete and its usefulness was restricted to harbor and coast defense.

Those reported missing were: Lawrence Brown, chief electrician's mate, Tyngsboro, Mass.; Clyde E. Hughes, motor machinist's mate, first class, Manila, Ill.; Henry Drenault, torpedoman, second class, Grand Isle, Vt.; Thomas Melzer, fireman, 1221 South 26th street, Philadelphia; and Fred C. Smith, mess attendant, first class, Cristobal Canal Zone.

The commanding officer of the submarine, according to navy records, was Lieutenant Harrison Avery of Pennsylvania. Only one other officer was listed as attached to the vessel, Lieut. A. H. Bamberger. The collision occurred at 8:25 a. m. off Guay 1, in Limon bay, which is at the eastern terminus of the Panama canal.

At the time of the accident, officers familiar with operations in canal waters said the tropical sun would have been well up and it was improbable that a collision could have occurred in the perfectly chartered bay under ordinary conditions. If the O-5 was running submerged, that extreme caution be taken in selection of the place of such maneuvers in order that other craft may be avoided.

DIAMONDS

The superior qualities which are to be found in our Diamonds make The Deciding Factor.

A most thorough comparison of Wood-Abbott Co. Diamonds with any others for brilliancy, fire, snap and animation will convince you of two things:—That our Diamonds are of exceptionally fine quality; that they are the very best Diamond Values the country affords.

Diamonds bought of us can be mounted as desired in platinum, white or green gold.

See the work done in our own shop—the finest in Lowell.

SATISFACTION ALWAYS
Established over 50 years

Wood-Abbott Co.

Diamond Merchants and Jewelers
135 CENTRAL ST.

Bridal Veil

PERFECT
PATENT QUALITY
FLOUR

Sold in 5 lb., 24 1/2 lb. bags; 98 lb. cotton bags and barrels, 196 lb. barrels.

Wholesale Distributors

Frank W. Foye Co., Lowell, Mass.

Telephone 3895

SAVE COAL

KEEP WARM WITH

Perfection Oil Heaters

Adams Hardware and Paint Co.
361 Middlesex Street

HALLOWEEN NEW SWEET CIDER

Fresh every day. Order early for Halloween and dancing parties, smoke talks, lodge meetings. Use of keg and funnel free.
BOYLE BROS. Telephone 2056

THE BEST DANCE IN TOWN TONIGHT

By the
WHOS'IS PAWTUCKET BOATHOUSE
Ted Marshall's Orchestra Admission 35c

ASSOCIATE -- TONIGHT
OPEN FOX TROT CONTEST
Check Dancing — Miner-Doyle's Orchestra
Admission 10c

SPECIAL TUESDAY NIGHT—ATTRACTION NIGHT
FERDINANDO'S HAVANA ORCHESTRA
(11 Men) Night Before Halloween
Admission 55c First Appearance This Year

THURSDAY NIGHT—"MAL'S" HALLOWEEN PARTY

Old Veterans Hold Reunion Here

LIQUOR CASES BEFORE U. S. COMMISSIONER

Canadian Bluenose Wins First Race

NINE LONE SURVIVORS OF ONCE GREAT FIGHTING UNIT MEET IN 60TH ANNUAL REUNION HERE

Veterans of 33rd Massachusetts Infantry, Who Lost Heavily at Lookout Mountain 60 Years Ago, Met This Noon at Memorial Auditorium—Mayor Donovan an Invited Guest and an After-Dinner Speaker

There met in reunion in Lowell today the remnants of a once great fighting unit—the 33rd Massachusetts Infantry, which fought through the Civil war to win everlasting glory and fame.

Its hundreds of soldiers have shrunk to a mere handful. Only nine comrades were at the Memorial Auditorium this noon when the mess call sounded, but these nine typified the spirit of the regiment when it went out in the bloom of young manhood to answer the country's call to arms 60-odd years ago. Age has left its mark upon the physical side of their lives, but it has not murred the spirit within.

From north, east, south and west came those comrades who were able to travel.

"This may be the last reunion for a lot of us," said one old veteran from way up in New Hampshire, "and I just couldn't help coming down to meet the boys once more."

That same feeling was expressed by them all. They will stick by their comrades, their regiment and their glorious traditions until taps calls them home.

The comrades who met in the veterans' wing in the G.A.R. quarters at the Auditorium this noon were: John J. Ryder, of Buzzards Bay, Dudley L. Page, of Lowell, H. A. Dixon, of Fitchburg, William Hargrave, of West Roxbury, William Jubb, of Shirley, Ira C. Bumpus, of East Boston, J. E. Barrows, of Wilmington, Benjamin Wheat of Lowell and Joseph Brummitt of Wolfboro, N. H.

Today's gathering was the 60th reunion of the 33rd Infantry Association, being held on the 60th anniversary of the battle of Wauhatchie in the Lookout Mountain valley, where on the night of Oct. 28, 1863, the 33rd Regiment then a part of the 25th Corps, suffered heavy losses while attempting to fight their way through to relieve Rosecrans, pinned up in Chattanooga. Out

Continued on Page 2

FRENCH RESERVATIONS MAY MAKE HOLDING OF REPARATIONS CONFERENCE IMPOSSIBLE

Poincare Says France Has Reached Limit of Concessions—London Papers Declare Inquiry Conditioned by Such Restrictions Could Serve No Useful Purpose

LONDON, Oct. 29. "The reservations which Premier Poincare attaches to French assent to the proposed reparations inquiry are regarded by the London newspapers as making the holding of the conference very problematical."

"It begins to be a question whether an inquiry conditioned by such restrictions can serve any very useful

Continued on Page Three

Marie's Old Fashioned HALLOWEEN PARTY

For everybody who wants a good time. Special features, full course Turkey Dinner with all the fixings. Dancing and all the good time you wish for $2.00, Wednesday night until Thursday morning 2 o'clock.

Marie's Restaurant
130 CENTRAL ST.

Make reservations now. Seating capacity limited to 225. Special tables reserved for parties. Broderick's orchestra. Concert every evening in the future.

Our Policy

RESPONSIBLE BANKING CAPABLE
MANAGEMENT
COURTESY
INCREASING
HELPLESSNESS

You know this bank is under the supervision of the United States Government. Interest in Savings Department begins next Thursday.

Old Lowell
National Bank
Oldest Bank in Lowell

American Challenger Columbia Beaten in First of International Championship Series

AUDITORIUM PRICES TOO HIGH FOR BIG ATTRACTIONS AD CLUB MEMBERS BELIEVE

Want to Know Why It Should Cost More to Hear an Artist Here in a Hall Twice as Big as Symphony—Favor Fifty-Cent Seats on Floor

Why prices for Auditorium concerts should be so high was the question raised at the weekly noon-day luncheon of the Lowell Ad club held at Liberty hall today. It was held that artists who appear here at $3 a ticket plus 30 cents war tax, in a hall with a seating capacity of about 4000, appear in Symphony hall in Boston, which seats not more than 2200, for top prices of $3, tax included.

The Auditorium trustees are to be interviewed by Ad club representatives in an endeavor to lower their sentiments. It was brought up at today's meeting that if, as told in The Sun a few weeks ago, Cleveland with an auditorium seating 12,000 persons, can put on John McCormack and other celebrities at 50 cents a seat, we should be able to hear these artists here at prices more within reach than the present scale.

It was also held that as the Auditorium is a city building and not meant for private exploitation at least two rows in the parquet circle and two rows in the first balcony should be on sale, no matter what the attraction, at fifty cents the ticket.

To Take Matter Up President Edward J. Cooney, who presided at the opening of the meeting, agreed that the points were well taken and the subject will be taken up with the Auditorium trustees and with the city council.

The main point of argument was that if Gull-Gucci, Paviowna, Jeritza and other artists can sing in Symphony hall, the prices should be proportionately lower. Also it was held if an artist can sing in a 2200 capacity hall in Boston for $3, war tax included, as many have done and are now being advertised to do, the 30 cents additional should not be put on tickets in the Auditorium, where 1600 more seats or better are available.

City Charity Department Frank Ricard acted as chairman of the day and introduced as the principal speaker of charities, Joseph H. Gormley. Mr. Gormley had as his sub-

CONGRESS TO PASS BONUS

Legislation to Be Enacted by Congress, Says Sen. Curtis, Republican Whip

Declares Congress Could Reduce Taxes Even Though Bonus is Voted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Congress could reduce taxes at the forthcoming session even though soldier bonus legislation is enacted, Senator Curtis of

JOSEPH H. GORMLEY

ject, "Things We Seldom See," and gave an interesting talk on the activities and functions of his department. The mother aid department, the outdoor department, which includes dispensaries and ambulances, and the Chelmsford street hospital were all touched upon by Mr. Gormley in a concise, comprehensive, interesting talk.

There are 370 persons at this time spending the twilight of their lives in the Chelmsford street hospital, Mr. Gormley told the Ad folk. As the winter comes on this number will probably reach 500. "We have our 'senior citizens' who come with us in the winter and depart as soon as the robins appear," said Mr. Gormley.

He gave an intimate glimpse into the seamy side of Lowell life in his brief talk and was well received. His talk was held to a short period of time but the subject was handled masterfully and Mr. Gormley showed a deep and full understanding of his work.

Kansas, republican whip of the senate and member of the finance committee, said today after a call at the White house. The senator added that he fully expected bonus legislation to be passed.

The difficulty in passing a bill to reduce taxes, Senator Curtis said, would be in obtaining agreement by the various groups in congress on a reduction program. Unless such a program can be agreed to, he said, nothing probably will be done.

Window Shades

We solicit the opportunity to estimate on houses, hotels, apartments, etc., etc.

Manufacturers of Shades Wholesale Prices
CHALIFOUX'S CURTAIN SHOP
Third Floor Phone 5000

BLUENOSE WINS OFF HALIFAX

Canadian Defender Captures First Race by Margin of One Minute and 20 Seconds

Led Until Up to Third Mark

Which Schooners Passed Abreast

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 29.—The Canadian defender Bluenose won the first race of the international fisherman's series over a 30-mile course today by a margin of one minute and 20 seconds over the American challenger Columbia. Bluenose led until almost up to the third mark, which the schooners passed abreast and on the fourth leg, regained a lead which she was able to increase considerably before the finish. Bluenose 4:42.42; Columbia 4:45.02.

LOWELL MAN FOUND DEAD IN ARKANSAS

Supt. Atkinson this morning received a telegram dated at Cleveland and signed by George A. Marr, secretary of the Cleveland Carriers' association, to the effect that Albert Shea, said to have lived with his father, James Shea, 114 Howard street, Lowell, Mass., was found dead Saturday at Ozark, Arkansas.

Coroner there has asked instructions as to the disposal of the body. Can you locate James Shea and give him necessary orders?

As soon as the superintendent received the telegram he got in touch with all the James Sheas in the local directory, but none of them claimed a son by the name of Albert. There is no Shea listed in the directory as residing in Howard street. The police will appreciate any information volunteered.

STRENGTH SECURITY SERVICE

INTEREST BEGINS ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS THURSDAY

Middlesex National Bank

Under Supervision of United States Government
Merrimack cor Palmer

BROWN LEATHER BAG, lost on Broadway or School st., containing money and valuable effects. Tel. 4956. Reward.

POLICE START CAMPAIGN TO CLEAN UP VICE DENS HERE

Authorities at a Loss to Understand Why Lodging House Licenses Are Granted to Persons Who Have Not Even Taken Out First Citizenship Papers—Case in District Court Today

The second offender to be taken in by the police within a week for maintaining a house of ill-fame, appeared in district court this morning in the person of Manong Thellian, who was arrested yesterday at a house in Lee street by Sgt. Winn and Officers Cooney and Moore of the vice squad. Lydia Deasard, a 20-year-old girl, was arrested on the same premises and booked for disorderly conduct. Both cases were continued until Saturday.

The Lee street lodging house has been under suspicion for some time, as numerous complaints concerning its respectability have been received by the police. Upon inquiry, it was learned that the proprietor is not a citizen of this country, as was the case of a Market street man last week. The police are at a loss to understand how licenses are granted to such persons so easily. It is estimated that nine out of every ten lodging-house proprietors of foreign extraction have not even taken out first citizenship papers. A member of the vice squad stated this morning that their sole purpose in conducting lodging houses is to make money by immoral practices, regardless of the consequences. A thorough campaign to clean up these houses was inaugurated last week and will be continued until the desired result is attained.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER HEARS LIQUOR CASES IN SUPERIOR COURT

United States Commissioner Richard Lawrence and two from Haverhill, all of whom were arrested last Friday by Federal Prohibition Agents Sullivan and Hall of this city. Valter Jacques of Haverhill, pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal sale of liquor and he was held in $500 for his appearance before the United States district court to answer any indictment that the federal grand jury might return against him. After

Continued on Page Fourteen

Prohibits Sitting of Saxony Assembly

LONDON, Oct. 29.—General Von Mueller, commander of the Reichswehr has prohibited the assembly of Saxony from sitting tomorrow, says a Central News despatch from Berlin this afternoon. This action prevents the members from taking any measures under the protection of the parliamentary immunity act.

23 Killed and 31 Wounded in Clash

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—Advices today from Frieberg, Saxony, where demonstrators and federal troops clashed Saturday, reported 23 persons killed and 31 wounded. The first report gave 13 killed and a score wounded.

7 Destroyers Rush to Aid Submarines

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 29.—Seven destroyers and several tugs have been despatched to the assistance of submarines O-11 and R-25, reported disabled in a rough sea 100 miles east of the great Guana Key, near the Bahamas. The submarines broke down about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon it was stated, at the headquarters of the Sixth Naval district here.

COUNCILOR CAMERON MAY RUN FOR MAYOR

In an interview given this paper today Councilor Donald M. Cameron of ward 3 said he has not fully made up his mind whether he will seek reelection from that district this fall. He will announce a decision within a day or two.

On several occasions the councilor's name has been mentioned as a possible mayoralty candidate in 1924, but although questioned as to this possibility today Mr. Cameron was non-committal.

Another candidate from ward 3 appeared today when papers were taken out at the office of the election commission for Elliott Katz, 63 Royal street.

J. Eugene Mullin, candidate from ward 4, filed his papers this noon. Special registration sessions will be held at city hall on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week from 7 to 9 o'clock. The time for filing nomination papers expires at 3 p. m. next Saturday. Councilor Frank K. Stearns, candidate for re-election in ward 1, filed his nomination papers with the election commissioners this afternoon.

DANIELSON, Comm.-Coroner Arthur G. Bill of Windham county said this forenoon that he had arranged to have the driver of a high powered sport model automobile, which was wrecked on Dark Lantern hill shortly after last midnight, causing the fatal injury to three others attend an inquest this afternoon to determine responsibility for the accident.

N. Y. AND BOSTON CLEARINGS
NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Exchanges, $42,000,000; balances, $72,000,000.
BOSTON, Oct. 29.—Exchanges $51,000,000; balances $26,000,000.

MATHEWS!
There will be a special meeting Tonight at 8 O'Clock to take action on the death of our late brother, Jeremiah Mullane.
P. F. REILLY, Pres.

Lowell Choral Society
First Rehearsal for the "MESSIAH"
Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 8 P. M.
MIDDLESEX HALL, Palmer St.

MEN'S TIES

Beautiful colorings in the popular "silk and wools," changeable and striped patterns.

50c, $1.00, $1.50 and Upwards

Men's Shop—Street Floor

The Bon Marche
DRY GOODS CO

SCARFS

A complete selection of beautiful imported wools and cashmeres, silk and wools, all silk and all wool scarfs.

FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

Street Floor

A Perfect Foundation for Modern Gowns—
NEW CIRCLET NO. 2017

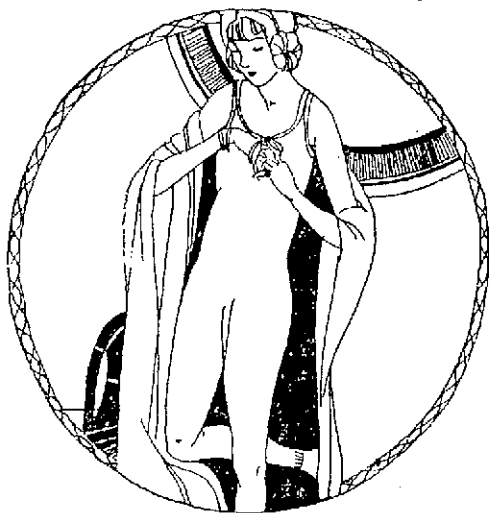

The slim, straight lines that every woman of today wishes to achieve in her gowns are made possible by this new Circlet No. 2017.

A new thought in brassiere designing is embodied in this original Circlet. For it is so constructed as to bridge the gap at the waist and mould the large figure to decidedly slender lines.

Attached midway between front and back section are hose supporters which bring out the most desirable contours and at the same time prevent the Circlet from riding above the corset-top.

No. 2017 is an exceptional value, fashioned in handsome pink coutil, and will retain its good looks and effective control after many tubbings. Price is ..... $2.00

A SPECIAL VALUE IN WOMEN'S UNDERWEAR

Medium Cotton, J-Piece Suits, band top, knee and ankle length. Sizes 33-44 ..... $1.25

FOR LARGER WOMEN—Sizes 46-50 ..... $1.39

Street Floor

MEN'S UNDERWEAR

Cotton and Wool Union Suits

$1.75

Medium and Heavy Weight Cotton Suits

$2.00

Three-quarters wool, medium and heavy weight suits.

Medium $3.75

Heavy $4.00

All Wool $5.00

Medium and Heavy $6.00

SHIRTS AND DRAWERS

Cotton $1.00 | Half Wool $2.00, $2.50 | All Wool $3.00

Street Floor

BED ROOM SETS

BLUE, ORANGE, ECRU, WHITE JEWEL CLOTH AND UNBLEACHED COTTON

Blue and Orange Sets, Stamped to Embroider

Spread ..... $6.98 Pin Cushion ..... 49c
Sham ..... $2.25 Pillow ..... 98c
Scarf ..... 98c Curtains, pair ..... $5.56

ECRU

WHITE

Spread ..... $6.25 Spread ..... $5.00
Sham ..... $2.00 Sham ..... $1.75
Scarf ..... 85c Scarf ..... 69c
Pillow ..... 88c Pillow ..... 89c
Curtains, pair ..... $5.00 Cushion ..... 25c
Curtains ..... $4.00

Unbleached Sets, 3 pc. .... $2.89

Art Needlecraft, Third Floor

JAPANESE BLUE PRINT
TABLE COVERS

In the following attractive patterns—

"BAMBOO"

"FLEUR-DE-LIS"

"APPLE BLOSSOM"

"JILLY"

Size 45-in. .... $1.25

Size 60-in. .... $1.75

Size 54-in. .... $1.49

Size 70-in. .... $2.25

Napkins to match, 12x12, dozen ..... 79c

Linen Shop—Street Floor

"WATERSIDE" CORDUROY

BLUEBIRD
CHERRY
SILVER
MIGNON
NAVY

For Dressing
Saucers and Bath-robes.

98c Yard

On Sale in the Dress Goods Section—Street Floor

Women's and Misses' Dresses

BRILLIANT NEW STYLES EXPRESSIVE OF ALL THAT IS BEST OF THE SEASON'S MODES—

—Four Great Price Groupings—

$29.50 $39.50 $49.50 $69.50

Tremendous preparations have been made to offer the largest assortment and widest variety of dresses possible. And never before have we presented a group of dresses which represent better values than these. Whatever your need for a new frock you can meet it here—at a very moderate price.

The Bon Marche is noted for its vast assortments of charming frocks, and for the originality and distinction of the dresses themselves. Every frock is up-to-the-minute in style, because our buyer spends his time searching for the newest and smartest garments obtainable. Remember, early shoppers will have first choice!

Every Type of Dress Is Here — Frocks for Street,
Sports, Afternoon, Evening

Materials include Satins, Canton Crepes, Satin Crepes, Georgettes, Chiffons, Velvets, Charmees, Twills and Jerseys. All the season's newest colors—as well as black, brown and navy.

Sizes for women, 34 to 44

Sizes for misses, 14 to 20

THE HOUSEWARES DEPT. OFFERS—

ROASTERS

ALL KINDS

ALL SIZES

LINK ROASTERS

Universal Aluminum Blue mottled, double style, self-basting, with inside tray.

No. 1 size ..... $2.75

No. 2 size ..... $2.98

No. 3 size ..... $3.49

No. 4 size ..... $3.75

No. 5 size ..... $4.98

MODEL ROASTERS

A new oval roaster, attractive brown enamel outside—pale white inside; will take 10-pound turkey. Price $3.45

POLAR ROASTERS

Extra large size, white enamel inside and out, triple coated. Price $4.98

ROASTERS

Made of hard, thick metal, all rounded edges and corners. Inside Rack in all sizes.

Small size, each $4.90

Medium size, each $5.98

Large size, each $6.45

WEST BEND ROASTERS

Aluminum, of good weight, in several shapes and sizes.

Round shape, side handles, 10-in. size, $1.59

Large Round size, ventilator slide

With rack, $2.75

Without rack, $2.35

Oval shape, dome cover, 16-in. size, $4.40

Oblong shape, medium size, self-basting, inside rack, $5.50

OIL HEATERS

Perfection Heaters, small size ..... $6.00

Perfection Heaters, regular size ..... $6.98

Miller Heaters, brass tank ..... $7.50

The HOOVER

It BEATS... as It Sweeps as It Cleans

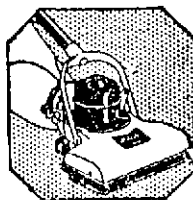

SPECIAL

PLAN

TERMS

$2.00 Down

Whole year to pay balance.

The Hoover cleans thoroughly and easily, without injuring the nap of the finest rugs made. The brush that sweeps the surface dirt, also beats the grit and grime from the fabric of the rug.

FREE HOME DEMONSTRATION Sale Authorized Dealers

The EASY Vacuum Electric WASHER

Save your strength.
Save your health.
Save your time.
Save your youth.
Save your money.
Save your clothes.
Save this advertisement.

Show it to your husband and tell him an "Easy" costs

Only $10 Down

Year to pay balance. Free trial in your home. Our telephone number is 8700.

"NONIK"
WATER GLASSES

$1.25 Per Dozen and Upwards

These glasses are specially made so they will not break so easily. We also carry Nonik Soda Fountain Glasses, various sizes and prices.

Enamelled Gold Goblets
Enamelled Gold Sherbets
Glassware of All Kinds
Glassware—Third Floor

PATRICK J. KIERCE,
DIED SUDDENLY

Patrick J. Kierce was found dead in his bed at 19 Court street, this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Deceased had been in poor health for some time, but his death was entirely unexpected. He had been a resident of Lowell for many years and for a long time was a laborer in the employ of the city. He is survived by his wife, Margaret Higgins Kierce; three daughters, Mrs. John Morrison and Mrs. John Kuhn of Manchester, N. H., and Anna Kierce; two sons, Patrick and Arthur, and a sister, Mrs. Katherine Leary. The body was taken to the funeral home of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

DEATHS

MURDOCK—Mrs. Mary Murdock, widow of David Murdock, died last evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John J. Dillon, 164 Grand street. She spent most of her days in Hartington and Winooski, Vt., coming here a few years ago to take up her home with her daughter, and while in this city had been an attendant of St. Patrick's church. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. John J. Dillon and Mrs. Jennie Janelli; one son, Daniel, the latter of Plymouth, Mass.; 10 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

MARQUIS—David Marquis died Saturday evening in Lowell, N. H., aged 42 years. He was a former resident of Lowell but returned to Marlow about eight years ago. He leaves his wife, Julia (Beauchamp) Marquis; one sister, Mrs. Ella Malloux of Braintree; one brother, Archibald Marquis of this city; also his granddaughters, Edith, three step-sisters, the Misses Aurora, Marie and Bernadette Pollock, and one step-brother, Denis Bellrose, all of this city. The body was brought to this city and taken to the home of his brother, Archibald Marquis, 22 Gardner avenue, by Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

MULLANE—Jeremiah Mullane, a resident of this city for a number of years, died Sunday morning at his home, 40 Linden street, after an illness of less than a week. Mr. Mullane was a valued employee of the banks and buildings department of this city for the past 25 years and was much esteemed by his fellow workers. He was a prominent member of the Malheur Temperance society and an active worker in all its undertakings. He also was a member of the Holy Name society, of St. Joseph's church, and of the Holy Family society. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Mullane, and one brother, Timothy Mullane, survive him.

DOUGHERTY—Herbert Dougherty died Saturday at the home of his father, 22 Twelfth street, after an illness covering several weeks. He was born in this city and in recent years had made his home in Lowell. He is survived by his father, John T. Dougherty of Lowell; his wife and two sons; six brothers, William of Los Angeles, Dr. John, Harry, George, John, and Clarence, of Lowell, and Frank of New York; and three sisters, Mrs. Josephine Gaulty and Mrs. Gertrude Poirer of Lowell, and Miss Alice Dougherty of Lowell.

DALEY—Mrs. Mary (Hallowood) Daley, a life-long resident of this city and a member of St. Peter's parish for over 40 years, died yesterday morning at St. John's hospital. She leaves one brother, Patrick Hallowood of this city, and several nieces and nephews. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

GAUDETTE—Marie Gaudette, infant daughter of Joseph and Ernestine (Gagnon) Gaudette, died yesterday morning at the home of her parents, Springfield street, North Chelmsford, aged 1 day.

NEALITE—Marie Irene Neallite died at the isolation hospital at the age of 2 years and 8 months. The body was removed to the rooms of Napoleon Blodgett & Son.

NIXON—Died Oct. 28, at Belle Grove, Prouty, Herman L. Nixon, aged 43 years, 1 month and 6 days, at his home, Lawrence boulevard. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edna Nixon; two sons, Levi C. and Charles H. Nixon; his father, Samuel Nixon; two brothers, Arthur and one brother, William Nixon. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers George W. Healey, 236 Westford street.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy in the recent bereavement of our daughter and only daughter, MR. AND MRS. JOHN BRITTON and Family.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness during the illness of our daughter and sister, and for the beautiful floral tributes and expressions of sympathy in our bereavement. MR. AND MRS. E. A. ROBBY and Family.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, desire to express our sincere thanks to our many friends, neighbors and relatives for the acts of kindness and sympathy and spiritual and floral offerings at the time of the death of our dear husband and father. We deeply appreciate their kindly efforts and will ever hold them in loving and grateful remembrance. MICHAEL FAMILY.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to thank all who were so kind as to help lift the burden of sorrow by their kind acts and floral tributes at the recent death of our beloved husband and father, Patrick J. Kierce. MRS. ANNIE REGAN and Family.

CONDITION IMPROVED
The condition of Mrs. Clara Morse of Chelmsford Centre, who was injured in an automobile accident at Golden Cove road Friday night, is reported today at the Lowell General hospital to be a little improved.

The Lowell Memorial Auditorium has a seating capacity of 4000. Imagine the Auditorium filled to capacity twenty times and you will get some idea of the number of people who read The Sun daily, and 70 per cent of the 80,000 readers of The Sun take no other Lowell newspaper.

James F. O'Donnell & Sons
Undertakers
324 Market St. Tel. 439-W

FUNERALS

HAINES—Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie A. Haines were held at her late home, 80 Moore street, yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Charles E. Fisher, D. D., pastor of the First Universalist church. Appropriate selections were sung by Mrs. Fred L. Roberts. There were many beautiful floral offerings, reflecting not only the esteem in which Mrs. Haines was held by a wide circle of friends, but also the knowledge they had of her lifelong love of flowers. Her grave on the grounds surrounding her home was one of the most extensive and most varied among private floral collections in the state and contained beautiful and unusual specimens of plants and floral life. For years she had been a student and cultivator of flowers and she generously shared with her friends and acquaintances. A woman of staunch loyalty to her friends, of a kindly disposition and admirable character, she will be deeply missed in those circles in which she was known. At the services yesterday the house was filled to overflowing with relatives and friends. The bearers were Rev. Charles E. Fisher, H. Stung Redman, William T. McKen, Albert E. Moors, Albert E. Lunan and John T. Stewart. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Undertaker George W. Healey had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ROBBY—The funeral of Mary Jennie Robby, daughter of Fred A. and Madeleine (Achni) Robby, took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her parents, 246 Colonial avenue. A Mass was read in St. Jeanne d'Arc church by Rev. Leon Lamothe, O.M.I. The bearers were Messrs. George Laurin, Victor Tremblay, Raymond Bouchard, Roland Contu. The Children of Mary Robby were represented by the Misses Cecile Ayotte, Eva Matte, Edna Matte, Cecile Lavoie, Jeanne Matte, Jeanne Marion, Lillian Lacombe and Mary Sawyer. There was an exceedingly large number of floral tributes from many friends and neighbors. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

TRULL—The funeral of Mrs. Clara Trull took place from her home at North Tewksbury, Saturday, when services were conducted by Rev. George E. Camp, pastor of the North Tewksbury Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Harry D. Thayer, pastor of the First Congregational church of Lowell. There were many beautiful flowers. Appropriate selections were sung by the bearers, Messrs. J. Trull and J. Chester Trull. Burial was in the Tewksbury cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. George E. Camp. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director John A. Weinbach.

CHASSO—Private funeral services were held Saturday afternoon for Ezra A. Chasse at his home, 19 Highland street. The services were conducted by Rev. Richard Peters, pastor of the Highland Congregational church. The bearers were Messrs. J. Chasse and J. Chasse. Burial was in the family lot in Westlawn cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

DOUGHERTY—The funeral of Charles E. Dougherty, Jr., took place yesterday afternoon from the home of his father, 217 Appleton street. Services were conducted at the family lot in the Edison cemetery by Rev. Alfred H. Blair, pastor of the Lowell Primitive Methodist church. There were many floral tributes. The bearers were Messrs. J. Dougherty and J. Dougherty. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

MARQUIS—The funeral of David Marquis who died in Marlow, N. H., last Saturday, took place this morning from the home of his brother, Archibald Marquis, 22 Gardner avenue. Solemn high funeral mass was celebrated in St. Jeanne d'Arc church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Leon Lamothe, O.M.I., assisted by Rev. Charles Denzit, O.M.I., as deacon and Rev. Aurelien Merrill, O.M.I., as cantor. The choir under the direction of Arthur H. Givens sang Poullet's mass. The soloists of the mass were Mrs. Antoinette Boudreau, Miss Margaret L. Zennon, Morrisette and Arthur H. Givens. At the offertory Mrs. Antoinette Boudreau sang "Pie Jesu" and at the elevation Mrs. Stella Lavoie sang "Memento Passionis." As the body was taken from the church the choir sang "De Profundis." Miss Antoinette Dion was the organist. The bearers were Messrs. Archibald Marquis, Joseph Dufour, Adolphe Bellerose, Victor Beauchamp and Arthur H. Givens. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Rev. Charles Denzit, O.M.I., read the committal prayers. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

DAILEY—The funeral of the late John J. Dailey took place this morning at 8 o'clock from his late home, 159 Chapel street, and was largely attended. The body was taken to St. Peter's church where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. John Manion. The choir sang the requiem mass. The soloists were sustained by Miss Mary Ryan and Mrs. James E. Donnelly. Miss Gertrude Quigley presided at the organ. There were many large and beautiful tributes and numerous floral offerings. A large number of friends and many of the older members of the parish were present. The bearers were Messrs. William McDermott and Charles Murray. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery where the final prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Manion. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

MICHAUD—The funeral of Joseph J. Michaud took place this morning at 8 o'clock from his late home, 15 South street. Solemn high funeral mass was celebrated in Notre Dame de Lourdes church at 8 o'clock by Rev. Joseph Denis, O.M.I., assisted by Rev. Charles Denzit, O.M.I., as deacon and Rev. Aurelien Merrill, O.M.I., as cantor. The choir under the direction of Arthur H. Givens sang Poullet's mass. The soloists of the mass were Mrs. Antoinette Boudreau, Miss Margaret L. Zennon, Morrisette and Arthur H. Givens. At the offertory Mrs. Antoinette Boudreau sang "Pie Jesu" and at the elevation Mrs. Stella Lavoie sang "Memento Passionis." As the body was taken from the church the choir sang "De Profundis." Miss Antoinette Dion was the organist. The bearers were Messrs. Archibald Marquis, Joseph Dufour, Adolphe Bellerose, Victor Beauchamp and Arthur H. Givens. Burial was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Rev. Charles Denzit, O.M.I., read the committal prayers. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Joseph Albert.

NIXON—Died Oct. 28, at Belle Grove, Prouty, Herman L. Nixon, aged 43 years, 1 month and 6 days, at his home, Lawrence boulevard. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edna Nixon; two sons, Levi C. and Charles H. Nixon; his father, Samuel Nixon; two brothers, Arthur and one brother, William Nixon. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers George W. Healey, 236 Westford street.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy in the recent bereavement of our daughter and only daughter, MR. AND MRS. JOHN BRITTON and Family.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness during the illness of our daughter and sister, and for the beautiful floral tributes and expressions of sympathy in our bereavement. MR. AND MRS. E. A. ROBBY and Family.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, desire to express our sincere thanks to our many friends, neighbors and relatives for the acts of kindness and sympathy and spiritual and floral offerings at the time of the death of our dear husband and father. We deeply appreciate their kindly efforts and will ever hold them in loving and grateful remembrance. MICHAEL FAMILY.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, wish to thank all who were so kind as to help lift the burden of sorrow by their kind acts and floral tributes at the recent death of our beloved husband and father, Patrick J. Kierce. MRS. ANNIE REGAN and Family.

CONDITION IMPROVED
The condition of Mrs. Clara Morse of Chelmsford Centre, who was injured in an automobile accident at Golden Cove road Friday night, is reported today at the Lowell General hospital to be a little improved.

The Lowell Memorial Auditorium has a seating capacity of 4000. Imagine the Auditorium filled to capacity twenty times and you will get some idea of the number of people who read The Sun daily, and 70 per cent of the 80,000 readers of The Sun take no other Lowell newspaper.

James F. O'Donnell & Sons
Undertakers
324 Market St. Tel. 439-W

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Three Boy Burglars Caught in Act

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Three boy burglars—seven, eight and nine years old—greeted Mrs. Theresa Calmer when she returned to her upper West Side home early today. The youngsters entered through a window after a three-story climb up a fire escape. Mrs. Calmer came upon them under a bed, where they had fled at her entrance. She summoned the police, who said they found $200 worth of Mrs. Calmer's property on their persons. The three were turned over to their parents.

Nine Lone Survivors

(Continued)

of 220 men in the line that night the 3rd lost 92 in killed and wounded, including their leader, Colonel Underwood.

The 11th and 12th Corps, afterwards consolidated into the 20th Corps, had been detached from the Army of the Potomac and sent across country to relieve Rosecrans, whose army was starving to death in Chattanooga. At Vauhatchie stiff Confederate resistance was met, but the union troops pushed on and communication was established with Rosecrans.

Members of the families and some friends of the nine veterans who gathered in reunion this noon met with them and Mayor John J. Donovan was a guest of the association and one of the after-dinner speakers.

After the dinner, served by the Page Catering company, the association elected its officers for the ensuing year, choosing Conrad H. A. Dixon of Fitchburg, president; Conrad William Jubb of Shirley, vice president; and Conrad Dudley L. Page of Lowell, secretary. The past year saw five comrades taken away, Ernest Bartlett, W. T. S. Bartlett, James Baxter, Thaddeus C. Baker and Rev. James Little of Bethel, Me.

FUNERAL NOTICES

SWIFT—Died in this city, Oct. 27, at his home, 12 Ross avenue, John Swift. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock from his home, 12 Ross avenue. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

DAILEY—Died at St. John's hospital, Oct. 28, Mrs. Mary (Hallowood) Daley. Funeral Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. James E. Donnelly, 159 Chapel street. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

DONOHUE—Died Oct. 27 at his home, 22 Twelfth street, Herbert J. Donohue. Funeral Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from his home, 22 Twelfth street. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery. Funeral arrangements in charge of Undertakers Higgins Bros.

MURDOCK—Died Oct. 28 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John J. Dillon, 164 Grand street, Mrs. Mary (Duffy) Murdock, widow of David Murdock. Funeral Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem high mass at St. Peter's church at 9:45 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

NIXON—Died Oct. 28, at Belle Grove, Prouty, Herman L. Nixon, aged 43 years, 1 month and 6 days, at his home, Lawrence boulevard. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edna Nixon; two sons, Levi C. and Charles H. Nixon; his father, Samuel Nixon; two brothers, Arthur and one brother, William Nixon. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers George W. Healey, 236 Westford street.

MULLANE—Died in this city Oct. 28, Jeremiah Mullane, at his home, 40 Linden street. Funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from his late home, 40 Linden street. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 9 o'clock. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery. The arrangements are in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

KIERCE—Died in this city Oct. 29th, Patrick J. Kierce, at 19 Court street. Funeral will take place on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from 14 Highland street. High mass of requiem will be sung at St. Peter's church at 10:30 o'clock. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery, in charge of Undertakers M. H. McDonough Sons.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFER
Papers have been passed within the past few days transferring title of the property numbered 22-46 Waugh street, from A. Leshinsky of Chelmsford street, to Thomas Metcalf of 57 Marshall street. The property involved in the transfer consists of four two-story houses and 2,820 square feet of land. The purchase price was in the vicinity of $20,000.

Cabinet of Saxony is Dismissed

LONDON, Oct. 29.—A note from the government of the Reich dismissing the cabinet of Saxony from office, was handed to the cabinet today, and the members of the ministry submitted to the dismissal, says a Central News despatch from Berlin.

Reservations May Prevent Conference

Continued
subjects; she is rendering the collection of reparations daily more hopeless and is planting a passionate desire for revenge in the German mind.

"The Times questions whether America will share in the inquiry under the conditions prescribed by Premier Poincare.

"The Daily News and the Westminster Gazette cannot see that the situation has been altered by Premier Poincare's statement Sunday at Sampigny and urge that if his decision is final Great Britain should ask the United States to come into a conference of which France is not a member.

The Morning Post asks how France can be expected to understand the policy which it professes respect for the treaty at Versailles but at the same time seeks at the machinery provided for a settlement of the reparations' obligation.

"If all the allies were as resolute as Premier Poincare, or as determined as the United States in getting money back, Germany would soon be brought to reason," says this newspaper.

No Further Concessions
PARIS, Oct. 28.—France will not agree to any reduction of the German reparations debt by a committee of experts, nor will she consent to any plan under which the reparations commission would surrender the prerogatives conferred on it by the Versailles treaty.

Emphasizing these points in a speech at Sampigny and in the communication sent to London in reply to the British proposal for a commission to determine Germany's capacity to pay, Premier Poincare yesterday gave notice that although France welcomed American representation on such a committee, she must insist that it act only in conformity with the peace treaty, thus virtually making the commission an adjunct to the reparations commission's staff of experts.

In his note to London, Premier Poincare made an extensive interpretation of the treaty text as it applies to the functions of the commission, concluding that inasmuch as that body could "extend the periods and modify the methods" of reparations payments, but could make no reductions, the proposed committee of experts must have no such authority.

Another point in his speech the premier declared, "We cannot accept that the commission be dispossessed of its functions or be replaced by an organism in which our share of influence, already inferior to our interests, would be still further reduced. We have reached the limit of our concessions. We shall not go further."

France only asks that her allies as well as herself observe the treaty, M. Poincare asserted.

"The schedule of May 5, 1921," he said, "is definite and it cannot be modified without our consent. The treaty has been drawn up on the basis of unanimity and without unanimity the part of the creditors and France is too much tried to adhere to a reduction."

Two visits have been made during the past week to the officers of the Lowell Radio club, which carried a great interest to those who are devotees of this particular line of entertainment.

The first visitor to come to Lowell was Mr. Oscar Hickey, manager of the 2nd radio district, with headquarters in Bethlehem, Pa. Mr. Hickey, who is touring the country by auto, stops in all the large cities to visit the radio fans.

In his visit to Lowell he met with many who may carry on communication inside a limited radius with the stations he passes along his route.

He is a representative of the American Radio Relay league and his next stop will be Hartford, Conn., at which place the headquarters of this organization is located, and then to New York, which he is keeping faithfully, will be published in the QST, the official organ of the amateur radio operators.

He visited I.R.K. operated by William Atherton, and I.L.T. operated by Everett Taylor, while in the city. Both of these stations have worked Mr. Hickey in his own station at 38NU.

The other visitor was Mr. Stevens of Manchester, N. H., who from his station, 13IC, has worked 44 out of the 45 states in the union, and only a few days ago succeeded in working Lower California.

A few days ago, Everett Taylor, president of the local radio club, succeeded in working Indianapolis, Indiana.

EXPERT BROADCASTERS VISIT LOCAL FANS

Three Boy Burglars Caught in Act

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Three boy burglars—seven, eight and nine years old—greeted Mrs. Theresa Calmer when she returned to her upper West Side home early today. The youngsters entered through a window after a three-story climb up a fire escape. Mrs. Calmer came upon them under a bed, where they had fled at her entrance. She summoned the police, who said they found $200 worth of Mrs. Calmer's property on their persons. The three were turned over to their parents.

CHALIFOUX'S FALL STYLE CARNIVAL

Special Values For Tuesday

Throughout this week, a FALL STYLE CARNIVAL SALE will be conducted. Watch the daily papers together with our Merrimack street windows for the specials to be offered each day.

SPORT COATS

We consider ourselves very fortunate in having secured these excellent values. The lot includes plain Polo cloth models as well as Plaid and Striped effects, with patch pockets and chin collars, sizes 16 to 42, of good fall length.

$9.75

Values up to $15.00

SECOND FLOOR

One Hundred Knife Pleated SKIRTS

Serviceable and economical values in navy, brown, grey and tan Granite cloth; values up to $3.95.

$2.47

SECOND FLOOR

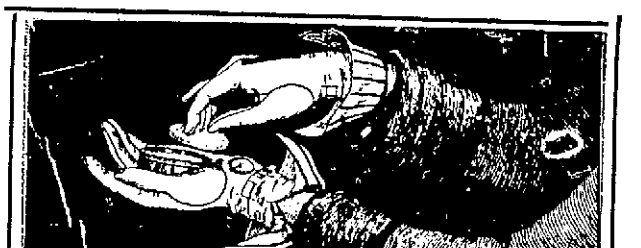

NOW COMES THE BIGGEST MILLINERY OFFERING OF THE SEASON

Velvet Hats

$3.95

Fashionable and becoming styles from the most exclusive designers; regularly $6.95.

SECOND FLOOR

Chamois Suede Gloves

Gauntlet style. The assortment includes grey, mode, beaver and beige, with fancy embroidered backs; regular price $1.20 ...

99c

DRESS FABRICS

Silk Duvetyn—Extra fine quality, perfect goods, full pieces, 20 of the latest colors, including black, navy, brown and gray. Special at Yard ..... $1.92

Storm Serge—50 inches wide, extra heavy quality, suitable for dresses, separate skirts, boys' blouses, girls' bloomers, etc.; colors: seal, brown, navy and jet black. Special at Yard ..... 95c

DOMESTICS

42x36 Pillow Cases, all perfect, made from good quality cotton; regularly 25c each ..... 23c

Extra Heavy Double Thread Turkish Towels, 22x44, pure bleached, unexcelled for the bath; regularly 50c each ..... 34c

HOSIERY

Silk Ingrain Full Fashioned Hosiery, with high spliced heels and hile garter tops. Black only. Regular value $1.75.

Special $1.35 at

FALL STYLE CARNIVAL SALE

Chalifoux's CORNER

SPECIAL VALUES EVERY DAY THIS WEEK

SUNDAY NIGHT CONCERT WAS BIG SUCCESS

A fine quality program marked the first of the series of popular Sunday concerts, presented at the Memorial Auditorium last night by John Quigley. A marvelous bill was enthusiastically received by a delighted audience. Andrew Mack, the Irish singing comedian now entering his sixtieth week at the Republic theatre in New York city in "Alma's Irish Rose," was given a cordial reception.

He was a different Andrew Mack than appeared years ago, yet folks who had never before heard him had no trouble in discovering the reason that his popularity clings to him, even after years of absence. Mr. Mack gave a few funny stories that brought roars of laughter from his audience and then put over some real Irish songs. "I want to marry Molly, Mrs. Callahan, She reminds me so much of you," "Pineapple Party," and the "Little Gray Mother" all were put across in the inimitable style that is only Mack's.

Lawrence B. O'Connor accompanied Mr. Mack but when Mack got heart and soul into the work he relieved his accompanist and took over the piano himself. Spontaneous and enthusiastic applause greeted the old performer at the end of every number. Mr. Mack took occasion to announce that his friend, John Steel, "the second McCormack," will follow him here and promised a remarkable program for next Sunday.

Bob Hart, Lowell's popular sporting man, who was one of the umpires in the recent world series in New York, put over a few baseball yarns that went like bombs. Bob found facing an audience in the big Auditorium a different proposition than cutting out the ball park but his adaptability lost no time in asserting itself. The laughter that greeted his first funny one put Bob at his ease and from then on it was easy sailing. A few of Bob's old fellow polo players turned up at the last minute to join his many friends in cheering him on.

Bob's stories were all good and his finale, telling of the real star that this daily in the Chicago White Sox ball park for Leo Constantineau made a fine climax that hit some. Baseball friends readily remembered "Connie," the southpaw twirler for the C.M.A.C. here that Bob put into the big league just before the war.

The thirty-piece concert band headed by Lieutenant John H. Lee, was the surprise of the evening. Those who attended expecting to hear mediocre talent soon were surprised and disillusioned. The band made an immediate hit with everyone, having tone, cadence and leadership undeniably of high quality. The program was a varied one that required correct interpretation and the musicians did well. Charles L. Ryder gave a piece of solo that was covered again and again. A popular medley, made up principally of snatches of the latest hits in

"The Rise of Rosie O'Reilly," went over big. Several Sousa marches were played well. A xylophone solo by Norman Moon was a pleasing feature. The band went over big and the announcement that it would be here again next Sunday in a change of program was greeted with delight.

Miss Josephine Elberry, mezzo soprano, kept the quality of the show up to its high level. "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses," "Kiss Me Again," and "Little Town in the Old Country Down" were sung most pleasingly. Miss Elberry is a woman of imposing appearance, gracious personality, and remarkably fine voice. The audience, as was the rule throughout the evening, was appreciative of her work and generous in its applause.

Miss Beatrice Phinney gave two harp selections with rare skill. She was a demure lady who knew her instrument well and played it perfectly. She also was pleasantly received.

The program ended with the "Star Spangled Banner" given by the band. The audience was well satisfied with what was truly a remarkable and well-balanced bill. In Lowell we have been accustomed to paying higher prices for entertainments of this standard and the popular prices are a new and pleasing departure.

SEE THE POINT!

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser?

OPENING OF THE PARKER LECTURE COURSE

Another season of Moses Greeley Parker course lectures and entertainments was inaugurated yesterday when the Sunday afternoon series opened at the Memorial Auditorium with Edgar Guest, best known among the modern poets, as the entertainer. A fine audience marked the opening.

The poems of Edgar Guest are widely read and enjoyed and carry a strong appeal because they are written of familiar human experience. Yesterday he told how he happened to turn his mind to a peculiar theme.

In no wise was Mr. Guest's talk a lecture. There was nothing of the cut and dried about it and from this or few lines of a familiar poem to show its origin. A number of his better known verses he gave in full, one or two being recited by request. Many of his poems have been written or inspired by his wife and boy, Buddy, and all are intensely human and rich in everyday experiences as found in the American home.

A poem written about Buddy, for instance, was made out of the language he heard his boy use in describing to other boys a lecture he had just received from his father which described an ideal "good boy."

After reciting what that ideal good boy used to do, Buddy finished his remarks with, "And that good boy married my ma, and today he is my dad."

No poem recited carried a greater appeal than the one showing the fine distinction between home and home and which says in its closing stanza: "It takes a heap of livin' in a house to make it home."

Others almost equally well liked were recited either in part or in whole and the audience thoroughly enjoyed Mr. Guest and the conversational manner in which he chose to present his entertainment, not lecture, for he abhors the word.

OVER $7000 FOR

THE Y. W. C. A. FUND

With over $7000 already subscribed, the Y.W.C.A. campaign fund workers, dashed with the success which met their efforts throughout last week, will continue the drive until Tuesday night.

Miss Helen Barnes presided at an enthusiastic dinner in Kison hall Saturday night at which reports of team captains were received. Mrs. George F. Sturtevant was the speaker of the evening. The team captained by Mrs. Chas. Upton was high of those reporting for the day, a total of $261 for the day being reported.

SALES PROBLEMS

TO BE DISCUSSED

John J. Morgan of Boston is to be in-

GRANT IS MAYOR OF RED TRIANGLE VILLAGE

Archibald D. Grant is mayor-elect of Red Triangle village, the "municipality" made up of residents of the Y.M.C.A. dormitories. He won by a scant three votes in the elections held Friday and Saturday. Percy A. Douglas, who was uncontested, was re-elected clerk. Councilmen elected were Wayne Peterson, ward 1; Robert M. Trask, ward 2; Clarence Gammache, ward 3; Charles Mason, ward 4.

structor in the ten-lesson course in Sales Problems to be conducted in the conference room of the Lowell Electric Light company, commencing next Friday evening.

This course is intended particularly for salesmen or men planning to enter the salesmanship field. It will be found valuable also to advertising solicitors and store executives. W. J. Rensy, phone 3543-W, is attending to enrollments which will open with the first lesson.

IN ATHLETICS AT WELLESLEY COLLEGE

Miss Doris Wilson of this city is among the New England girls who are prominent in athletics at Wellesley college, as she is a member of the tennis team and also the volley ball team. Miss Wilson is a member of the class of '26. Another Lowell girl, Miss Barbara Estes, of the class of '26, is a member of the archery team. These two girls are among those who are now in training for the annual field day at Wellesley.

PREACHED FAREWELL SERMON

Yesterday afternoon, Rev. Arthur G. Lyon preached his farewell sermon at the Collingville mission, taking as his subject, "Who are Christ's Jewels?" In the Bible school later, the children of the primary department marched up in single file to shake Rev. Mr. Lyon's hand and one of them presented him an envelope of pennies. He gave one penny to each member of the senior class and with a little talk on thrift told them he would give a prize to the one who put this penny to the best use. Miss Hutchison, Mr. Devenney and Ernest Wiggin will be the judges of the contest.

The Lowell Memorial Auditorium has a seating capacity of 4000. Imagine the Auditorium filled to capacity twenty times and you will get some idea of the number of people who read The Sun daily, and 50 per cent of the 80,000 readers of The Sun take no other Lowell newspaper.

Harry Willis is the last of the black heavyweights. Or rather he will be when Dempsey smacks him.

Art Fletcher is going to lead the Phillies again. Just how far and in what direction is not stated.

HELP THE BOY SCOUTS—YOU'LL HELP YOUR CITY FOR THE FUTURE

Cherry & Webb Co

Be Prompt for Your Share of the Most Wonderful
Bargains Ever!

Cherry & Webb Co

Set the Alarm Clock—
Be Down Early!

ONE DAY ONLY—TUESDAY—TOMORROW—

A Store-Wide Bargain Festival ----- Surpassing All Former Selling Events!

DRESSES and COATS

TUESDAY
ONLY
AT

$24

and JACQUETTES

Regularly Selling Up to
$35. Tuesday at $24.

Velours, Bolivias, Smart Plaids and Astrachans.
Plain and Fur Trimmed.
Also Fur Trimmed Brytonia Capes.

This one day selling should, and undoubtedly will create an unusual sensation among Lowell's smart people. You had better plan to come early, for these are most extraordinary bargains, at this one-price-one-day sale.

All Our Regular $29.75
Dresses Included in this
Huge Special Tuesday
Grouping at—

Poirer Twill Dresses
Wool Jersey Dresses
Canton Crepe Dresses
Chiffon Velvet Dresses
Satin Canton Dresses
Velour Knit Dresses

A charming collection of the better grade dresses, especially Underpinned for C. & W. Day—Smart, longline effects, smart skirt models, were around and over styles, in navy, black, brown, as well as the high-colored silk models. Frocks for semi-formal and general utility wear—don't miss seeing them.

Brand New

Sports Skirts

Chapel's hair color wrap-around, in light and dark shades; also pleated wool crepes in grey and navy shades. Super values at

—Basement Shop—

Silk Jersey Bloomers

The wanted shades, black, navy, brown and grey. A special selling C. & W. Day at

Jersey, Radianette and Tricolette
Petticoats

Fine Silk Petticoats, in high colors or the more subdued shades. Wonder values

$2.98

Big News! for C. & W. Day—
Just In! Another Shipment of

Dandy New Sport

Coats

To put right on now.
Splendid Overplaids and Mixtures. Spectacular val-

$10

New Overblouses

New Crepe de Chines, Cotton Cantons and Novelty Materials in the wanted shades. Rust, Fallow, Brown and Navy. Special

$3.95

Dainty White Waists

Fine Dimities, Voiles and Batistes, in the newest designs. Regular $2.08 values for C. & W. Day at

$1.00

Manufacturer Sends Us 300 More of Those Wonder Dresses at $10

A. G. Pollard Co.

The Store for Thrifty People

Infants' and Children's Section

The children must be kept warm and healthy.

One way is to keep them well fed.

Another is to clothe them properly.

You do the first—we'll do the other.

FEDDY BEAR SUITS—1-piece brushed wool suits, including sweater, leggings, mittens and cap. Colors are buff, grey, blue, cardinal, heather and white, sizes 1½ years to 4 ..... $5.50 to $7.50

LITTLE BOYS' SUITS—Many cute styles in all wool mixtures and jersey, sizes to fit boys 2 to 7 years old $3.50 to $6.50

LITTLE GIRLS' DRESSES of wool crepe and velvet, some have bloomers, some haven't, pretty styles, colors are henna, jade, buff, tan and green, sizes 2 to 7 years, $5 to $12.50

BEACON BLANKETS—When the children are all snuggled up in one of these blankets, no cold is going to touch them. In a large assortment of patterns, including lining and Indian patterns. Either cotton or wool, whichever you choose, 98c to $7.50

BABY BUNTINGS—What baby could be without one of these? They are the easiest things, when they are out for an airing. Made of heavy eiderdown with hood attached, in pink and blue with satin ribbon, trimming, $2.98 to $7.50

KNITTED LEGGINGS—You all know how practical they are to the children, in white only, with or without feet, 98c to $1.98

Third Floor

ART LINENS
For Embroidery Purposes

Embroidery—at once one thinks of the pretty articles turned out by fabric, needle and thread. Do you do any of this kind of work? If so, here's a few prices on linen fabric that are lower than elsewhere.

WHITE LINENS

18 inches wide	$1.05 Yard
20 inches wide	98c, $1.09 Yard
22 inches wide	98c, $1.10 Yard
36 inches wide	98c to $2.59 Yard
45 inches wide	$1.79, $1.89 Yard
54 inches wide	$1.49, $2.50 Yard
72 inches wide	$2.25 Yard
90 inches wide	$4.19 Yard

ECRU AND BROWN LINEN

18 inches wide	45c to 69c Yard
20 inches wide	50c to 79c Yard
22 inches wide	65c Yard
31 inches wide	69c Yard
36 inches wide	89c to $1.19 Yard
45 inches wide	$1.09 Yard
54 inches wide	$1.75 Yard

Palmer Street Store

SPECIAL
SISTER SUSIE
HAIR NETS

3 for 24c

As there are no better hair nets obtainable, we advise you to stock up at this attractive price.

SISTER SUSIE
HAIR NETS

are hand made and carefully examined, guaranteed perfect. Cap or fringe shape.

Single or double mesh.

Hair Goods Section
Street FloorCARTER'S KNIT UNDERWEAR!
PLEASE

More Than a Million Women Have Chosen This Underwear

If a million well-dressed women agreed that they had at last found some sensible, comfortable and fashionable winter underwear, wouldn't you be inclined to think it might be worth looking into? In fact, wouldn't you actually want to see it, and know why a million women had chosen it?

It is Carter's Knit Underwear—as modern as your latest frock, yet warm, snug and very comfortable. Every feature of the latest styles is provided for. Our expert designer studies the advance fashions in outer garments and for each one she has created just the right foundation in undergarments.

Every Carter garment is expertly cut. Each new style is tried on a living model. Whatever position the model naturally takes, the garment is adjusted to fit with ease and smoothness, exactly as a dress is tried on and fitted. The result is a garment that is known for its superior fit.

Women's Medium Weight Cotton Union Suits, Dutch neck, elbow sleeve, knee and ankle, $1.50 and $1.75

Women's Medium Weight Cotton Union Suits, crew neck, sleeveless, knee and ankle, $1.50 and $1.75

Women's Silk and Wool Union Suits, Dutch neck, elbow sleeve, ankle, $3.75 and $4.25

Women's Silk and Wool Union Suits, low neck, sleeveless, knee and ankle, $3.00 and $3.50

Street Floor

INFANTS' AND CHILDREN'S

INFANTS' VESTS, in cotton, cotton and wool, also silk and wool, 50c to $1.20

INFANTS' BANDS, in cotton, cotton and wool, also silk and wool, 45c to 89c

GIRLS' UNION SUITS, in cotton, also silk and wool, $1.19 to $2.50

ADULTS' BANDS, all wool, 90c

Third Floor

BOYS' AND GIRLS'

BOYS' SUITS, cotton and wool, high neck, long sleeve, ankle length, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

CHILDREN'S SILK AND WOOL SUITS, high neck, long sleeve, ankle length, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00

CHILDREN'S SILK AND WOOL VESTS AND PANTS, Dutch neck, elbow sleeve, ankle length pants, $1.25 to $1.50

Street Floor

MEN'S UNDERWEAR

MEDIUM WEIGHT BALBRIGGAN UNION SUITS—Fine combed yarn, tailored Carter way, insuring perfect fit; long sleeves, short sleeves, regular or stout lengths, at $2.50

WOOL AND COTTON UNION SUITS—A medium weight garment with the right combination of yarn for wear and warmth, at $3.50

HEAVY WOOL AND COTTON RIBBED UNION SUITS—Heavy but not cumbersome, at $3.50

MEDIUM AND HEAVY—Made of fine wool stock combined with best cotton yarn, a leader for warmth and service, all styles, at $5.00

Street Floor

CORPORATION HOUSE EMERGING
FROM OBSCURITY, AWAKENS
MEMORIES OF YESTERYEAR

Builders Uncover Old Structure Long Hidden Behind Middlesex Street Business Fronts—Yardmaster at Hamilton Mill Recalls Old Place Was Once His Home Here

Hundreds of Middlesex pedestrians and car commuters hurrying to and fro about their daily duties on that cosmopolitan old-time thoroughfare that runs from Tower's corner to Goodness knows where, have been gazing curiously every day for the past week or more at a funny little house—or part of a house—that stands meekly just inside the new one-story store construction fronts now being rushed to completion part way down Middlesex street, on the right side, just below Tower's corner.

When the old buildings were torn down to make way for the new building chain of small stores erected under the supervision of Contractor Fredrick E. Meley, a small-sized all of one of the old-time Hamilton mill corporation houses was twisted around, moved "over a bit" and left just a few feet away from the new front of the modern construction, where it is being used by the workmen to temporarily house their fall overcoats, dinner-boxes, extra-plugs of Kentucky Wonder rubbers, tools, and what not.

Several More Unseen

The fact that this old corporation building stands in that locality, is not strange, for there are several more small houses of the 1835 construction hiding quietly "in back" of some of the

Old Fashioned Chimney

What catches the eye of the curious spectator the first thing is the old-fashioned chimney, towering some 16 or 20 feet over the little ancient corporation homestead, where hygienic weavers and spinners on the fat payrolls of the Hamilton mills used to live, have and pass out after long years of labor and long hours a day until "Ben" Butler took the leadership and got after the Hamilton. The employment situation in those olden days prevented many of the workers from securing desired necessities of life, yet failed to dampen their ardor in living up to standard, holding their jobs and thriving in the Spindlin City to the best of their inherent, sturdy ability.

The old corporation house, now on public view was erected along with many others in the Middlesex street section scores of years ago. The Hamilton mill dates back to the year 1825, nearly a century, and though the house that is peering out and almost smiling at the faces of hurrying pedestrians today on the historic Middlesex street thoroughfare is not 100 years old, it is "getting along" toward the century mark.

Agent A. D. Miliken smiled today when asked about the age of the tiny corporation cottage.

"I can't tell you off-hand, but you can find out quickly if you see our boss yardman—Mr. John Gregg," he said, showing the way.

Mr. Gregg, always on the job for years and years, always in splendid health, was found in his usual "office box" just inside the mill gates, with windows open for a mild day and watching the big yard area like the proverbial hawk.

Boss Gregg is a Hamilton standby. A good many years ago—never mind the actual year—there was "a little trouble" at the Hamilton corporation. Good watchmen were scarce as a pickered's teeth. John, a mechanic of the master brand, was looking for any strong work with a mission. He dropped in on one of the original Hamilton agents, now deceased. And he got the boss yardman's job in a twinkling, after the agent saw the color of John's ruddy face, stripped his muscular shoulders, arms and legs and realized that this man Gregg was a man unafraid of any trouble-making weavers or a hundred if they'd only come one at a time.

There wasn't any trouble at the Hamilton—at least anywhere around the working quarters of the mill rectangle (now known for yards) after John Gregg was in at 6 a.m. that morning and stood in the middle of the yard and looked things over with his cut off and sharp eyes that meant business.

Was a Cozy Home

But getting back to that little corporation house all spreading itself today down on Middlesex street, that was once John Gregg's parking place—his corporation "dread"—so The Sun learned today. And it was a cozy home way back yonder 20 or 25 years ago, so John says.

Nice little place—just right center for the family, and handy to take job—for all he had to do of a winter's morning was to grab a hot breakfast cooked in New England style by an excellent wife who had to get up early and then just simply meander regularly transformation trick—family man one minute, yard boss the next and full of action.

And so the little furnished, strongly built, nicely timbered—everything homestead, or at least the old part—stands today right out in the October rain and sunshine. And just across the way, looking out through the Hamilton mill gates, sits watchful, wise John Gregg, boss yardmaster, ripe of age and in good, sturdy health, who glances frequently through the big open No. 1 entrance gates and silently inspects what is left of the old-fashioned, cozy dwelling place of his early housekeeping days.

And presumably Boss Gregg, prince of gentility and kindness, reveals in his recollections and dream pictures that you and I shall never see.

Getting Too Fat?

Try This—Reduce

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already excessive, you will be well to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola's Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., 1612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. By doing this you will be safe from harmful drugs and able to reduce steadily and easily, without starvation diet or tiresome exercises.—Adv.

This Little World

CHICAGO

BY GEORGE BRITT

N.E.A. Service Writer

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—"It isn't by any means the worst picture here," say critics at the exhibition of the Chicago no-jury society of artists of a "fourth-dimensional" portrait by Bruce Grant.

Which makes the story all the better. Grant, a newspaper writer, and visiting a friend's studio when talk drifted to the coming exhibition. There was chaffing and scoffing. Grant seized a handful of brushes and corners of the canvas in the studio. For half an hour there was vigorous switching and splashing. The product is a gorgeous sunset of face and background, a rose sprouting at the ear of the subject and a green cabbage in his hand. As advanced art it is at least "fourth-dimensional," a new school as well as a new artist.

It may be merely "not the worst" as to technique. It is certainly at the top in that quality called "interesting." Not the least of the jokes in the making was the fixing of a solemn list price of $300 for it.

And it may be bought? Who knows?

Anyone with a picture and $1 could exhibit in the no-jury show. There was no jury or selection to exclude offerings which did not conform to styles or standards. Amateurs represented include a printer, a woman physician and several business men.

"The surprising feature is that so few pictures are really bad," says Charles Biesel, secretary of the no-jury artists.

A cubistic picture of a nude girl upset the temper of a teacher who had brought her pupils to the exhibition. The artist was a man.

"I never did like men," she announced without a redeeming trace of smile, "and after seeing this, I hate all of them."

Another visitor wanted to see the "natural pictures," those terrible ones, you know.

But Chicago isn't Montmartre, for all its colony of artists and the originality of their pictures. To help finance their venture, the no-jury artists have a costume ball. Nice party, with costumes not only picturesque but ample.

It was no more wild and abandoned than a Sunday school picnic. There was a great attendance at a subscription rate of $5.00.

But the artists gave away so many tickets they managed only to break even on expenses.

The busiest spot in the city hall is the scales in the entrance corridor. From morning until night there is a line of citizens waiting to see how much they weigh.

There are one-cent slot-machine scales in almost every drug store and "L" pictures, but city hall visitors get their official weight free.

SEE THE POINT?

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser?

A Boy Scout must "do a good turn" every day.
You can "do a good turn" today by contributing to their cause.

A. G. Pollard Co.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

The Great Underpriced Basement

—Special Prices On—

COMFORTER COVERING AND
COTTON BATTING

Comforter Covering

Bungalow and Westmoreland comforter covering in remnants, good patterns and colors, 36 inches wide, Only 19c Yard

Silkolene in remnants, good quality, large assortment of patterns and colors, 36 inches wide. Only 19c Yard

Mull for puff covering, neat patterns and colorings, 40 inches wide. Regular 39c value. Only 25c Yard

Cretonne, medium weight, light and dark colorings, in pretty patterns, 36 inches wide. Regular 39c value. Only 29c Yard

Mercerized Satene, new patterns and pretty color combinations for comforter and puff covering. Regular 59c value Only 39c Yard

DRY GOODS SECTION

Cotton Batting

Bleached Cotton Batting, 12-ounce package. Only 15c Each

Bleached Cotton Batting, 14-ounce package. Only 25c Each

16-ounce package of better quality cotton batting. Only 39c Each

Crown Jewel Cotton Batting, made of long staple cotton, 16-ounce roll Only 49c Each

STANDARD COTTON BATTING

2-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches 79c Each

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches $1.00 Each

MAYFLOWER COTTON BATTING

2-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches 89c Each

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches $1.29 Each

4-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches $1.69 Each

COSY STITCH COTTON BATTING

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches $1.39 Each

4-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches $1.69 Each

CORKER STITCH COTTON BATTING

3-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches $1.59 Each

4-lb. rolls, 72x90 inches $1.98 Each

THE FASHION GIRL AT THE OPERA HOUSE

One enthused dramatic critic who witnessed a presentation of "Tommy Martinelli's new comedy with songs, 'The Fashion Girl,' at the Opera House this week, alluded to it as having the 'legs of Gilda Gray, the shoulders of Kitty Gordon, the hands of Pavlova and the arms of Jessie Reed.' That's some composite figure, if any one should ask you. And that Tommy has that perfect figure and proposed to hold on to it, you might be made aware of it if you followed him on the street for a few minutes after he leaves the theatre and is on his way to his hotel. They say a woman cannot pass a millinery window without looking in and Tommy just cannot pass a well-known machine without stopping on, dropping in a cent and giving himself a spin. Sometimes a machine, which may be slightly out of order, reveals that Tommy has been taking on a pound or two and then action starts.

Tommy scrouges the town for other well-known machines and in one town when they all seemed to agree, he is in desperation, found his way to the old-fashioned soles of weights and measures and learned the real truth which was not as bad as the machine showed, but the increase was there. Straight away Tommy spent all the time he was not on the stage in exercise and returned next day to the sealer to prove that he had lost that excess poundage. Matinees are being given every day.

BEKEITH'S VAUDEVILLE

This Week, at 2 and 8, Tel. 28

The Hit of the Season!
LLOYD IBACH'S ORCHESTRA
In "STEPS and TUNES"

MARGIE COATE
Queen of Syncopation

SIMPSON & DEAN
Present "CHOP STEW"

MAXFIELD & GOLSON
The Modern Romeo and Juliet

ESMOND & GRANT
Just Two Kids

Marguerite & Alvarez
Aerial Entertainers

PATHE NEWS, TOPICS, FABLES

"DOLLAR DEVILS"
With Eva Novak and Cullen Landis

GET YOUR TICKETS EARLY

AUDITORIUM

SECOND GRAND

Popular Concert

NEXT SUNDAY, NOV. 4

Afternoon at 3—Evening at 8

Extraordinary Engagement

JOHN STEEL

The Celebrated American Tenor

You have heard his records, hear him in person

Assisted by

LIEUT. JOHN H. LEE'S

U. S. CONCERT BAND

30—PIECES—20

And Other Features

Popular Prices:

40c, 55c, 85c, $1.10

Tax Paid

Secure tickets now at Prince's (Banglow Shop) 130 Merrimack St.

FAMOUS FEMALE IMPERSONATOR

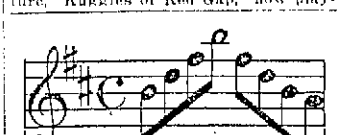

millinery window without looking in and Tommy just cannot pass a well-known machine without stopping on, dropping in a cent and giving himself a spin. Sometimes a machine, which may be slightly out of order, reveals that Tommy has been taking on a pound or two and then action starts.

Tommy scrouges the town for other well-known machines and in one town when they all seemed to agree, he is in desperation, found his way to the old-fashioned soles of weights and measures and learned the real truth which was not as bad as the machine showed, but the increase was there. Straight away Tommy spent all the time he was not on the stage in exercise and returned next day to the sealer to prove that he had lost that excess poundage. Matinees are being given every day.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

From saloonkeeper's daughter to the British aristocracy. This is a big stride gracefully accomplished by Lois Wilson, featured player in the Paramount picture, "Ruggles of Red Gap," now playing.

LEO F. REISMAN and His Orchestra

now at the Hotel Brunswick are the talk of Boston. Hear their Columbia Records—

"My Electric Girl"

"In a Tent"

"Tell Me a Story"

"Havana"

75c

Columbia

New Process RECORDS

Columbia Phonograph Company

"Guide Post to the Home of Good Entertainment"

ROYAL

Monday and Tuesday

WILLIAM RUSSELL

—IN—

"MAN'S SIZE"

—WITH—

"CRASHING COURAGE"

—WITH—

JACK LIVINGSTONE

COMEDY — OTHERS

Small Prices — Not Sed

THE STRAND

"Children of the Dust," the big Frank Borzage production, starring Johnny Walker and other film stars, tells a gripping story on the vital question of whether or not parents and particularly fond mothers, should make matches for their sons and daughters.

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

ing at the Merrimack Square theatre. Miss Wilson has the role of Kate Kenner, daughter of the proprietor of the Klondike bar, one of the show places of the little town of Red Gap. An English soul, in Red Gap for the purpose of rescuing his kinsman, the Hon. George Bunsenwell, from the clutches of a designing woman, himself falls victim to her charms. The situations leading up to their first meeting and the ensuing scenes are bits of the finest comedy ever screened. See this picture and be tickled. Edward Horton, Ernest Torrence, Fritz Rudolph, Charles Ogden and Louise Dresser are featured in the principal roles along with Miss Wilson.

The second feature for the first half of the week is "The Fair Cheat," an entertaining, daring picture of Broadway theatrical life, with Dorothy Mackaill, a famous Zenfield Holmes beauty, Edmund Bruce and Wilfred Lyttel in the leading roles. The usual excellent surrounding program is being shown.

THE RIALTO THEATRE

A real high class cinema program that consists of two big first run pictures opens a three-day run at the Rialto today. The attractions which will undoubtedly be a magnet for local theatregoers are "The Custard Cup," a new William Fox Special, starring Mary Carr, of "Over the Hill" fame, and "A Million in Jewels," a new story of the U. S. Secret Service with J. P. McGowan and Helen Holmes starting.

In "The Custard Cup," Mary Carr has the role of Mrs. Penfield, better known to her neighbors as "Henzie." Those who have read the book will welcome this opportunity to renew acquaintance with her and come within the warming influence of her optimistic philosophy of life and her kindness of spirit. In spite of her generous attitude toward others, "Henzie" does not escape the plotting of certain of her neighbors who are members of a gang of counterfeiters.

Not since Kate Douglas Wiggin wrote "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" has there been such a lovable character in fiction as the "Henzie" of "The Custard Cup," and played by Mary Carr, who portrays the part just as the author intended it, is bound to create for Mrs. Carr many new admirers. See her as the ruler of "Custard Court." You will love her, too. Miriam Battista, the child actress, who had such a prominent role in "Humoresque," has one of the leading roles in "The Custard Cup."

"A Million in Jewels" is an exciting story dealing with a band of smugglers who are trying to bring into this country the Russian crown jewels. Burke of the secret service, played by J. P. McGowan, is given the task of capturing the criminals, but he does not reckon that he has to deal with an extremely clever woman, Helen Morgan, played by Helen Holmes, who is the "brains" and the master mind of the smugglers.

A good comedy is also on the program. The features announced for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday are: Richard Talmadge in "The Speed King" and "Trifling With Honor," a baseball story with a big Universal-Jewel cast.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

This week's knockout feature at the B. F. Keith theatre will be Lloyd Ibach's entertainers, an organization of musicians which is rated as positively the best jazz group on the vaudeville stage. Allen Quirk, the dancing saxophonist, is with the band. Margie Coate, queen of syncopation, is another star-fire performer for the big bill, and Simpson & Dean will provide the comedy, "Chop Steewy." Mary Maxfield and Harry Golson, in comedy and music, under the label, The Modern Romeo and Juliet, and Eva Esmond and Pat Grant in "Just Two Kids" are the sort of performers who will please. The vaudeville portion will close with Marguerite & Alvarez, two daring aerialists. The week's picture feature will be "Dollar Devils," with Joseph Bowling, Cullen Landis and Eva Novak in big roles.

THE STRAND

"Children of the Dust," the big Frank Borzage production, starring Johnny Walker and other film stars, tells a gripping story on the vital question of whether or not parents and particularly fond mothers, should make matches for their sons and daughters.

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Irish folk lore and tender Irish romances are seen in "My Wild Irish Rose," shown at the Colonial today and tomorrow. "What's Your Reputation Worth?" and other fine productions will round out an extra fine bill for the two

THE COLONIAL THEATRE

Anna Pavlova to Appear Here

Anna Pavlova, recognized as the foremost living danseuse and adored the most graceful of living dancers, has returned to American shores after a most brilliant world tour, and a fortnight's engagement at Covent Garden, London. The Russian danseuse and her ballet Russe opened her American tour at the Manhattan Opera House, New York, on October 8th, after an absence of two seasons, presenting many new and complete ballets and divertissements and introducing several new supporting artists. In her metropolitan engagement Pavlova stated several unique and beautiful offerings, crowded and worked out by the star herself during her extensive Old World travels which took her and her choreographic family to Japan, India, Egypt. These far-off lands with their strange customs and peoples were generously drawn upon by the keen, artistic observation and comprehension of the Russian danseuse, and now American audiences are enjoying some novel and strikingly effective concepts adapted to Pavlova's own sublime and charming interpretative genius. Many of these special productions, costly scenic effects for all of which have been supplied for the present tour, apply the sternest measure to Pavlova's artistic abilities. Mme. Pavlova's programs this season, therefore, are widely divergent in character, it being announced that upon her transcontinental tour, which brings her incomparable organization to this city on November 7th, the dancer has retained in her repertoire the favorite and most popular offerings of past American visits. Pavlova's appearance in Lowell is under the direction of Albert Steiner, and seats for her performance may now be engaged at Steiner's music store.

VICTORY FOR TEXTILE FORM PLANS FOR ACTIVE WINTER SEASON

St. Michael's College Eleven

Swamped by Local Eleven

—Score 39 to 0

The St. Michael's college team of Vermont was no match for the Lowell Textile eleven Saturday, the visitors being walloped to the tune of 39 to 0. Six times the Textile team crossed their opponents' line, four of the touchdowns coming in the second half.

The only flash shown by the visitors came at the opening of the second half when they began an aerial attack. For a time the air-line play baffled the Textile defensive men, and the visitors made some good gains. But the Lowell players finally maneuvered and managed to stop this sort of attack.

Textile did not resort to open play to any great extent as in the first period, it was discovered that the visitors' line could be pried, and old-fashioned football was the rule. The forwards opened up big holes, and on the defense the Textile line held well. St. Michael's could not do much with the Textile line, and only in the third period, when seven out of 11 forward passes were completed, did they show any real form.

The scoring started early in the game, for on the first play after the kick-off Antolinis recovered a fumble and ran 33 yards for a touchdown. The second score came after a steady march up the field with McKinstrey taking the ball over. During this march towards the goal line McKinstrey featured with some nice skirting around the ends.

Captain Olson was powerful on the offense, and he gained considerable ground. He was unruly in picking holes in the line and on end runs he steadily advanced the ball towards his objective. In the closing minutes of play Carter also shone at quarterback and got away some nice forward passes, which figured in the final score of the game.

The summary:

TEXTILE	ST. MICHAEL'S
Antolinis, Woods	McAlpin, Legault
Heath	McAlpin, Legault
W. Smith	R. Rupprecht
Bentley, Musgrave, Carter	R. Benedict
R. Wood, Skinner	C. Moroney
Brookman	J. Eastwood
Goodwin, Brikham, Carter	G. Garvin
Frederickson, Ross	W. Gillman
Olson, Perkins	W. Papineau, Brown
McKinstrey	W. Killey
Score by periods	1 2 3 4 Tot
Lowell 7 S.	6 14 12 39

Touchdowns made by Olson 2, Carter, Antolinis, McKinstrey, Bentley. Point by goal after touchdown, made by Olson 2. Referee, Dr. M. J. Mahoney. Umpire, Fred Lane. Head linesman, Joe Duffy. Time, 10 and 12-minute periods.

Don't let baby be tortured by eczema

Teething rash, prickly heat, eczema, chafing, and other skin disorders to which babies are subject can be quickly subdued by Resinol. Apply this pure, soothing, healing ointment to the affected parts and note how soon baby's fretful crying stops as its cooling touch relieves the itching and burning.

Resinol Soap for baby's hair keeps it soft and silky. At all drugists.

Resinol

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Missing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

—Adv.

Thousands Throng Banks of River to Witness Cutter Race Feature of Lowell's Navy Day Events

THE START OF SATURDAY'S NAVAL DAY PARADE THROUGH CENTER OF THE CITY

Over 5000 persons watched the boat race on the Merrimack Saturday afternoon that was the outstanding feature of the Navy Day observance here. Two cutters sent up from the Charlestown Navy Yard, manned by Lowell men who served in the navy during the war, furnished plenty of excitement in a close race.

The race was for a mile downstream and the course was covered in nine minutes flat by the winning boat. The second boat was close until the end, a half-length of open water being the margin of victory. Roger Ward was coxswain of the winning boat. The oarsmen were Callahan, Robert Dalton, Edward Quinn, Michael Quinn, Henry Turcotte, Herbert Cox, Arthur Moran, Redding and Kennedy. E. J. Wood was coxswain of the losing cutter and his crew was composed of Guiguere, Belsanger, Drouin, Barba, Bolavert, Sullivan, Dubuque, Middleton, Rummy and DuPont.

The motion pictures of navy life shown at the Auditorium were well received and were quite interesting. However, B. Legault, temporary president of the newly formed Navy club, presided. Mayor Donovan spoke, but briefly extending the greetings of the city to the men of the navy and extolling the efficiency of our present day fighting force. He was warmly received.

Capt. William P. White, U.S.N., retired, drew a comparison of the navy and he was hit in the leg as he started to run.

The main feature of the day was the five-mile handicap. Four started in this race, Foley and Turcotte on scratch and Litterio and J. Byron Hull being awarded a ten-second handicap. Turcotte ran away with this race, completing the five miles in 5 minutes and 3 seconds, exceptionally good time for a flat track.

Foley came from behind on the last lap and passed Hull who appeared to be an easy second and won second money.

The summary and officials follows:

Half-mile, five trials, free-for-all: Jack Foley and Henry Turcotte, each 34.1-4 seconds.

Three-mile non-stop, cars: First, Foley; second, Litterio; third, Turcotte. Time, 3 minutes 34.3 seconds.

Four mile free-for-all: First, Turcotte; second, Foley; third, Tuttle. Time, 4 minutes 42 seconds.

Five-mile handicap: First, Turcotte; second, Foley; third, Hull. Time, 5 min. 3 seconds.

Three-mile consolation: Won by Frank Barlow. Time, 4 min. 3 sec.

Judges and timers: John Dempsey and John D. Daly. Starter: A. H. Means of New York. Scorer, Thomas Welch.

Navy Scuba diver was sent to his home yesterday from the Corporation hospital.

PRACTICE SESSION FOR BUTLER A. A.

The Butler A. A. football team will hold a practice session on the Carter street grounds at 7:30 o'clock tonight in preparation for the game on the Old Fair grounds next Sunday afternoon against the C.Y.M.A. of Lawrence. The Butlers will continue practice sessions all week and if successful next Sunday will go after the C.M.E. Cadets for a return game.

BUNTING CRICKET CLUB OFFICERS

James Smith was elected president of the U. S. Bunting Cricket club and Athletic association at a meeting held last Friday night. The other officers elected were as follows: Vice president, Sydney Fryer; corresponding secretary, Fred Chapman; financial secretary, Harry W. Short; treasurer, George Pansley; trustee, Arthur Crowther; director, Robert Fort, James Taylor, Ezekiel Mathewman and Arthur Capper.

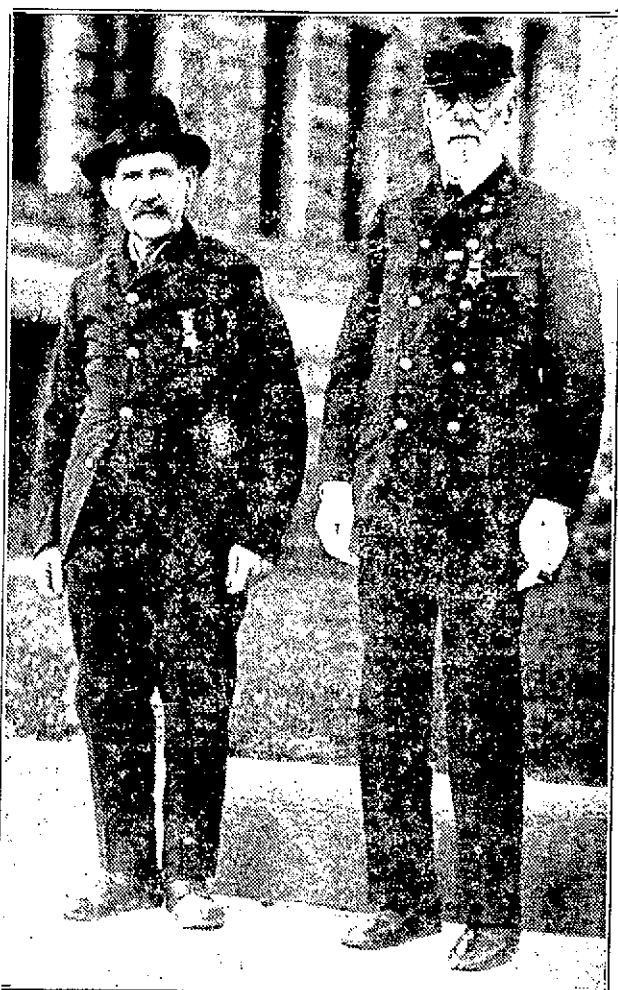

Mrs. Nellie Woodsford Speaks to Mothers

East Boston.—At 23 Lamson street, Mrs. Nellie Woodsford and her children now live happy and grateful to the kind neighbor who recommended Dr. True's Elixir to them. Mrs. Woodsford says: "My bowels were out of order and my breath was bad. I was shaky all over. I had terrible headaches and it seemed I had suffered years before your Dr. True's Elixir was brought to me. After a short time I was myself again my bowels were all right and I'm full of gratitude."

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

SYLPHO-NATHOL

Sailors of Civil War Days

Veterans of the days of "wooden ships and iron men." The shorter of these two veterans, who served under Farragut, is Thomas F. Crowley of 75 Liberty street. The other is Joseph A. Gannon of 76 Nineteenth street. Both saw real action and plenty of it during the Civil war days and are believed to be the only two surviving Civil war naval veterans residing in Lowell.

mon of 76 Nineteenth street, Mr. Crowley, who was discharged at the close of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

Under Dewey at Port Hudson. Mr. Gannon was discharged as a quartermaster. He too served under Farragut. He served during the Civil war aboard the New Hampshire, the Lenape, the Ohio, the Mississippi, the Kathadin and the mortar schooner T. A. Ward. He was aboard the Mississippi when she was blown up at Port Hudson and had charge of the boat of the Civil war, as a drummer, was under Farragut and served for a time on the ram "Tennessee."

He also served on the Ohio and was on the Philhellene when she was sunk in the Aegean Sea. From the Philhellene he was transferred to the Tennessee from which ship he was discharged at the close of the war.

BILLERICA HISTORICAL SOCIETY REUNION

A reunion of the Billerica Historical society was held Saturday in the Bennett public library of that town and was largely attended. One of the features of the reunion was the closing of a metal-lined copper-bound box to remain closed for one hundred years.

The box contains many articles of value historically. The box will be sealed this week and will be placed in the library for safe-keeping.

A luncheon at noon was held in the vestry of the First Unitarian church and was followed by exercises in the auditorium of the library. Edward P. Dickinson was in charge of the exercises and was one of the principal speakers. Among the other speakers were Mrs. Lucilla M. Bull, Dr. A. Warren Stearns, president of the society; Rev. William L. Walsh, Rev. J. Harold Dale, Rev. Chester J. Armstrong, and Sydney A. Bull, pastor of the church.

Hosmer, a veteran of the Civil war, and a descendant of one of the first families of Billerica, told the honor of placing the articles in the box.

The officers of the historical society are Dr. A. Warren Stearns, president; Edward P. Dickinson, vice president; Mrs. Clara Sexton, secretary; and T. Frank Lyons, treasurer.

East Boston.—At 23 Lamson street, Mrs. Nellie Woodsford and her children now live happy and grateful to the kind neighbor who recommended Dr. True's Elixir to them. Mrs. Woodsford says: "My bowels were out of order and my breath was bad. I was shaky all over. I had terrible headaches and it seemed I had suffered years before your Dr. True's Elixir was brought to me. After a short time I was myself again my bowels were all right and I'm full of gratitude."

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

Dr. True's Elixir, the True Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, has done wonders for children and grown-ups for over 70 years. Internationally known. Pleasant to take, mild in action. No harmful drugs. 40c—80c—$1.20.—Adv.

THE FINISH OF THE RACE BETWEEN NAVAL CUTTERS MANNED BY LOWELL VETERANS

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

THE MAJOR PUTS THE RUSH ON BUSTER'S NEW TROUSERS

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published here.

AMBASSADOR KELLOGG

Former Senator Kellogg of Minnesota has been nominated for ambassador to Great Britain to succeed Col. Harvey, retired. The choice is fairly good. Mr. Kellogg is an able lawyer who made his mark in the senate, but he was defeated last year by Mr. Shipstead, the farm-labor candidate. Magnus Johnson was elected later as the second senator from that state and the people seem to put great faith in his supposed ability to aid the farmers.

With this overturn of the republican party, President Coolidge takes up the defeated candidate and gives him a position of high honor. Will that help to retrieve the fallen fortunes of the republican party, or will it further incense the people who elected Shipstead and Johnson?

It will be remembered that Magnus Johnson visited the White House and had a long conference with the president. Whether Kellogg's appointment was arranged at that interview is not known; but a good many people believe that it was, and that it will help to placate the farm-labor senators who have been assuming a menacing attitude toward the republican leaders. On the League of Nations issue Kellogg fell in line with Senator Lodge, but he may have changed his attitude since then—to be more favorable to the league.

The political effect remains to be seen, but in any case, it is believed that Kellogg will be a great improvement upon Harvey and a worthy successor to the long line of eminent men who filled that position in the past, including James Munroe, John Quincy Adams, Washington Irving, Martin Van Buren, James Buchanan, Charles Francis Adams, James Russell Lowell, Robert Todd Lincoln, Thomas F. Bayard, John Hay, Joseph H. Choate, Whitelaw Reid, Walter Hines Page and John W. Davis.

It is very generally believed that Harvey was the most indiscreet man who has thus far served as ambassador to England. Kellogg will be a distinct improvement and as he is not reputed to be a wealthy man, he may find the post rather unprofitable. It is estimated that the ambassador to Britain must spend $50,000 in excess of his salary or else be considered penurious and niggardly. This may explain why so few candidates seek the position. Moreover, it requires a man of fast and judgment to keep on rapport with the British court, the British press and the British people; and at the same time hold the esteem of the American people whom he represents. Harvey failed in the task and he is doubtless glad to be rid of the responsibilities attaching to the office.

THE 1924 SPRING OUTLOOK

The National Wholesale Dry Goods association is very confident over the outlook for business in 1924. The leading wholesalers of the land believe, and put it very sensibly, that business during at least the early part of the coming year, will prove to be most satisfactory. However, most of them believe that caution of the usual brand should be exercised in providing for this trade. An association report issued last Friday describes the situation as follows:

"Retailers are continuing purchases of dry goods to their immediate needs, and they show little willingness to place commitments for any large quantities of spring merchandise. The main argument in the cotton piece goods market is whether goods can be successfully distributed on a basis of 30-cent cotton, and it is quite likely to be tested out this year. Advance sales on gingham are in larger volume than was thought possible, and a good balance is anticipated for the first three months of 1924."

The recent action of the Amoskeag Manufacturing company, the largest manufacturer of gingham in the world, in resuming work in many departments in the big Manchester mill district, after a short lay-off of nearly 10,000 men and women operatives, indicates real business ahead for the corporation's output beyond a doubt.

MRS. CROKER'S AMBITION

That was quite a touching scene in which the widow of the late Richard Croker called upon the Tammany leaders to tell them that her husband, an hour before his death, requested her to place at the disposal of Tammany Hall, most of the wealth which he had accumulated through the loyalty of the members both in victory and defeat. He told her that he would rather be accounted "loyal" than to be remembered as great, and he was loyal to the men of Tammany as they had been loyal to him, and he wanted his widow to use his wealth in doing Tammany in its political battles as he would do were he alive and amongst them. The widow, who is said to be of Irish descent, averred that the great spirit was guiding her in making this declaration and that because of her so doing, her late husband would be more largely where he was.

Mrs. Croker, it appears, is determined to enter the ranks of Tammany on the ground that if such associations were good enough for her husband, they are good enough for her. It is presumed that Mrs. Murphy will find some suitable sphere of activity for Mrs. Croker in which she can perform some useful work in accordance with the expressed wishes of her late husband. It is not stated that she will seek any political office, but it is thought something in that line, Tammany will be able to place her in a position in which she can realize her ambition, her loyalty to her late husband, and her desire to be a woman of strong character.

TO ASSESS REPARATIONS

Two events of international interest have been announced within the past few days. One is that France, Belgium and Italy have agreed to accept the plan of letting a reparation commission ascertain the extent of Germany's ability to pay what she owes to France as provided under the Versailles treaty. This plan, originated with Secretary Hughes and although the United States is not a party to the Versailles treaty, yet it is already announced that the United States will be represented on the commission. The suddenness with which this agreement has been brought about seems to suggest some unusual method of reaching a hasty conclusion. It is not outside the range of probability that Lloyd George has been an important factor in bringing about this agreement. It is to be hoped that it will be instrumental in securing a settlement of the very complicated situation that exists between France and Germany at the present time.

THE WASHINGTON ELM

The old Washington elm that has been dying for a number of years, perhaps more from the result of excessive care than from old age, has finally collapsed and fallen to the ground, unable to bear its own weight. It was under this ancient tree that Washington took charge of the army in 1775. There are doubtless many thousands of elms in the country that are much older, but not being subjected to the culture of civilization they still remain in a healthy condition with no signs of decay. Trees, like animals, suffer from high living.

Guest, the poet of the home and family, made an appropriate opening of the Parker Lecture course yesterday, and the large audience that heard him was duly appreciative.

The duty of selecting the best available candidates for the city council and school board is before the people. Let no vote be wasted upon an unworthy candidate.

SEEN AND HEARD

All is not trash that litters.

More power to the navy and the Gobs.

Why be ashamed of a long neck? Giraffes sell for $12,000 apiece.

Prohibition may have failed in many things, but it at least eliminated the bar-fly.

There is more midnight oil burned by students in their autos than in their lamps nowadays.

The Japanese call telephone girls "moshi moshi," sounding to us exactly like "mushy mushy."

A Thought

Authentic intoxication.

And makes no use of magistrates. The times of it invade the brain. And make men glibly, proud and vain. By this the fool commands the wise; The noble with the base complies; The sot assumes the role of wit, And cowards make the base submit.

Fascination of Golf

They asked a famous professional to explain why golf made captives of so many people. He consented to do so. "You start golf in this way. You think you can knock that little pill out of the country," he began. "Yes," "You try it and find out you can't," he continued. "Well," "You swear you will," with more emphasis. "And then?" "Then you are hooked for life."

Banker's Discovery

At the club they were discussing the Luxor excavations. The professor said they were of immense scientific interest. The dry goods man remarked that they had started to dig for gold. "Things coming back into vogue," suggested the banker. "And this very tendency gives me pause. I guess I'll keep quiet about a discovery I made last week. 'What was that?' 'While digging a posthole in my back yard I excavated a wire bustle.'"

Waiting for the Fire

Signor Ricci, the Italian ambassador, was talking at a dinner about the forbidden question of tariffs. "If we know a certain kind of tariff will do harm," he said, "let us say so frankly. Don't let us just wait and see." A fire once broke out in a farmhouse in Tuscany and the amateur fire brigade rushed to the rescue. They found the farmhouse enveloped in flames. No flames were to be seen. Hence the fire broke out or never was difficult to discover. The head of the amateur fire brigade studied the situation for some minutes; then he sat down on a garden bench and filled his pipe. "Well, just leave her alone, boys," he said, "let her burn up a bit. Then we will be able to see what we're doing."

He Meant Well

Mr. Brown was calling on an old friend. "I declare," he remarked to the friend's wife, "it quite cures me of homesickness to drop in here and see a little of your home life—or—er—not that your home life is anything but the—what I mean to say is that it makes me all the fonder of my own home—or—er—rather, that, on the domestic principle, a hair of the dog that bit you which means, of course, what I mean. But when a man is lonely he can enjoy the society of almost anybody."

"Sir," said the lady, felly. "I mean," returned Mr. Brown, as he mopped the perspiration from his face, "that, let it ever so humble—no, no, yours is not that—but there's no place like home—but, I mean—well, I mean to go!" "Good day!"

The Chestnut Burr

A wee little nut lay deep in its nest of soft and brown, the softest and best. And slept and grew while its cradle rocked. As it hung in the branches that interlocked.

Now the house was small where the cradle lay. As it swung in the winds by night and day. For the thicket of underbrush fenced it round. This lone little nut by the great sun browned.

This little nut grew, and ere long it found. There was work outside on the soft, green ground. It must do its part so the world might know. It had tried one little seed to sow.

And soon the house that had kept it warm. Was tossed about by the autumn storm. The stem was cracked, the old house fell. And the chestnut burr was an empty shell.

But the little nut, as it waited long. Framed a wonderful dream of the day of how it should break its coat of brown. And live as a tree to grow up and down.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

If your coat has not filled so much as you would like it, cheer up, spring is only a few months away.

The president is definitely committed to the budget, for he helped to establish the present budget system in Massachusetts, when he was president of the state senate and later governor. It is said that Mr. Coolidge will veto any measure calling for the dissolving of the national budget.

It is said that the president not only believes firmly in a national budget, but regards it as a permanent achievement of value that is here to stay. Mr. Coolidge may be forming new policies in his attitude toward national governmental affairs, but he is in full accord with President Harding's attitude on the national budget.

During a discussion in the corridor of the court house, the other day, an unprofessional practice in unscrupulous lawyers in the past Attorney General J. P. Duggan told the story of a stranger who arrived in a certain town and asked for a job. The "old" inhabitant was pointed out and the stranger asked him how long he had lived there. "Oh, my," he replied, "I've been here for a long time."

The stranger next inquired, "The native scratched his head for a few moments then he said, 'I've been here for a long time, but I haven't been here for a long time.'"

Major F. J. Towhee, in command of the Grand Reserve Corps in this city, has received a blue print of the exact defense of Boston, showing the

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
J. P. MOWER & SONS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

Why do they make court houses look so much like churches? A juror was caught asleep in Detroit.

A Frenchman has written 23,000 words on a postcard. We don't know why it wasn't a Scotchman.

Thousands of third travelers will enjoy learning a Pullman porter was shot in Illinois.

National woman's camp says golf takes an iron nerve when she really meant a midiron nerve.

Milwaukee auto salesman's wife got a divorce. Now she will have a chance to talk some herself.

Boston judge rules a man who sells booze is not idle. We rule very few of them are.

The nickel shine has returned in Boston. It reports seeing nothing of the nickel cigar.

Los Angeles man has invented a sanitary cigar when what we need is sanitary chewing tobacco.

Ford may accept prohibition nomination for president. Hotties are a great evil to Fords.

Man in Knoxville, Tenn., was not his brother's keeper. Gave him to cops for a $25 reward.

While raiding a bathhouse in Detroit a clown haul was made.

Evansville (Ind.) woman says unimportant things make girls leave home. May mean men.

American arrested in Rome. When in Rome don't do as Romans don't.

Please pay attention. Eighty in a fishing contest caught only one pound and it was a fish.

Chicago Y.W.C.A. says wear blue to make men propose. And at times, we say, are blue.

A Los Angeles taxi harbor shaves them on route to work, but taking position would be paid.

Frenchman wanted to fight a duel over a tax dispute. Let us hope it doesn't become stylish here.

While an eye for an eye may be all right, the dandies couples demand a neck for a neck.

A huge cliff, on which we hope medical aid were painted, has been blown away in Mexico.

Seattle man was fined for flirting with a phone girl, so he did not get the wrong number.

Atlantic City doctor says boogie is raising girls' complexions. May avoid this by using funnels.

The Moors are rising in the Philippines, and the moose here.

Heat from a Hawaiian volcanic range is used as a kitchen range.

They have soup stations in Germany because she is in the soup.

COMMUNICATIONS
The Lowell Sun.

As a suggestion for traffic betterment, I believe if Fletcher street were not so rough it would be much used. It should be well paved as far as Fletcher street. I believe this would relieve traffic congestion 25 per cent. The same may be said of other main arteries of traffic.

Truly yours,
E. A. JEAN.

30 Melvin Street.
It seems rather impossible to tell how much relief would result from the paving of Fletcher street, but a portion of it is under construction at the present time and before winter will be blocked paved as far as Franklin street. Next year the program will be extended and eventually it is planned to have the entire street resurfaced as far as Fletcher street. The absolute street car tracks now in the street will be removed at the same time. It is planned, E. A.

SILVER LANE
Banners of silver lane are featured in the smartest shops and do wonders toward making a costume out of a very plain suit.

location about the harbor of the various forts and the companies of coast artillery occupying the same. The two Lowell companies are in the best strategic position at Fort Dugal on Little Bear Island and the 54th at Fort Rockman. As far as it can be arranged, Boston is evidently to be well protected by the coast artillery, and many Lowell men will be among the defending forces in event of an attack by hostile powers.

The fact that children were everywhere about when the troops bearing the naval equipment arrived at the Auditorium on Friday afternoon of last week, showed that not only were they curious but that they were interested to know more about Uncle Sam and his navy. To the credit of Robert Frederick, C.W.T., U.S.N., he said that he allowed the children to stand around and have "a good look" at one of the youngsters expressed it. It is well to satisfy the curiosity of the children when they want to know more of things they have heard of but never seen.

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER
Is sold at Columbia's for Printing and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Pound Tins .40¢

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
J. P. MOWER & SONS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

STAMMERERS
Learn to speak normally, fast for free booklet telling how.

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET
Free Delivery 161 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

LEARN TO DANCE
Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6416 or 6624-X

HATS
Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames New Felt and Beaver for Ladies and Children.
B. H. SIEVERLY, Inc., 133 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 6 p. m. every week day

Summary of Early Morning A. P. News

Poincare announces that France cannot agree to any reduction in the German debt and that proposed committee of allied experts will have no authority, in accordance with Versailles treaty, to cut German payments.

Ruhr towns are almost helpless in face of mobs. Duesseldorf advises say: plundering, jail deliveries and other acts of violence continue unchecked.

Saxony refuses Berlin government's demand for resignation of Premier Zolner's ministry and Chancellor Stresemann announces he will appoint civil governor for Saxony.

Governor Pinchot in letter to Secretary Mellon attributes collapse of federal prohibition enforcement in Pennsylvania to the federal permit system.

Lloyd George pays tribute to "Stonewall" Jackson and stands bareheaded before monument marking spot where southern general fell mortally wounded near Chancellorsville, Va.

Income and profit taxes from 7,018,583 individuals and firms in 1921 totalled $7,420,962,438 with only one man, undesignated, showing income of more than five million dollars.

Samuel Untermyer of New York city assails Israel Zangwill as a "prince of intellectual jugglers" and denies that Zangwill is representative Jewish leader.

Portsmouth, Ohio, police stop parade of Ku Klux Klan, and arrest 24 paraders of whom 187 wore Klan regalia.

OFFICER HUNTER DID NOT SEE MAYO
In a recent story telling of the arrest by the local police of William Mayo, wanted in connection with a statutory offense alleged to have been committed in the Highlands a week ago today, it was said that Mayo was seen running through a field near Princeton street by Motor Cycle Officer Andrew Hunter. Officer Hunter was searching the neighborhood at the time, but did not see Mayo, although told by boys that he had run away. He secured all streets in the vicinity for some time, but did not see him. This correction gladly is made for the purpose of killing any rumors that Officer Hunter was lax in his duty after seeing the man in question running away.

CATHOLIC FORESTERS INSTALL OFFICERS
The installation of officers of Lowell Court, No. 129, Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters, took place at Griffin hall last evening. District Deputy John J. Murphy and staff of Haverhill performed the ceremony and installed the following officers for the ensuing year: Chief ranger, William J. Enright; vice chief ranger, Thomas Brown; recording secretary, Timothy F. Rohan; treasurer, Humphrey Coffey; junior conductor, Mark J. Gearing; senior conductor, William M. Ambrose; inside sentinel, Thomas J. Wallace; outside sentinel, Frederick E. Maloney; delegate to convention, Timothy F. Rohan. The court will observe its 20th anniversary in December. Mrs. Agnes L. Hughes of Lawrence, deputy-at-large, addressed the members on the progress of the order. Deputy Murphy and Chief Ranger Enright also spoke.

BLACK AND WHITE
A Land's end of unusual charm is black and white shepherd's check with a white satin overblouse and a high collar with a green chiffon kerchief fastened about the throat.

THE KIMBALL School COURSES
C. P. A. Training
Secretarial
Stenographic
Business and Accounting
Civil Service
Students May Enter Anytime
Office Open Mon. and Thurs. Nights
226 CENTRAL ST.

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET
Free Delivery 161 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

STAMMERERS
Learn to speak normally, fast for free booklet telling how.

LEARN TO DANCE
Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6416 or 6624-X

HATS
Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames New Felt and Beaver for Ladies and Children.
B. H. SIEVERLY, Inc., 133 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 6 p. m. every week day

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER
Is sold at Columbia's for Printing and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Pound Tins .40¢

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
J. P. MOWER & SONS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

STAMMERERS
Learn to speak normally, fast for free booklet telling how.

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET
Free Delivery 161 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

LEARN TO DANCE
Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6416 or 6624-X

HATS
Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames New Felt and Beaver for Ladies and Children.
B. H. SIEVERLY, Inc., 133 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 6 p. m. every week day

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER
Is sold at Columbia's for Printing and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Pound Tins .40¢

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
J. P. MOWER & SONS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

STAMMERERS
Learn to speak normally, fast for free booklet telling how.

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET
Free Delivery 161 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

LEARN TO DANCE
Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6416 or 6624-X

HATS
Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames New Felt and Beaver for Ladies and Children.
B. H. SIEVERLY, Inc., 133 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 6 p. m. every week day

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER
Is sold at Columbia's for Printing and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Pound Tins .40¢

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
J. P. MOWER & SONS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

STAMMERERS
Learn to speak normally, fast for free booklet telling how.

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET
Free Delivery 161 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

LEARN TO DANCE
Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6416 or 6624-X

HATS
Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames New Felt and Beaver for Ladies and Children.
B. H. SIEVERLY, Inc., 133 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 6 p. m. every week day

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER
Is sold at Columbia's for Printing and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Pound Tins .40¢

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
J. P. MOWER & SONS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

STAMMERERS
Learn to speak normally, fast for free booklet telling how.

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET
Free Delivery 161 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

LEARN TO DANCE
Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6416 or 6624-X

HATS
Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames New Felt and Beaver for Ladies and Children.
B. H. SIEVERLY, Inc., 133 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 6 p. m. every week day

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER
Is sold at Columbia's for Printing and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Pound Tins .40¢

Free City Delivery
C. B. COBURN CO.
Acids and Chemicals
63 MARKET ST.

DIAMONDS
J. P. MOWER & SONS
OVER GREEN'S DRUG STORE

STAMMERERS
Learn to speak normally, fast for free booklet telling how.

SAUNDERS PUBLIC MARKET
Free Delivery 161 GORHAM ST. Call 6600

LEARN TO DANCE
Bay State Dancing School
265 DUTTON STREET
Tel. 6416 or 6624-X

HATS
Ladies', Men's and Children's Hats remodeled. Ladies' and Children's Hat Frames New Felt and Beaver for Ladies and Children.
B. H. SIEVERLY, Inc., 133 Middle St., Lowell, Mass.
Open until 6 p. m. every week day

NOW for Increased Power and Efficiency

MOTOR-ETHER
Is sold at Columbia's for Printing and Starting Gasoline Engines.

Pound Tins .40¢

BIDDING FOR RUNS ON NEW SCHEDULE

A new schedule on the Lowell division of the Eastern Mass. St. Ry. Co. will go into effect Nov. 1 and bids for the runs on this new schedule are being made this afternoon by the operators. The change in schedule is due to the discontinuance of the street sprinklers, one of which will be taken off Nov. 1 and the other Nov. 15. There will be no change in the passenger car schedules.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NEWS

Next Thursday Holy Day of Obligation—Friday is All Souls' Day

All Saints day—a holiday of obligation in the Catholic church—will be observed with solemn services in the churches of this city next Thursday. Friday is All Souls' day and will likewise witness special ceremonies. In all the Catholic churches, masses will be celebrated in the morning and devotion will be held in the evening. In the majority of churches, confessions will be heard Wednesday and Thursday, afternoon and evening, in preparation for these two events.

At the 11 o'clock mass in St. Peter's church yesterday, Rev. Daniel J. Hoffman preached an eloquent sermon on the doctrine of the communion of saints as illustrated in the two feasts to be observed this week—that of All Saints on Thursday and All Souls on Friday. The church, he said, teaches that the living are united to the eternal reward of the glory of the saints who have preceded them. Those who seek their aid in overcoming temptations and leading lives of virtue and holiness. Similarly those on earth by their prayers and especially by the mass, the sacrifice of atonement, can aid the souls in purgatory, those who are passing from this life were free from the guilt of mortal sin, but who because of some imperfection were unworthy to be admitted to the realms of bliss, as nothing defiled can enter the Kingdom of Heaven. The preacher appealed to the congregation to pray for the faithful departed. It may be a father or mother, sister or brother, waiting for the angel of God to convey them to heaven and who during their detention cry out "Have mercy on me, at least you, my friends, for the hand of the Lord is upon me."

The church solemnly received communion at the 8:30 o'clock mass yesterday. High masses will be celebrated Thursday and Friday mornings at 9 o'clock.

This morning at 8:30 o'clock, a solemn high mass of requiem was sung in St. Michael's church for the repose of the soul of Rev. Francis J. Mullin, beloved assistant pastor, who died a year ago. The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing parishioners, who revered the dead priest during his exemplary life and who were shocked at his sudden death. The high mass was celebrated in a body. Yesterday, announcement was made at all the masses that special devotions in honor of All Saints and All Souls days will be held next Thursday and Friday. The Propagation of the Faith society and the League of the Sacred Heart will meet Friday evening, following services. St. Michael's Charity Guild will meet tomorrow night.

At the high mass yesterday, Rev. Augustus G. Madden delivered a forceful sermon on "Purgatory," proving the existence of such a state for the expiation of venial sins. The high mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock by Rev. Thomas J. Heagerty.

The feast of St. Veronica—annually observed in the Immaculate Conception church, was solemnized last evening with an elaborate procession in honor of the occasion. Those participating in the impressive service were the members of the Holy Angels sodality and both branches of the Children of Mary sodality. It was a most impressive service.

The 11 o'clock mass yesterday morning was a solemn high celebrated by Rev. William D. Doran, O.M.I., with Rev. Fr. McQuaid, O.M.I., deacon and Rev. Clement Flynn, O.M.I., sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Robbins preached a thoughtful sermon on All Saints day and its meaning.

At the 8 o'clock mass, the Junior branch of the Children of Mary and the Junior branch of the Holy Name society received communion. Nov. 11 has been set as the date for the annual memorial communion for the members of the Y.M.C.I.

Masses on Thursday and Friday will be celebrated at the usual hours with special services, including vespers of the dead, sermon, and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. In the evening, in St. Patrick's church yesterday, announcement was made that university extension courses in interior decorating and public speaking will be held in O'Connell hall this week and in the future until further notice. The courses are open to parishioners. The interior decorating classes will be held for women on Monday evenings, and the public speaking classes for men on Friday evenings.

Friday morning at 9 o'clock, a solemn high mass for the deceased members of the parish will be sung. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed from 11:30 in the morning until after evening services.

Rev. Gerald Kennedy, O.M.I., was the celebrant of the children's mass in the Sacred Heart church at 7:30 o'clock. The members of the Children of Mary sodality received communion at this mass. The dates for the parish reunion were announced as Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Nov. 21, 22 and 23. Several committees have been appointed to make arrangements for a monster celebration.

The Holy Name society held its regular meeting following the 9 o'clock mass.

IF CONSTIPATED SICK, BILIOUS

Harmless Laxative for the Liver and Bowels

10¢ CANDY CATHARTIC

WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Feel fine! No griping or inconvenience follows a gentle liver and bowel cleansing with "Cathartics." Sick headache, biliousness, gas, indigestion, and all such distress gone by morning. For Men, Women and Children—The boxes, also 25 and 50¢ sizes, any drug store.—Adv.

Must Leave Service at Retirement Age

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Employees of the civil service must be separated from federal employment when they reach the retirement age, according to a ruling by Attorney General Daugherty, regardless of whether they have served the requisite 15 years to entitle them to annuity. The ruling was given in response to a civil service commission request that employees of less than 15 years' service who attain the retirement age be retained to enable them to qualify later for a pension. The retirement age for railway postal clerks is 63, for mechanics and postoffice clerks and carriers 65, for all others 70 years. Under the terms of the law these limits may be extended only for specified purposes under certification of department heads.

Miners Observe "Mitchell Day"

HAZELTON, Pa., Oct. 29.—Anthracite mining operations were at a standstill today, the miners generally remaining idle in observance of "Mitchell Day" so-called in honor of the successful termination of the hard coal strike of 1900 under the leadership of the late John Mitchell, then international president of the United Mine Workers. Proclamations calling on the workers to remain at home were issued by union officials of the mine districts in the anthracite region and none of the employees except engineers, firemen, pump runners and others needed for the protection of property reported for duty.

Women Candidates for Political Offices

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Women voters will be encouraged to become candidates for political offices under a policy adopted by the board of directors of the National League of Women Voters. The league heretofore has devoted its energies toward the political education of women rather than encouraging running for office, it was said today, but hereafter state leagues will be urged to have women become candidates, especially for state legislatures. The directors also decided to attempt to increase the participation of women in the affairs of the big political parties.

Motorcyclist Dies From Injuries

WEYMOUTH, Oct. 29.—Frank Brown of Salem died at a hospital here today as a result of injuries sustained when his motorcycle collided with an automobile owned by Miss Elizabeth O'Brien, and driven by Francis D. Collins, both of Boston. The accident occurred last night in North Weymouth. Brown's brother William, living in Needham, who was in the motorcycle sidecar, was seriously injured. Miss O'Brien and Collins escaped with cuts from the broken windshield of the car.

Priest Killed When Truck Hit Auto

FALL RIVER, Oct. 29.—The Rev. Father Alfred Columbe of St. George's parish, Westport, was killed and the Rev. Father George Poirier of the same church, was slightly injured when their automobile met in collision with a truck on the New Bedford road this morning. The truck driver, Manuel Delgado of New Bedford, was thrown out but escaped lightly. The accident was caused by the truck skidding as it approached the car driven by Father Columbe.

Loot Worth $46,046 Taken by Thieves

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 29.—Loot valued at $46,046 was taken by thieves who raided the Stone & Thomas department store here last night. The robbery was discovered today when employees reporting for work found Louis Vockler, the night watchman, handcuffed to a post on the upper floor of the building. The robbers escaped with $9000 in cash, fur coats valued at $15,000, and a number of Liberty bonds, stocks, notes and stamps.

Fire Wipes Out Business Section of Town

SALAMANCA, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Fire this morning destroyed a large portion of the business section of Little Valley, the county seat of Cattaraugus county, eight miles from here. Telephone cables were burned and communication was cut off.

German Soldiers Arrest Communists

LONDON, Oct. 29.—German soldiers today entered the Saxon parliament building in Dresden and arrested a number of communists, some of whom were members of the Diet and others leaders of the communist party, says a Central News despatch from Berlin. Another despatch says the members of the Saxon cabinet submitted to their dismissal by the central government only under protest.

Crew of Captured Boat Escapes

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The 50-foot cabin cruiser N-722 was captured here today with 250 cases of Canadian ale. The coast guard making the capture said the crew had escaped under a fusillade of shots.

The social club of the society has started a membership drive and hopes to have one of the largest representations in the city. A novelty party, under the auspices of the Holy Rosary sodality, will be held Friday evening in the school hall. The proceeds to be donated to the reunion fund. A Halloween party for the children of the parish will be held in the school hall tonight.

A conference of the St. Theresa Guild of the Little Flower of Jesus will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O.M.I., pastor, will address the members on the subject of Christianity. Rev. Fr. Kennedy will deliver the sermon on All Souls day.

Rev. Cornelius Cotter celebrated the 5:30 o'clock mass in St. Columba's church, while the high mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. John J. Powers. The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin will meet in the parish hall tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. At 8 o'clock the same evening, a joint meeting of the men and women of the parish will be held for the purpose of making preliminary preparations for the coming parish reunion, the exact date of which will be announced in the near future. Devotions to St. Rita, benediction and sermon by Rev. Fr. Powers were held last night. A whist party will be held in the parish hall tonight for the benefit of the building fund.

Rev. Andrew O'Brien, Rev. William P. Brennan and the pastor, Rev. Charles J. Gulligan, celebrated the masses in St. Mark's church. The 9 o'clock masses on Thursday and Friday of this week will be solemn high masses.

At the 6:30 o'clock mass in St. Louis church yesterday, members of the League of the Sacred Heart received communion. The regular meeting of this sodality was held at 7 o'clock last evening.

Next Sunday, the Children of Mary sodality will receive communion at the 6:30 o'clock mass.

The novenas and the boys of the parish received communion at the 7:30 o'clock mass in Notre Dame de Lourdes church yesterday. It was announced that the children of the parish and public schools will go to confession Wednesday morning, the only time they will be heard. October devotions will be brought to a close Wednesday evening.

At St. Jean Baptiste church, Rev. Avie Amyot, O.M.I., observed his 50th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood by celebrating the 11 o'clock mass, assisted by the vice-procurator of the Oblate order, Rev. J. E. Turcotte, as deacon, and Rev. A. Gratia, as sub-deacon.

LARGE PIMPLES ALL OVER FACE

Were Red and Scaled Over. Cuticura Heals.

"I was troubled with pimples on my face. They were large and red and scaled over, and were centered all over my face. They itched badly causing me to scratch, and my face was very much disfigured. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I could see an improvement so purchased more, which healed me." (Signed) Miss Ida Heath, 20 Horton St., Taunton, Mass., Mar. 31, 1923.

Cuticura Soap to cleanse and purify, Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal and Cuticura Talcum to powder and perfume are ideal for daily toilet purposes.

Sample Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden 44, Mass." Send 10¢ for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Cuticura Soap is without equal.

SENDS AMBULANCE FOR COUNCILOR CHRETIEN

Through the courtesy of Mayor John J. Donovan, the new Packard ambulance went to Manchester, N. H., this noon, to bring home Councilor Joseph A. N. Chretien, who has been confined at a hospital there for the past several weeks as a result of an automobile accident.

James J. Gallagher, city council president, City Messenger Owen Monahan and Mrs. Chretien, mother of the councilor, also made the trip. Councilor Chretien has progressed rapidly during the past few weeks and now is able to walk short distances without assistance. It will be some time, however, before he returns to his work and other interests.

BOY INJURED BY FATHER WHILE HUNTING

his father for a raccoon in the bushes near the Carlisle road in Chelmsford, Saturday afternoon, and received a charge of buckshot in his left elbow and head. Young Patterson was taken to Chelmsford in a machine and treated by Dr. Scofield and was then taken to his home in Newmarket.

Alexander Patterson, the father, and Ralph had been hunting in the woods near the Lamb place and had inadvertently become separated. Ralph threw himself down behind a clump of bushes to await his father's return. His father saw the bushes move and fired one barrel of his gun with the above result. It is believed that Ralph's injuries are not serious.

Cough shortness of breath wheezy breathing

ASTHMA

Quick Relief

with FOLEY'S HONEY-TAR

ESTABLISHED 1875

Refuse Substitutes

Fred Howard's drug store, 223 Central; Burkinshaw Drug Co., 418 Middlesex st.; Green's drug store, 3 Morris mark st.

Mothers know a dose of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN Will keep them fit

'First Aid' For Sick Children

THE experienced mother is not alarmed when a child becomes sick. She knows that most of the ailments of childhood are trifling. If it seems serious she calls a doctor, but whether or not she calls him she gives first of all, a good laxative medicine. The doctor would advise that anyway. It is his "first aid." Such experienced mothers as Mrs. Everett E. Hunt of Belmont, Okla., who has three children and never any sickness, and Mrs. F. B. Kulinski of Prosser, Wash., always give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at the first indication of sickness. Such timely doses have saved them much worry.

Give Laxative for Colds

Adults should have at least one movement of the bowels every 24 hours, and children two or three. Failure to have it means constipation, then headache, biliousness, drowsiness, lack of appetite. Give a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at bedtime, and there will be health and good feeling by morning. A dose costs less than a cent, and a bottle can be had at any drug store. Colds and constipation come together, so if you notice coughing or sneezing stop it at once with Syrup Pepsin.

The Meaning of "Good"

All doctors agree that a thorough cleaning out of the bowels is of first importance for it removes dangerous intestinal poisons. They will also advise a good laxative, and by "good" they mean one that is effective and yet harmless. They know that there are physics that never should be given to children—calomel, which is mercury and loosens the teeth; phosphorated oil, a real drug that causes skin trouble; salts, which concentrate the blood and dry up the saliva. They consider Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, safe for all ages as they know it is a simple vegetable compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and agreeable aromatics. The formula is on the package.

-----If You Want to Try It Free Before Buying-----
 "Syrup Pepsin," 515 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
 I need a good laxative and would like to prove what you say about Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin by actual test. Send me a free trial bottle. Address to: Name.....
 Address.....
 Not more than one free trial bottle to a family.

PLESTINA MEETS ZBYVSKO

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Formally opening the wrestling season, Martin Plestina and Wladek Zbyvsko will meet in the feature match of a five event program at the Seventy-first regiment armory tonight. To the winner will go the opportunity of attempting to wrest the championship crown from Stranger Lewis. The match, which Plestina has been seeking for seven years, will go to a finish, the promoters promise.

SPANISH EFFECT

Long deep extractions are being applied with the high Spanish combs and the Spanish shawls that are so much in demand.

SEE THE POINT

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Ninety per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser?

Fred Howard's drug store, 223 Central; Burkinshaw Drug Co., 418 Middlesex st.; Green's drug store, 3 Morris mark st.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Thomas Waterhouse, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Heathcock were united in marriage Saturday at All Saints' church, Chelmsford, by Rev. Wilson Waters. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Lucie Elizabeth Roman and William R. Heathcock, brother of the bride, was best man. Mr. Waterhouse is a resident of Palmer and Miss Heathcock of Lowell. After an extended tour they will make their home in Palmer.

COLDS

of head or chest are more easily treated externally with—

VICKS

VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

$50 to $100 Off

On All Dining Room Suites

That Sold for $269 to $425

These are all beautiful suites, some in combination Mahogany, others in combination Walnut. But Dining Room Suites of that price don't move fast enough to suit our quick turnover methods. So we are going to make medium and low price suites of these high grade goods. And you know when A. E. O'Heir & Co. advertise a cut down in price it is genuine and a mark down from an already fair price.

$125.00 Dining Room Suite, consisting of 8 pieces. Very high grade construction. Italian Renaissance design, every detail carried fully on every piece, chairs carved to match buffet, etc. Sale price $375.00	$350.00 9-Piece All Solid Walnut even to bottom of drawers, except the chairs that are combination walnut. $100.00 off. Sale price $250.00
$375.00 Louis Sixteenth Style, every detail perfect $300.00	$295.00 Mahogany, finished natural color, chairs carved to match $245.00
$350.00 8-Piece Chippendale Mahogany Suite $275.00	$155.00 8-Piece Solid Oak Suite, Jacobean finish $125.00
	$115.00 Solid Fumed Oak Suite, 8-Piece $95.00

These prices for quick sale. This week only. After that they go to regular price.

SO ACT AT ONCE

A. E. O'HEIR & CO., 15 Hurd St.

Mechanically able to keep pace with busy minds

Eversharp is a worker, a business pencil—America's favorite. It keeps going day after day with no other attention than an occasional honing. Many people carry two—one with black lead, one with the new colored lead.

Eversharp is comfortable to hold. It never tires the hand because it is perfectly balanced. The lead never wobbles—the exclusive rifled tip grips it like a vice. You know when to put in new lead—the automatic index tells how much is left in the barrel. New leads are found under the cap. So the handy eraser, Eversharp features can't be copied.

The all-metal Wahl Pen is a writing innovation, a fountain pen improvement that makes it a worthy companion for Eversharp. The barrel holds more ink. Wahl Pen cannot crack or split. It is beautiful. It is durable. Wahl Pen will last a lifetime.

Wahl Pen and Eversharp are watched in gold and silver. Buy both. Eversharp, $1 to $10; Wahl Pen, $1 to $10. Solid gold at higher prices. Look for the name on each. Wahl Pens in rubber are the finest rubber pens made. $2.50 up.

Made in the U. S. A. by THE WAHL CO., Chicago

EVERSHARP matched by WAHL PEN

IMPORTANT: A pencil is no better than its lead. Don't use poor lead in your Eversharp. Use Eversharp leads, which are recognized as the finest made. Over 200,000,000 are sold every year. They fit the pencil. Get them. Seven grades, very soft to very hard. Ask for the new small diameter colored leads, too! In the red top box.

Copyright 1923, The Wahl Co.

RUBE TRACKS FAILED TO PAY BIG DIVIDENDS TO LOWELL HORSE OWNERS THIS SEASON

No Big Money-Winners Among the Lowell Steppers This Year—Many Felt They Were Lucky to Make Expenses in View of "Deals" From Amateur Judges

Lowell horsemen are spending these cold days over the reins out in the open, but they are not idle, they are serving the hot stoves for the period when the speedways and half-mile tracks are closed by the cold and frozen and unfit for exercising the fast ones now stabled here and there about the roads.

That the season has not been a particularly flourishing one for Lowell horsemen as a whole, goes without saying. The season has been a long and smooth-looking mare with unofficial records have not turned out wonderfully well. In the last twelve months the same quantity of certified rats and timothy and clip along the side streets has been sold for only $1.50 to $2.00 a mile, in 2:14 or less than that wraps.

Half a dozen mares that were expected to pull down big money on the track have failed this season, hardly paid expenses.

One good Lowell mare, always a big-shoulder horse, the golden one, failed to win high money in several flesh coming along under the auctioneer's lash in the afternoon of the sale.

Some extra-choice cups by Lowell man would do a world of good for racing at Golden Cove next season. New blood is needed. The Lowell horsemen and the Readville spread sale on November 8 ought to offer good selections for something that will add a little to the "big money" of the "Golden" Peter Flood leads the Lowell delegation to Readville for the sixteenth time.

Ernest Paigle is selling and buying. He never is without two or three good ones and plans to hold a good string for the races next year down the oval.

Sam Hastings now owns two really good track horses of the speed show type. They are the "big money" ones, Aaron Trumbo and clever Henry Dine. No marks given, but steady and lumber and ready for all sorts of work. They are Lexington-stabled this winter.

trials on the outside rings. Hard luck was this one—a first—crackles pocked here and a set-back there, with amateur judges not always fair in their verdicts. But the boys were young and, as spreads down the last quarter.

And yet the five, even in the local district, were not without their merits. A good sport if they did not enlarge their bank accounts. And few of them were without a few dollars in the league debating tables this winter—they can locate them in their new homes.

The season of real gold braid racing

Will Mellanson is wintering Echo Todd, 2 1/2, five months old, on Pheasant, 2 1/4, full months old, on healthy youngster, full of frisks, etc., and appears to be a forerunner of some kind of a revival of local sport interspersing influences.

John J. Maguire is through with Bazkin—that is, he has offered this well-known brown horse for sale. Bazkin has been a many good capors on tracks far and near.

What's that, Mr. Hudson? Glad to know it, Fred. We hear, in wintering fine good ones. When Fred says they are good ones, they are good ones.

Over on Billionaire street, John Potter has Jess M. all fixed up, so-called season without phobias. Jess has a few of the best of the season, getting acquainted with the best of the season. The mare is by Fox Arrow.

BACK OF THE RAIL.

Elmer Kent of Newmarket, N. H., has been spending a week in and about Lowell, chumming with local horse men, visiting various places and getting together in earnest and making Golden Cove a real honest race track. Elmer went to Readville last night with Henry S. Setzer, and would that they possibly come to Lowell next spring. Keep your eyes center stage for this one, boys!

Lowis Clark's young colt has been having the fun of his life on the Clark acres this summer and fall. He is now in the warm barn, looking better than ever and sound as a nut, but no particular speedster as yet.

No important meetings of any kind scheduled for the Driving Clubmen just yet. Must someone ring the bell again?

Messrs. Ruger and Titus got a lot of fun out of it this season, even if Eunice O. didn't take down very far money in the various races. They had a few different track meeting arrangements played the local horsemen, but they have no churlish regrets.

Eunice O. showed to good advantage down the standard tracks where she competed with horses much faster, but the practice was good for her. There will be something doing next season when she shows her real stride at the tracks where judges enforce the rules without fear or favor. And we have it straight that Brocton will see her.

road points.

At Rodney, an old timer of the hygienic addition track, will winter at the Springfield track this season, so he writes

Alban J. Wilson has bought Robert M. 2585, from Gil Brown of Hallowden, Me.

Lowell horsemen to a man are planning to attend the sports annual fall stock sale at Roadville track on November 5. Only two weeks from next Thursday, so chalk that date down in your calendar plain. It is expected several locals will deal out good hard too, in 1924.

Peter Floyd never misses the Thursday cards down in the Fletcher street neighborhood. Always first to arrive and see the tryouts over the cobblestones in front of the big stable. There were several new-comers among the horsepickers on deck this week, but none could see much in that brown mare in the new harness and ribbon-decked bridle, that pranced up and down in front of an express wagon to fair advantage and then went for about a mile in the hands of the drivers made some excellent boys, however, as the day's selections of work horses was the money for specimens of good horses' best over.

PROTECTING THE MIGRATING BIRDS

Lowell Fish and Game association and many other similar clubs and associations all over the United States are working hard for the passage at the next congress of the newly-proposed migratory birds bill, which will refuse full if this bill passes, it will give various migrating birds certain protection from the gun, and will raise their young unmolested, and other areas will be set aside for the purpose to hunt upon, under state and federal laws, and may also be used for these lands from their own funds, if the act now on the way in congress, is passed, it will give the federal license to hunt migratory birds at one dollar per license.

The bill will call for the issuance of a special stamp, to be sold in every postoffice in the United States

(the federal government will not set aside shooting grounds or refuges without the regular state legislative action, thus protecting state's rights at all times.

Local sportsmen feel that as long as the men of the world of game hunting are willing to pay for the project and that the public runner, rich or poor, will benefit by this law, the people of the United States should have been moved until such an act is passed. An act of similar kind was passed by the United States senate last year, but failed to pass the house of representatives by a few votes.

Congressman John Jacob Rogers is a strong supporter of such legislation and was frank in telling local constituents so at the annual outing of the Lowell Fish and Game association held at Willow Dale last month.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL SCORES

Barnstable 6, Harvard 0.
Marquette 7, Boston College 6.
Yale 6, Yale 0.
Holy Cross 15, Boston University 0.
Yale 21, Brown 0.
Princeton 3, Annapolis 0.
Yale 10, Columbia 0.
Oberlin 14, Amherst 7.
Massachusetts Aggies 13, Wesleyan 0.
Harvard 12, Bowdoin 7.
Yale 10, Princeton 0.
Vermont 28, New Hampshire 7.
Norwich 13, Connecticut Aggies 0.
Sydney 41, Springfield 0.
Yale 10, New Haven Valley 0.
Union 14, Trinity 0.
Pennsylvania 21, Centre 7.
The Army Corps 14, Georgetown 7.
Yale 10, Washington 0.
Washington 7, Catholic University 7.
Notre Dame 35, Georgia Tech 7.
Yale 10, Ohio Wesleyan 0.
New York 10, Cornell 15.

In case this proposed act is passed, hand o

The HANDY
PACK
In  Famous
for

Every Case for Quality

ANNUAL CATTLE DRIVE

Dracut and Pelham Farmers

Bring Cows Back From
Pasture Lands

The cream of Dracut's buckaroos, led by the stalwart Mack, pulled in the trail from Hancock when the cows came back.

Dracut's annual cattle drive from the north pasture lands is over. New England's choicest herds of fancy bred Holsteins, Guernseys and Ayrshires made a fine parade down the long valley roads fringed with golden autumnal scenery. They came home with eyes that blinked mournfully as they remembered their summer of idleness in the famous old lightning mountain and Temple range pasturing districts in southern New Hampshire.

Tanned, collecting young farm bred hunkies of humanity, armed with white birch switches, led in the tall rustling at the round-up, headed the bovines southward and drove them expertly back once more to the home of the Old Yellow Meeting House.

Since once more in the nearby farm cattle barns for winter keep, more than 150 fancy cows, belonging to Dracut and Pelham farmers, are now contentedly munching cold weather menu cards composed of English hay and a combination of shorts and will feed morning and night, tickled to be back home, perhaps, but missing the green pastures of old New Hampshire, where they have been roaming fancy free all summer without halteres or tie-ups and no one to worry them at milking time.

The annual "drive" homeward of Dracut and Pelham cows, sent to pasture north every spring for the summer season, is an event of importance in the farm districts north of Lowell.

Lowell, New Massachusetts farmers with cow herds today take the trouble to find outside pasture lands for their milk and "fresh" or future coming-in cattle. They used to do it years ago, but the custom is not general today.

Prosperous Dracut and Pelham farmers who own registered stock are reluctant to break away from the custom of sending their dry cows away into the open-range pasture lands every season—in some cases 50 or more miles from the home barns. They have been doing this for many years and a few of them will continue to do it as long as they have pasture and good supplies of fresh water sufficient for their needs. There are no cattle ranches large enough in this vicinity to accommodate large droves of cows in these modern times, although there used to be.

And so it has been the yearly custom.

Our quick skillful cleansing of your last year's apparel should enable you to complete the season with great economy.

DILLON DYE WORKS
5 East Merrimack Street
Tel. 1788 Auto Delivery

ASPIRIN
Say "Bayer" and Insist!

WHY YOUR DOCTOR ADVISES TONIC AT THIS TIME OF YEAR

There are lots of people who seldom really feel their best at this time of year. Certain foods do not agree with them; they suffer from indigestion after meals, sleep poorly at night and wake up feeling dazed and often constipated. Frequently their systems are so run-down they cannot throw off colds and such winter ailments. The result there are many needless days of suffering.

Take a good tonic and build yourself up! Try just a spoonful of Dr. Thacher's after the first few meals and notice the quick difference in the way you look, eat, sleep and feel. Tonic up your system and feel your best. Have rich, red blood to keep you warm this winter. Druggists are authorized to return the small cost unless you are completely satisfied.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Tonic

Green's drug store, Frye & Crawford Drug Co., A. W. Dows & Co., Noonan the druggist and all leading druggists in every town and city.

Almost Unbelievable
You can hardly realize the wonderful improvement to your skin and complexion the mirror will reveal to you after using Gourd's Oriental Cream for the first time. White-Flesh Rachel, 6 Send 10c for Trial Size P. T. HOPKINS & SON New York

by Dr. C.C. Robinson

BY DR. CLIFFORD C. ROBINSON

ANTHRAX
During recent months much interest has been aroused by an international fight against the infection of anthrax. There is a desire to find some way of disinfecting wool and hair infected with anthrax germs of anthrax to human beings, sometimes causing death.

The anthrax bacillus, under favorable conditions, will retain its vitality for years. Animals dying infected by bacillus anthracis, transmit in their hides, hair and wool the germs of anthrax to human beings. The anthrax bacillus has a strong affinity for the oxygen of the human blood. Its chief action is to so affect the red corpuscles that they are unable to sustain the life stream of blood in a healthy normal state.

The strange thing about the whole story of anthrax is that, although it has been known since ancient times, no particular efforts have been made to stay its inroads until comparatively modern times. In 1877, Louis Pasteur, the great Frenchman, discovered that he could use the organisms from the blood of sheep or swine, dead of anthrax, and prepare from it an inoculated virus which he used as a vaccine with remarkable success on sheep.

The real cause of the latest interest in anthrax arises from the charge that certain shaving brushes, which have been imported from Germany, might cause infection. Some actual cases have been reported.

There is no great cause for alarm. I have always used a shaving brush and up to date have escaped anthrax. I have never known anyone who suffered from it through infection from shaving brushes.

It is well, however, for the layman to be informed in regard to it, as some workers, such as wool sorters, tanners and other handlers of wool and hair, are sometimes victims of this disease, either through slight wounds on the surface of the skin or through inhalation.

LACE AND FUR
An edge of moleskin on the lace ruffles which edge a taffeta party frock is one of the inconsistencies of style to be met with this season.

For farmers living in Dracut, Pelham and several nearby towns in this state and southern New Hampshire to hire pasture for various lots of selected cattle that need to be "summer pastured" and for nearly a century the favorite country district range has been the open range lands up around Hancock and Pelham, N. H.

Bert E. Cluff, chairman of the Dracut board of selectmen, is a nearby farmer who owns a vast stock of registered cattle of several popular breeds. And every summer or more than two decades he has been marching over the country roads north, some 10 miles or more, a flock of his cattle, placing them up among the long, rolling pastures of the southern mountain region in and about Hancock and nearby towns.

George Carleton of Pelham, another farmer who has registered stock of much value same as Selectman Cluff, also sends a host of his cows each year over the northern roads to the upland pastures. There were slightly more than 150 in the long, nervous procession that went away early in the summer bound for lightning mountain via the Mt. Vernon way station.

Messrs. Cluff and Carleton, of course, led the way, but it took eight or ten cowboys of the western brand but eastern fringes, to make the order of march even and regular, no "breaking out" of the long, slow lines, and all eyes, noses and horns straight ahead for the green playgrounds.

The parade every spring up the highways by the most direct route to the mountain pasture region is always a sight bordering on the spectacular. It reminds some observers who happen to be motoring along the "cattle trail" of a western prairie round up with the mounted cowboys miffing.

Mr. Cluff says when a bunch of cows "gets started," there's nothing to it. You may imagine they are going to try and run over every open orchard or pasture, but they pass, same as they do when Elia or Joe attempts to drive the moolies home from the nearby berry pasture on the old town homestead farm, but they don't. That is, they don't try to run away and do any circus stunts after the first long mile.

A cow hates to march steadily along a country road without a few steps for grazing, or to investigate a bunch of dogwood or poisoned ivy, or something equally tasty. But after the first mile has passed, the cattle take it steady the rest of the distance. They understand, as those cowmen behind keen tabs on them, that this march to the north pastures is no joy tramp. If any cow wants to get playful, she must wait until that Temple mountain pasturing gate is opened before she can get out of the main line and dance any polkas all by herself.

The mountainside pastures where such cattle owners as Mr. Cluff and Mr. Carleton graze their flocks each season are amazingly large when you stop and think of the meagre acres in Massachusetts now devoted to cattle raising. The men who send cattle to Hancock and vicinity each year give their stock a "run" of freedom over an area of nearly 4000 acres—all in splendid green pasturage the entire summer. There is no scarcity of water, a large pond lying in the center of this ideal grazing ground.

The drive home in the fall of the year—just finished without any accident worth reporting—takes about two days. Messrs. Cluff and Carleton superintended the homeward journey arrangements, with the usual crew of active cow boys on the job. The journey this season was about 51 miles and took a little more than 48 hours. There was a stop over-night at Mt. Vernon, where the cattle were well fed and pastured.

Some of the Dracut summer-vacation bovines were pastured in the vicinity of Sulphur mountain in Hillsboro county, always a favorite feeding locality with plenty of eternal water springs that bubble freely and copiously even during the "dry spells."

More than one-half of the cows pastured this year were registered stock. Only four lost their lives in the pastures. None were stolen, as has sometimes been reported. The charge for pasturing cattle in the southern New Hampshire open ranges from $7 to $8 a head for "the season." And it is worth it, Dracut farmers say, most emphatically.

One more little item of interest—Notwithstanding the "high cost of living," not a single pasture owner in New Hampshire has raised his range feeding prices, which have been about the same each succeeding year for the past quarter century or more.

AND RIGHT IN NEW YORK, TOO!

At 31st street and the East River, New York, is this wood yard. Here society comes to get its supply of logs for the open hearths, around which real New Yorkers like so well to sit and chat. Steam heat doesn't compare with it, say those who know.

AT ASSOCIATE HALL.

Several exponents of the terpsichorean art will compete tonight in the open box at Associate hall as many entries have been made for the event. Not only Lowell dancers will take part, but dancers from other cities have signified their intention of participating. Miner-Boyle's orchestra will be on hand and indications point to a big night. Check dancing will be in order during the evening. A small admission charge will be made as customary. Ferdinand's celebrated Havana orchestra of 11 men will make its first appearance of the season tomorrow night at Associate hall and in the past has been a wonderful drawing card. This orchestra is composed of first-class musicians and will introduce several new features. It is considered a real treat and the patrons are assured of a good entertainment.

SEE THE POINT!

The Sun has by far the largest circulation of any Lowell paper. Study per cent. of Sun readers do not read any other Lowell newspaper. See the point, Mr. Advertiser.

WILL HOLD HALLOWEEN PARTY AND DANCE

Next Wednesday evening in the K. of C. hall in Dutton street, a Halloween party and dance will be conducted under the auspices of Bishop Delany assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus. Elaborate preparations for this, the first social of the fall season, have been made and a general good time is assured for all who attend. The music for dancing and everything is in readiness for a most enjoyable evening.

The following officers will be in charge: General manager, John V. Delany; assistant general managers, John E. Hart and Charles E. Hunt; floor director, Edward F. Stacey; try club, wife Paul Child and Frank T. Gooden; wife Edward Appleton, Dewey Archambault, John T. Buckley, George E. Shugart, John T. Burns, Frank W. Connolly, George B.

Delany, Thomas J. Fitzgerald, Charles D. Foley, Patrick F. Flannery, Frank J. Flanagan, Frank A. Groves, Daniel J. Evans, Daniel J. O'Brien, Robert R. Thomas, William H. Gallagher, Edward Hendley, Charles W. Holmes, Joseph Hendley, John J. Keefe, John J. Lihara, Roger J. Lane, Andrew Malloy, Chris McSorley, John F. McArdle, William J. McElroy, Arthur J. O'Neill, Thomas J. O'Donnell, Patrick J. Nevins, Daniel S. O'Brien, John J. Moloney.

A SPECIAL OFFER!

To get you better acquainted with our shoe repairing department for a limited time we will put on

Ladies' Rubber Heels, 25c for

SHWARTZ'S SAMPLE SHOE STORE
24 Prescott St.

C. P. A. Training and Advanced Accounting

A standard course in Public Accounting and Business Management. Each student progresses individually and has personal help and explanations. Not a lecture course. No more wearied trips from Boston at midnight! A more thorough and more practical training of proved success right here at home. Send or telephone for Special Catalog. Local references given.

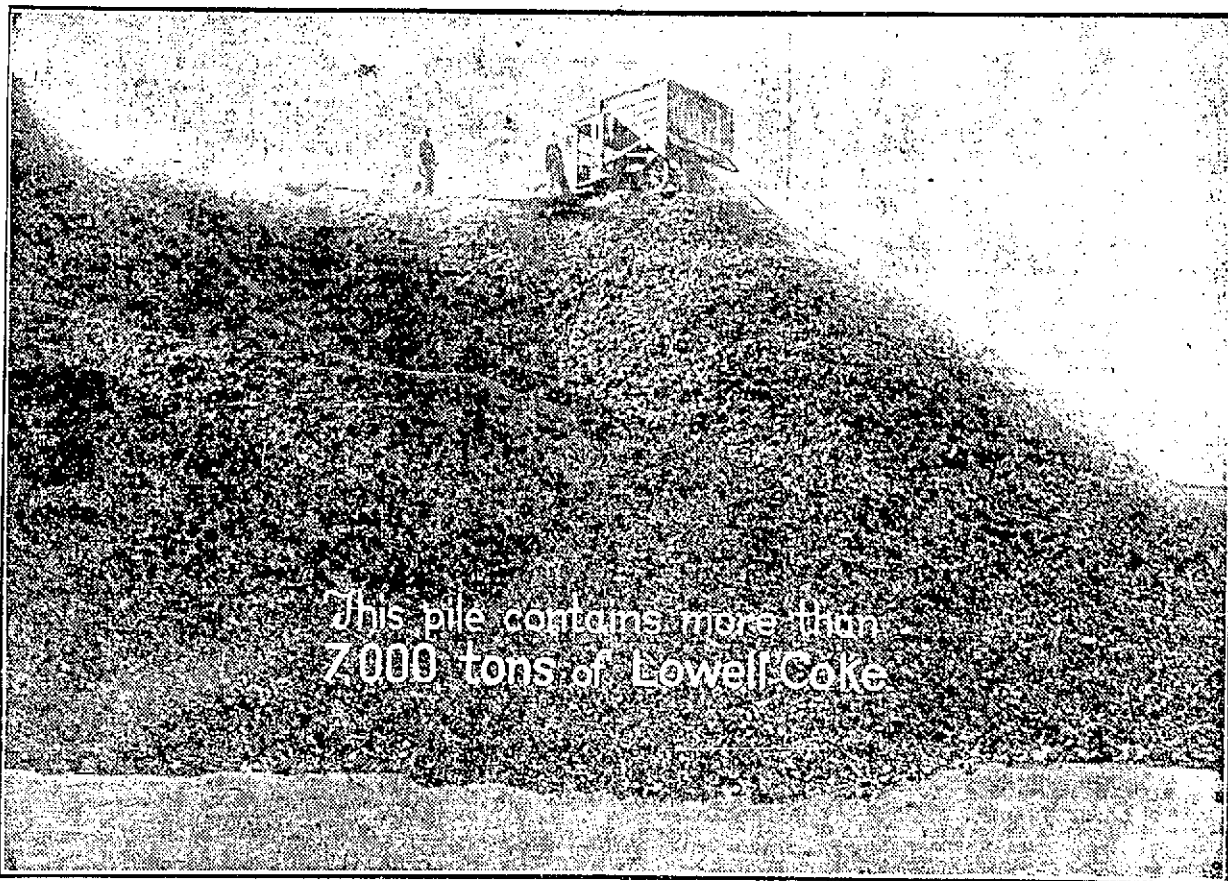

Under Expert Instruction of Certified Public Accountant and Member of Massachusetts Bar.

THE KIMBALL SCHOOL, 226 CENTRAL ST.

Here's Lowell Coke Enough For Everybody

This photograph of the coke pile at the School street plant of the Lowell Gas Light Company was taken a few days ago. It shows clearer than words can tell the immense amount of Lowell coke we have on hand with which to fill the wants of Lowell people during the cold weather.

The papers have told the last few days of the scarcity of anthracite coal—in fact State Fuel Commissioner Hultman issued a statement urging people to use soft coal or coke. Mr. Hultman says that Anthracite will be scarce and he knows. Fill your bin now with Lowell Coke.

(Photo shows Auto Truck on top of Pile)

Last winter people who waited until the last minute to get their supply of fuel were left high and dry. Many bins remained empty with the attending inconvenience, sickness and lack of comfort. Those who learned their lesson well will not get caught this winter—at least we hope not.

We are prepared to make delivery at a moment's notice. We have extra trucks and men ready to go to any part of the city at any time. Just phone 6790 and let us tell you what size Lowell coke will best suit your wants. If you desire we will show you how to burn coke right.

Lowell Gas Light Company

$10,050,000 SUIT
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—A suit in equity for $10,050,000 was filed in federal court today by Shubert Vaudeville, Inc., against the B. F. Keith Vaudeville Exchange and the Orpheum Circuit, Inc., alleging violation of the federal law relating to restraint of trade.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 18

Jack looked up and saw a fat lady, dressed in white. She looked just like the laundry lady Jack had seen at home. But the little adventurer decided he didn't want to be put into one of the great tubs that stood nearby, so he started to run, with Flip close at his heels.

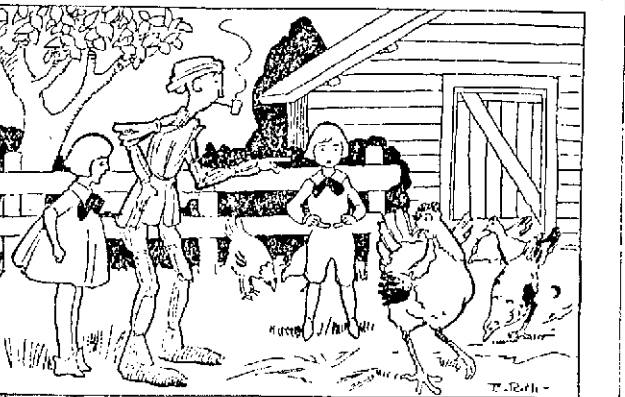

At the end of the laundry room was a small stairway and Jack made for this as fast as he could. Up these stairs he went. And as he reached the top, Flip went tearing out just in front of him. Then he heard great peals of laughter. The whole affair had amused the laundry lady.

"Well, we got out of that safely," said Jack. "I wonder where we are now." And a voice replied, "Why, you're right out in the court yard again, and just in time to see King Bugaboo return from his hunting trip." Jack then saw that King was standing beside him. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

"LOOK HERE, LADIES," HE SAID POLITELY. "YOU'RE ALL WRONG"

"Come here," beckoned Mister Dodge to the twins. "What do you make of this?"

Nancy and Nick crouched down beside the fireman where they could see and hear, but where they could not be seen themselves.

But they need not have been afraid. For the chickens were having an argument, and when people are trying to show that everybody else is wrong, and nobody is right but themselves, they don't bother much about outsiders.

Mrs. Buff Orpington was speaking. "Why all you've got to do is to ask Farmer Brown," she chuckled. "He had me at the County fair in a cage with wire over the front, with a card on it that told all about me. I'm the finest hen on the farm. My ancestors date back as far as the first hay stack in the county and my blood is as blue as blue water on washing day."

"Oh, goodness," chuckled Miss Plymouth Rock. "Blue blood? My goodness! Didn't my ancestors come over in the Mayflower and land at Plymouth Rock? Don't talk to me about blue blood!"

"Speaking of blood," put in Misses Bantam. "My great-grandfather was the most famous gamecock in America. He won the biggest cockfight ever held on this side of the ocean."

"Humph," sniffed Misses Black Mince. "That's something to be ashamed of, not proud of. I shouldn't boast of it if I were you, Misses Bantam. But they do say that small people are always talking of their own importance. You'd make pretty poor pinking when it came to a meal."

Misses Rhode Island Red spoke up impatiently at this.

"Yes, I should say so! When it comes to showing one's blood and keep, I flatter myself that I have some meat on my bones. Besides my eggs are larger and finer than any in Squeaky-Moo Land. I have heard Farmer Brown say so, and besides I

IF YOU WANT HELP IN YOUR HOME OR BUSINESS TRY A SUN CLASSIFIED AD

MACON, Ga., Oct. 24.—When Young Stribling, school-boy light-heavyweight, who caused the champion, Mike McTigue, and his imported referee, Harry Erle, such great embarrassment some days ago at Columbus, gets an offer to fight his mother decides whether it should be accepted or not. "Ma" Stribling, as she is known here, is virtually the business manager of her rising young gladiator. She feels that Young Stribling is a match for any man of his weight in the world, especially after the manner in which he cuffed McTigue around, but she is careful to see that he is not overly matched—or underpaid. In short, "Ma" Stribling is a regular manager, and none of the wise-alackey promoters are going to put anything over on her.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Toussaint Dupuy, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Joseph Albert, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. P. M. ESTY, Registrar.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Margaret Henrietta Weaver Williams, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Florence B. Williams, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the first day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. P. M. ESTY, Registrar.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Patrick A. Mahan, otherwise called Patrick A. Mahon, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Oliver Desjardins, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the first day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. P. M. ESTY, Registrar.

WALTER E. GUYETTE . . . . . Auctioneer
53 CENTRAL ST. Telephone 2415

Announcements

LOST AND FOUND

SUM OF MONEY in envelope lost Friday, Oct. 26, in ward, 121 Blossum st. TOY FOX TERRIER white with black and tan head, lost Sunday night, on Bridge street, near Lakeview, owned by Mrs. Lester, 254 Bridge st. EVIDENCES, tortoise shell rim, gold bridge, lost between High and Anderson sts. to post office, Tuesday evening, found and 1854-M. Notify Carrier 45, post office.

Automobiles

STOVE REPAIRING 39
QUINN STOVE REPAIR CO., 144 Middlesex st., sells stoves, grates and other parts to fit all stoves and ranges. Work promptly attended to by expert repair men. Tel. 4129.

Medical Service

FREDERICK DUGDALE, M. D.
Specialist—

SKIN, BLOOD AND NERVOUS DISEASES

RHEUMATISM, psoriasis, neuritis, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatoid arthritis, gout, catarrh, eczema, CANCER, TUMORS, PULES, fistula and all diseases WITHOUT THE KNIFE.
EYE, ear, nose, throat, stomach. Investigate methods of treatment. LACEY, OFFICE, NEW LOWELL, FIVE CORNER, SAVINGS BANK BLDG., JOHN ST. WED. AND SAT. 2-4-7-8. Consultation Free.

Professional Services

ACTIVE AND HEALTHY—ALL BUT MY FEET. We specialize in the manufacturing and adjustment of mechanical and electrical appliances. DR. JENSEN'S foot appliances. Consultation free. Come in and talk it over. No charge. THE BOSTON CHIROPODIST DRUG CO., 474 MERRIMACK STREET.

Employment

HELP WANTED—FEMALE 58
MARCEL WAYER wanted, experienced. Good pay for right party. Apply New York Laundry Parlor, 125 Essex st., Lawrence, Mass.

Legal Notices

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Sybil Messer, late of Billerica, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Roscoe A. Messer, of Billerica, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond;

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the thirty-first day of October, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three. P. M. ESTY, Registrar.

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 15, 1923.
Commissioners of Middlesex County Court House.

The undersigned petition your Honorable Board for permission to cross Tanner street with railroad track to serve our property.

This track is to cross Tanner street at grade approximately at right angles about 37 ft. south of the south line of Cambridge street, and we are attaching hereto a plan of the property received from the City Council of the City of Lowell, Massachusetts, authorizing us to do the work with their sanction.

Very truly yours,
DAVID ZERKIND & COMPANY.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.—Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. At a meeting of the County Commissioners for the County of Middlesex, in Lowell, in said County, on the First Tuesday of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, by adjournment at Cambridge, on the twenty-third day of October, A. D. 1923.

On the foregoing petition, offered by the petitioner above notice to all persons and corporations interested therein, that said Commissioners will meet for the purpose of viewing the premises and hearing the parties at the Court House, Lowell, in said County, on Monday the nineteenth day of November, A. D. 1923, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, by publishing a copy of said petition and of this order therein, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper printed at Lowell, three weeks successively, the last publication to be seven days at least before said Court, and to cause notice of this order to be given, to said Commissioners, at the time and place fixed for said view and hearing.

CHARLES T. HUGHES, Ass't Clerk.
Copy of petition and order thereon.
Attest.
CHARLES T. HUGHES, Ass't Clerk.
Oct. 29-23

Business Service

CHIMNEYS CLEANED

CHIMNEYS SWEEPED, $3.00 a due. J. M. Kelley, 191 Appleton st. Tel. 4711-M.

ROOFING

CRIMNEY and slate roof repairing; shanty chimneys a specialty. J. M. Kelley, 191 Appleton st. Tel. 4711-M.

STOVE REPAIRING

QUINN STOVE REPAIR CO., 144 Middlesex st., sells stoves, grates and other parts to fit all stoves and ranges. Work promptly attended to by expert repair men. Tel. 4129.

MEDICAL SERVICE

FREDERICK DUGDALE, M. D.
Specialist—

SKIN, BLOOD AND NERVOUS DISEASES

RHEUMATISM, psoriasis, neuritis, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatoid arthritis, gout, catarrh, eczema, CANCER, TUMORS, PULES, fistula and all diseases WITHOUT THE KNIFE.
EYE, ear, nose, throat, stomach. Investigate methods of treatment. LACEY, OFFICE, NEW LOWELL, FIVE CORNER, SAVINGS BANK BLDG., JOHN ST. WED. AND SAT. 2-4-7-8. Consultation Free.

Professional Services

ACTIVE AND HEALTHY—ALL BUT MY FEET. We specialize in the manufacturing and adjustment of mechanical and electrical appliances. DR. JENSEN'S foot appliances. Consultation free. Come in and talk it over. No charge. THE BOSTON CHIROPODIST DRUG CO., 474 MERRIMACK STREET.

Employment

HELP WANTED—FEMALE 58
MARCEL WAYER wanted, experienced. Good pay for right party. Apply New York Laundry Parlor, 125 Essex st., Lawrence, Mass.

GIRLS—Who work with or know other girls, make extra money for Christmas. Selling hand crocheted lingerie. Sample. Send $2.00 for sample to show sample. Little Novelty Co., 540 So. Orange Ave., Newark, New Jersey. Money back if dissatisfied.

YOUNG LADY, 20 to 22, wanted for responsible position. Apply Manager, Merrimack Square theatre.

HELP WANTED—MALE 31
MAN wanted to take over established business in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. At present enough business to pay large returns. State experience. One with some knowledge of English preferred. Small capital required. Write C-30, Sun Office.

SALESMEN AND AGENTS 52
SELL FINEST BULK Everwear Neckwear. Over 100 percent profit. Excellent opportunity. Wonderful business. Prices $1.50, $2.50, $3.50 and $5.00. Send for proposition. Fisher Knitting Co., 1043 Jefferson Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

CAPABLE STOCK SALESMAN wanted to represent a large stock of goods. This is a big proposition. In the right man. Inquire H. E. Weeks, 908 Purchase St., New Bedford, Mass.

LET ME DO YOUR CURTAINS for you. All work guaranteed. Tel. 6341-R.

YOUNG LADY desires position in general office work, 7 years experience, can furnish good references. Write K-8, Sun Office, or phone 4782-M, in evening.

Financial

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES 58
GROCERY, variety and ready store for sale, cash on hand, near Downtown, doing fine business and would not be sold for less than $10,000.00. Inquire, Tel. 6257-W.

MEAT MARKET for sale, good location, good business. Apply 156 Paige st.

MONEY TO LOAN 60
CASH waiting for 2nd and 3rd mortgages. Apply L. O. Box 1057.

Livestock

NATIVE, FRESH KILLED broilers, fowls or chickens delivered to all parts of the city. Lowell Live Poultry Ex., 314 Market st. Phone 5631.

ARTICLES FOR SALE

A GOOD PARLOR STOVE for sale cheap. Call at 63 Tyler st.

PIPER TARIER SET, overfitted for sale. Apply 36 Chatham st.

POULTRY—Market price paid for poultry of all kinds. Lowell Live Poultry Exchange, 314 Market st. Phone 5631.

USED RANGES—That look and work like new. Lowest prices. Household appliances, including Quaker, Household, Atlantic and Stuart. Prices from $20 to $250. Parlor stoves $10, $15, $25, up to $50. Satisfaction guaranteed. O. F. Prentiss, 340 Bridge st.

CLOTHING—Men's new and second hand clothing, bought and sold. Studebaker Clothing Store, 310 Mifflin st.

TYPEWRITERS—New, rebuilt and second hand machines of all leading makes at reasonable prices. Our rental charges for the month are moderate. Prices' Arcade, 105 Merrimack st., to 25 Middle st.

Merchandise

FURNITURE

Second hand, and stored of all kinds, bought and sold. Quality Furniture Co., 339 Middle st. Tel. 5231.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

BARGAINS, good ones in new and used pianos and Victrolas at Household, 704 Bridge st.

USED PIANOS—A few good bargains in used pianos and player pianos. Prices are right. Instruments guaranteed. Don March.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES—We re-sharpen all kinds. Howard, 222 Central st.

MATTRESSES AND SPRINGS

MATTRESSES AND SPRINGS renovated and repaired. Work called for and delivered. Phone 1032. West End Spring Bed Co., 35 Fletcher st.

MISCELLANEOUS

OX CARNS and FURNISHES for all stores demonstrated at A. C. Page & Co., 54 Middle st. Tel. 5372-M.

LARGE STABLE to let at 44 Rock st. Apply at 366 Market st.

LEATHER for shoe repairing, fresh, clean stock. Prices from 25c pound up. Stillwell, 171 Church st.

SAFETY SHOES—Men's rubber boots, 40s, 42s, 44s, 46s, 48s, 50s. Men's sewed tops, rubber heels $1.25. Ladies' sewed tops, rubber heels $1.00. Basement store, 11 Merrimack st.

LAUNDRIES
SHIRTS, collars, 25c underwear $2.50, 50c for union suits, 15c. Ladies' shirt-waists 20c. 25c p.c. reduction now on all work. Wash Lee, 77 Moody st.

Instruction

WAMEN'S RIDING SCHOOL, Lessons given on grounds and attendance furnished. Tel. 3003-W.

Rooms—Board

ROOMS FOR RENT 60
1st floor, 2nd floor, 3rd floor, 4th floor, 5th floor, 6th floor, 7th floor, 8th floor, 9th floor, 10th floor, 11th floor, 12th floor, 13th floor, 14th floor, 15th floor, 16th floor, 17th floor, 18th floor, 19th floor, 20th floor, 21st floor, 22nd floor, 23rd floor, 24th floor, 25th floor, 26th floor, 27th floor, 28th floor, 29th floor, 30th floor, 31st floor, 32nd floor, 33rd floor, 34th floor, 35th floor, 36th floor, 37th floor, 38th floor, 39th floor, 40th floor, 41st floor, 42nd floor, 43rd floor, 44th floor, 45th floor, 46th floor, 47th floor, 48th floor, 49th floor, 50th floor, 51st floor, 52nd floor, 53rd floor, 54th floor, 55th floor, 56th floor, 57th floor, 58th floor, 59th floor, 60th floor, 61st floor, 62nd floor, 63rd floor, 64th floor, 65th floor, 66th floor, 67th floor, 68th floor, 69th floor, 70th floor, 71st floor, 72nd floor, 73rd floor, 74th floor, 75th floor, 76th floor, 77th floor, 78th floor, 79th floor, 80th floor, 81st floor, 82nd floor, 83rd floor, 84th floor, 85th floor, 86th floor, 87th floor, 88th floor, 89th floor, 90th floor, 91st floor, 92nd floor, 93rd floor, 94th floor, 95th floor, 96th floor, 97th floor, 98th floor, 99th floor, 100th floor, 101st floor, 102nd floor, 103rd floor, 104th floor, 105th floor, 106th floor, 107th floor, 108th floor, 109th floor, 110th floor, 111th floor, 112th floor, 113th floor, 114th floor, 115th floor, 116th floor, 117th floor, 118th floor, 119th floor, 120th floor, 121st floor, 122nd floor, 123rd floor, 124th floor, 125th floor, 126th floor, 127th floor, 128th floor, 129th floor, 130th floor, 131st floor, 132nd floor, 133rd floor, 134th floor, 135th floor, 136th floor, 137th floor, 138th floor, 139th floor, 140th floor, 141st floor, 142nd floor, 143rd floor, 144th floor, 145th floor, 146th floor, 147th floor, 148th floor, 149th floor, 150th floor, 151st floor, 152nd floor, 153rd floor, 154th floor, 155th floor, 156th floor, 157th floor, 158th floor, 159th floor, 160th floor, 161st floor, 162nd floor, 163rd floor, 164th floor, 165th floor, 166th floor, 167th floor, 168th floor, 169th floor, 170th floor, 171st floor, 172nd floor, 173rd floor, 174th floor, 175th floor, 176th floor, 177th floor, 178th floor, 179th floor, 180th floor, 181st floor, 182nd floor, 183rd floor, 184th floor, 185th floor, 186th floor, 187th floor, 188th floor, 189th floor, 190th floor, 191st floor, 192nd floor, 193rd floor, 194th floor, 195th floor, 196th floor, 197th floor, 198th floor, 199th floor, 200th floor, 201st floor, 202nd floor, 203rd floor, 204th floor, 205th floor, 206th floor, 207th floor, 208th floor, 209th floor, 210th floor, 211th floor, 212th floor, 213th floor, 214th floor, 215th floor, 216th floor, 217th floor, 218th floor, 219th floor, 220th floor, 221st floor, 222nd floor, 223rd floor, 224th floor, 225th floor, 226th floor, 227th floor, 228th floor, 229th floor, 230th floor, 231st floor, 232nd floor, 233rd floor, 234th floor, 235th floor, 236th floor, 237th floor, 238th floor, 239th floor, 240th floor, 241st floor, 242nd floor, 243rd floor, 244th floor, 245th floor, 246th floor, 247th floor, 248th floor, 249th floor, 250th floor, 251st floor, 252nd floor, 253rd floor, 254th floor, 255th floor, 256th floor, 257th floor, 258th floor, 259th floor, 260th floor, 261st floor, 262nd floor, 263rd floor, 264th floor, 265th floor, 266th floor, 267th floor, 268th floor, 269th floor, 270th floor, 271st floor, 272nd floor, 273rd floor, 274th floor, 275th floor, 276th floor, 277th floor, 278th floor, 279th floor, 280th floor, 281st floor, 282nd floor, 283rd floor, 284th floor, 285th floor, 286th floor, 287th floor, 288th floor, 289th floor, 290th floor, 291st floor, 292nd floor, 293rd floor, 294th floor, 295th floor, 296th floor, 297th floor, 298th floor, 299th floor, 300th floor, 301st floor, 302nd floor, 303rd floor, 304th floor, 305th floor, 306th floor, 307th floor, 308th floor, 309th floor, 310th floor, 311th floor, 312nd floor, 313th floor, 314th floor, 315th floor, 316th floor, 317th floor, 318th floor, 319th floor, 320th floor, 321st floor, 322nd floor, 323rd floor, 324th floor, 325th floor, 326th floor, 327th floor, 328th floor, 329th floor, 330th floor, 331st floor, 332nd floor, 333rd floor, 334th floor, 335th floor, 336th floor, 337th floor, 338th floor, 339th floor, 340th floor, 341st floor, 342nd floor, 343rd floor, 344th floor, 345th floor, 346th floor, 347th floor, 348th floor, 349th floor, 350th floor, 351st floor, 352nd floor, 353rd floor, 354th floor, 355th floor, 356th floor, 357th floor, 358th floor, 359th floor, 360th floor, 361st floor, 362nd floor, 363rd floor, 364th floor, 365th floor, 366th floor, 367th floor, 368th floor, 369th floor, 370th floor, 371st floor, 372nd floor, 373rd floor, 374th floor, 375th floor, 376th floor, 377th floor, 378th floor, 379th floor, 380th floor, 381st floor, 382nd floor, 383rd floor, 384th floor, 385th floor, 386th floor, 387th floor, 388th floor, 389th floor, 390th floor, 391st floor, 392nd floor, 393rd floor, 394th floor, 395th floor, 396th floor, 397th floor, 398th floor, 399th floor, 400th floor, 401st floor, 402nd floor, 403rd floor, 404th floor, 405th floor, 406th floor, 407th floor, 408th floor, 409th floor, 410th floor, 411th floor, 412nd floor, 413th floor, 414th floor, 415th floor, 416th floor, 417th floor, 418th floor, 419th floor, 420th floor, 421st floor, 422nd floor, 423rd floor, 424th floor, 425th floor, 426th floor, 427th floor, 428th floor, 429th floor, 430th floor, 431st floor, 432nd floor, 433rd floor, 434th floor, 435th floor, 436th floor, 437th floor, 438th floor, 439th floor, 440th floor, 441st floor, 442nd floor, 443rd floor, 444th floor, 445th floor, 446th floor, 447th floor, 448th floor, 449th floor, 450th floor, 451st floor, 452nd floor, 453rd floor, 454th floor, 455th floor, 456th floor, 457th floor, 458th floor, 459th floor, 460th floor, 461st floor, 462nd floor, 463rd floor, 464th floor, 465th floor, 466th floor, 467th floor, 468th floor, 469th floor, 470th floor, 471st floor, 472nd floor, 473rd floor, 474th floor, 475th floor, 476th floor, 477th floor, 478th floor, 479th floor, 480th floor, 481st floor, 482nd floor, 483rd floor, 484th floor, 485th floor, 486th floor, 487th floor, 488th floor, 489th floor, 490th floor, 491st floor, 492nd floor, 493rd floor, 494th floor, 495th floor, 496th floor, 497th floor, 498th floor, 499th

JUDGE QUA ORDERS VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFFS IN AUTO ACCIDENT CASE

Judge Qua in superior civil court this morning ordered a verdict for the plaintiffs in the cases of Fannie R. Simpson vs. Charles T. Douglas and Bartholomew Hayes, and John A. Simpson vs. same, after the jury had reported its findings of fact to the court. The jury then retired for the second time to assess damages and reported verdicts of $1500 for Mrs. Simpson and $115 for Mr. Simpson.

The suits grew out of an automobile accident on the Lowell-Lawrence boulevard in which the plaintiffs claimed that their Peerless sedan was run into by a Ford truck owned by the defendants, damaging the sedan and causing injury to Mrs. Simpson. The sedan at the time and a man named Daly, an employee of the defendants, was driving the truck.

Because of the intricate points of law involved in the case the jury was asked merely to answer eight questions relating to the facts in dispute, and to determine the facts by their answers. The eight questions and the answers of the jury were as follows:

1—Was the forward number plate in position on the defendant's car at the time when the defendant permitted Daly to drive the car? Answer: Yes.

2—Was the forward number plate in position on the defendant's car at the time of the collision? Answer: Yes.

3—Was Roger Simpson, at the time of the accident, acting as the servant of the plaintiff, John Simpson, in driving the Peerless car? Answer: No.

4—Did the plaintiff, Fannie R. Simpson, voluntarily and without constraint surrender all care of herself to the caution of the driver, Roger Simpson? Answer: No.

5—Did negligence on the part of Roger Simpson contribute to the cause of the accident? Answer: Yes.

6—Was Daly, at the time of the accident, acting as the servant of the defendant, within the scope of his employment? Answer: No.

7—Did negligence on the part of Daly contribute to the cause of the accident? Answer: Yes.

8—Did negligence of the defendants in permitting their truck to be driven by an unlicensed driver contribute to the cause of the accident? Answer: Yes.

Jury Empaneled
A jury was empaneled this morning in the case of Joseph Norkunas vs. Morris Schulman and the case went to trial. The action is one of contract to recover $200 alleged to be due as commission on the sale of real estate. The plaintiff claims that he entered into an agreement with the defendant on April 28, 1923, by the terms of which the defendant agreed to pay him a commission of $200 for the sale of a certain property on Ware street at a price of $8000. The plaintiff claims that he did procure a purchaser and that the sale was made by the said purchaser, but the commission has never been paid.

The case of Bechard, et al. vs. Jean K. Morin, which was scheduled for trial this morning, will start as soon as the case now on trial is finished. This is an action of contract, ad damnum $20,000, and grows out of the collapse of the dance hall on the Fair street boulevard. The plaintiffs claim that they paid the defendant $14,300 for the construction of the building, and they seek damages because they contend the construction was faulty and good material was not used.

The case promised to bring out many fine points in law. Several experts will be called to testify, and an attempt will also be made to qualify certain witnesses as storm experts. It is expected that the trial of the case will consume at least one week. Attorney E. J. Tierney will conduct the trial for the plaintiffs and Attorney Albert S. Howard will represent the defendant.

LOWELL DISTRICT COURT

Officer Cooney Makes Doubtful—More Liquor Cases Heard Today

Officer Cooney nailed two birds with one stone when he went to investigate a Lee street house yesterday. Besides arresting a man and a girl in an alleged house of ill-fame, he also took Thomas Travers, tenant in an adjoining house, into custody for an illegal sale. The latter was found guilty in court and the case continued two weeks for sentence.

Frank P. Whelan, giving his residence as Lawrence, was found guilty of being a vagrant and sentenced to the state farm. About 9 o'clock last night, according to Officer McNally, Whelan went to the undertaking parlors of G. W. Healey in Westford street and requested lodging for the night. When it was refused, he raised a commotion and was "going big" when the officer arrived. Over $4 in cash was found on his person when searched at the station.

Kathina Tsopolous pleaded guilty to illegal keeping and paid a fine of $100. Joseph McElhinney was fined $100 for illegal sale. He first pleaded not guilty, but later changed his plea and paid the customary fine. For illegal keeping, Leo Tighe was fined $100. Emory Duffault, charged with drunkenness and operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was fined $100. Edward Souther, for a like offense, was continued until Friday. For operating without a license, William Auser paid a fine of $5.

FREE DANCING

C. C. A. Hall, Tomorrow Night
Middle St., Formerly A. O. H.
Everybody Invited to See This
New Hall
Leo Peter's Orchestra

AUTO ROBE MISSING

from
5 VARNEY ST.

If the person seen taking this robe returns it at once, they will avoid trouble.

Tomorrow Night

Halloween Dancing Party
By the Femerofis
BRACUT GRANGE
Eddie Brooks' Orch. Adm. 35c

C. Y. M. L. TO AID IN BOY SCOUT DRIVE

The C.Y.M.L. held its regular meeting in the clubrooms, 378 Suffolk street, yesterday afternoon, and transacted considerable business. President John J. Mahoney occupied the chair.

The first business to come before the meeting had to do with the Boy Scout movement. Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, the club's spiritual director, explained the movement in detail, and it was unanimously voted to aid the scouts in every possible way. The following committee was appointed to represent the scout drive: Rev. Thos. J. McDonough, John McDermott, James O'Brien, Raymond Ricard and Joseph Sexton.

The question of starting a university extension course was discussed at considerable length by several of the members. Rev. Fr. McDonough and John J. Gildea explained the subject in detail. Several other members entered into the discussion and it was unanimously voted to start a class in the school hall, and a meeting for that purpose will be held next Friday evening.

The matter of the C.Y.M.L. having a basketball team this season was taken up and it was voted to conduct the team under the same rules as last year. Until a permanent manager is elected the chairman of the athletic committee will be in charge. The revival of the communion breakfast was next taken up. Several members thought a mistake was made when they were discontinued. The members will receive holy communion in a body at the 8:30 o'clock mass Sunday, Nov. 11. After the mass the breakfast will be held in the school hall.

The bowling league question was then taken up. In former years the league has started late and the schedule carried the boys into warm weather. The following committee was appointed to have charge of the league with instructions to get under way at once: John F. Murphy, chairman; Frank O'Neil, Philip Carroll, Harold B. Sullivan and Frank McGarrahan.

President Mahoney reported that Secretary James F. Saunders, James J. Bruin, Esq., and himself attended the regular meeting of the park commissioners last Friday evening and advocated the establishment of a chess track, comfort station, shower baths and outdoor gymnasium on the North common. The committee was received courteously and the commission members looked upon the matter in a very favorable light. It is not the intention of the C.Y.M.L. to change the name of the common, but it is its intention to do all in its power to have the desired improvements made. The meeting unanimously voted to lend its moral support to the park commission to obtain the desired results. It was also voted to draw up a petition and present the same to the city council asking for its support.

The committee in charge of the annual Halloween dancing party in Association hall next Wednesday evening reported that everything is in readiness and that present indications point to the most successful affair ever run by the "lyceum."

SUN BREVITIES

Best printing, Tobin's, Associate bldg. Mirrors resilvered. Tel. 4655-R. Catering the best—Lydon, Tel. 4934. Fire and liability insurance. Daniel J. O'Brien's, Wyman's Exchange.

Learn to dance. Join the Wednesday evening class at the Bay State dancing school, 265 Dutton st. 50c a lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Curry of 243 School street are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl, born Oct. 22.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Joseph Mullany last evening at St. John's hospital. Miss Mullany was formerly Miss Isabel McQuade.

Attorney Edward J. Tierney has recovered from an attack of the flu which kept him confined at his home since last Thursday.

Dr. John K. Gatsopoulos of 1652 Middlesex street, has applied for a commission as captain in the medical branch of the coast artillery reserve corps, the first as a private and the latter as a cook.

The Lowell Memorial Auditorium has a seating capacity of 4000. Imagine the Auditorium filled to capacity twenty times and you will get some idea of the number of people who read The Sun daily, and 50 per cent of the 30,000 readers of The Sun take no other Lowell newspaper.

Miss Anna S. Madigan returned to her duties in the office of the Lowell chamber of commerce this morning after a two months' leave of absence granted because of illness.

U. S. Commissioner Hears Liquor Cases (Continued)

Jacques was arrested in Haverhill last Friday, he was released on bail furnished by his brother, but this morning, his brother refused to furnish bail and Jacques was ordered remanded to the East Cambridge jail to await trial.

John H. Jermyn of Haverhill, pleaded not guilty to a charge of making an illegal sale, but probable cause was found against him and he was held in $500 for the United States district court. Federal Agents Sullivan and Hall testified that they approached Jacques in Haverhill last Friday and told him they wanted to purchase some liquor. He directed them to a doorway and in a few minutes Jermyn came along with a half-pint of liquor, which he sold to Sullivan for $100. Then they arrested Jermyn and also took Jacques into custody and they testified they found several pint bottles of liquor in Jacques' pockets.

James Gallagher of Lawrence, a clerk in a saloon at 17A Lowell street, Lawrence, pleaded not guilty to a charge of illegal selling of liquor. He waived examination and was held in $500.

James Gleason, who was arrested in a saloon at 70 South Broadway, Lawrence, pleaded not guilty to a charge of making an illegal sale. At the request of his counsel, Attorney Joseph Donahue of this city, the case was continued for one week. Commissioner Walsh will hold regular sittings at the court house on every Monday and Friday morning hereafter, at 10 o'clock, provided there is any business to be brought before him.

BOY SCOUTS CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS WILL OPEN TONIGHT AND CONTINUE THROUGH THE WEEK

Another team has volunteered its services to the campaign for funds that is being started by the Boy Scout organization tonight. The team is composed of members of the Lowell Ad club and the captain will be H. B. Leggat.

The drive will open with a dinner at Marie's restaurant on Central street, tonight at 6 o'clock, at which all team members and captains will be present. All other persons who are interested in the work that is being done by the local troops are invited to be present and hear the speaker of the occasion, Mr. Dudley H. Port, a prominent Boston attorney, and the chairman of the New England regional scout executive board, who will tell of the work that has been and is being done in other cities with the youth of the nation.

Final instructions as to methods of campaigning and the necessary lists of names to be canvassed, as well as the other necessary paraphernalia will be distributed and one or two short "pep" talks given before the meeting breaks up. The drive will last throughout this week, ending Saturday night, and is for the purpose of obtaining $7200 to carry on the work in Lowell of organizing troops of scouts and having them properly supervised to get the greatest good out of their work. The figure of $7200 represents the budget compiled by expert accountants and from it has been eliminated everything that is not absolutely essential to the proper performance of training the boys for a period of one year.

NO NEW DETAILS ON LOST SUB

O-5 Sank in Collision With Steamer at Atlantic Entrance of Panama Canal

Five Men, Including L. T. Brown of Tyngsboro, Went Down With It

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The navy department today had no new details on the sinking of the submarine O-5 in collision with the steamer Abangarez at the Atlantic entrance of the Panama canal. A message to the department said the submarine had been sunk early in the day and that five men had gone down with the vessel.

Although constructed during the war, the O-5 already had passed into a class of submarines now considered to be practically obsolete and its usefulness was restricted to harbor and coast defense.

Those reported missing were: Lawrence Brown, chief electrician's mate, Tyngsboro, Mass.; Clyde E. Hughes, motor machinist's mate, first class, Manito, Ill.; Henry Dreaunt, torpedoman, second class, Grand Isle, Vt.

Thomas Melzer, fireman, 1221 South 2nd street, Philadelphia, Pa.; Fred C. Smith, mess attendant, first class, Cristobal Canal Zone.

The commanding officer of the submarine, according to navy records, was Lieut. Harrison Avery of Pennsylvania. Only one other officer was listed as attached to the vessel, Lieut. A. H. Hamberger. The collision occurred at 6:25 a. m. off Guay 3, in Limon bay, which is at the eastern terminus of the Panama canal.

TWO UNCONSCIOUS IN MOTOR LAUNCH

NEW BEDFORD, Oct. 29.—The two men found lying unconscious in the motor launch Vitesse, which beached itself on the north shore of Martha's Vineyard yesterday morning, are still in a precarious condition in the United States Marine hospital at Vineyard Haven. The men have been definitely identified as Arthur W. White, 2948 Washington street, Roxbury, and William H. Jackson of Fall River. The only person known in Fall River by this name is listed as a harbor master and wharfinger, 250 Kay street.

It was stated at the hospital today that in addition to suffering from gasoline fumes, White threatened, with pneumonia. Edward T. Gleason, who has a summer residence on Montapoli Neck, reports seeing a strange automobile in a garage near his home Saturday night, with the registration number 271,740, Massachusetts, made out in the name of F. White, 2948 Washington street, Roxbury. The machine was missing Sunday morning.

At the time of the accident, officers familiar with operations in canal waters said the tropical sun would have been well up and it was improbable that a collision could have occurred in the perfectly chartered bay under ordinary conditions. If the O-5 was running submerged or "awash," regulations require that extreme caution be taken in selection of the place of such maneuvers in order that other craft may be avoided.

DIAMONDS

The superior qualities which are to be found in our Diamonds make The Deciding Factor.

A most thorough comparison of Wood-Abbott Co. Diamonds with any others for brilliancy, fire, snap and animation will convince you of two things:—That our Diamonds are of exceptionally fine quality; that they are the very best Diamond Values the country affords.

Diamonds bought of us can be mounted as desired in platinum, white or green gold.

See the work done in our own shop—the finest in Lowell.

SATISFACTION ALWAYS
Established over 50 years

Wood-Abbott Co.

Diamond Merchants and Jewelers

135 CENTRAL ST.

SAVE COAL

KEEP WARM WITH
Perfection Oil Heaters

Adams Hardware and Paint Co.

361 Middlesex Street

HALLOWEEN NEW SWEET CIDER

Fresh every day. Order early for Halloween and dancing parties, smoke talks, lodge meetings. Use of keg and faucet free.

BOYLE BROS. Telephone 2056

THE BEST DANCE IN TOWN TONIGHT

By the
WHOS'IS PAWTUCKET BOATHOUSE

Ted Marshall's Orchestra Admission 35c

ASSOCIATE -- TONIGHT

OPEN FOX TROT CONTEST
Check Dancing — Miner-Doyle's Orchestra
Admission 10c

SPECIAL TUESDAY NIGHT—ATTRACTION NIGHT

FERDINANDO'S HAVANA ORCHESTRA
(11 Men) Night Before Halloween
Admission 55c First Appearance This Year

THURSDAY NIGHT—"MAL'S" HALLOWEEN PARTY

Bridal Veil

PERFECT
PATENT QUALITY
FLOUR

Sold in 5 lb., 24½ lb. bags; 98 lb. cotton bags and barrels, 196 lb. barrels.

Wholesale Distributors

Frank W. Foye Co., Lowell, Mass.

Telephone 3895